INTRODUCTION

There are three reasons for this book:

To perpetuate the names of the pioneers of Highland County, Ohio.

To preserve the locations and names of the cemeteries in Highland County, Ohio.

To aid individuals to trace their genealogy.

There are no public records listing births and deaths before 1857 in the county court houses in Ohio.

The 52nd. Ohio General Assembly of 1856, Vol.LIII, "Laws of Ohio", on page 73, passed on April 18, 1856 "AN ACT to provide for the registration of births, marriages and deaths, in Ohio". This act reads in part: "It shall be the duty of all physicians, surgeons and midwives, to keep a registry of all births and deaths at which they professionally attended." The act provides that the above persons were to answer certain enumerated questions regarding the child and/or deceased person and deposit in the County Clerk's Office of the various counties on or before the fifteenth day of March, in every year, a copy of said registry, embracing the period of one year, ending on the first day of March, last preceding the time of deposit. The Clerks were to deliver the copy to the assessor of the several townships in each county at the time that the Auditor of the county delivered instructions and blanks to such assessor to list taxable property. The assessors then were to go and ascertain all births, marriages and deaths which occurred in the twelve months, ending on the first day of March, last preceding the time of assessment. They then returned their lists to the Clerks of the Courts of Common Pleas who were to preserve them for public inspection.

This act was repealed by the 57th. General Assembly of 1867, Vol.LXIV, "Laws of Ohio", on page 63, passed March 8, 1867 by "AN ACT to provide for the registry of births and deaths". In this act, to take effect and to be in force from and after July 1st., 1867, all records of births and deaths, together with answers to certain enumerated questions regarding the child and/or deceased person, were to be reported to the Probate Court by physicians who attended at births and deaths, professional midwives who attended at birth, clergymen who officiated at funerals, and sextons who buried the dead. This is a brief outline of these two acts and further inquiry should be made to the acts themselves.

For years after the passage of these two acts the records of births and deaths are found to be confusing and inaccurately kept. Before these acts became law family Bibles and monuments in cemeteries were the only available evidence of births and deaths.

Family Bibles were a prized possession of our pioneer Highland County families and births, marriages and deaths were faithfully entered on their pages. As families multiplied and died these Bibles, usually one to a household, were destroyed by neglect, fire, moisture, or other causes. Many Bibles were carried by a son or daughter westward and today are extremely hard to locate. There are very few of these Bibles in the county today.

Introduction

The purpose of this study is to investigate the effects of the proposed system on the performance of the system.

The study is organized as follows: Chapter 1 introduces the system and the objectives of the study.

Chapter 2 describes the system architecture and the components of the system.

Chapter 3 presents the experimental setup and the results of the experiments.

Chapter 4 discusses the conclusions of the study and the implications of the results.

Chapter 5 presents the conclusions of the study and the implications of the results.

Chapter 6 presents the conclusions of the study and the implications of the results.

Chapter 7 presents the conclusions of the study and the implications of the results.

Chapter 8 presents the conclusions of the study and the implications of the results.

Chapter 9 presents the conclusions of the study and the implications of the results.

Chapter 10 presents the conclusions of the study and the implications of the results.

Chapter 11 presents the conclusions of the study and the implications of the results.

Chapter 12 presents the conclusions of the study and the implications of the results.

Chapter 13 presents the conclusions of the study and the implications of the results.

Chapter 14 presents the conclusions of the study and the implications of the results.

Chapter 15 presents the conclusions of the study and the implications of the results.

Chapter 16 presents the conclusions of the study and the implications of the results.

Many pioneer families erected sandstone monuments to the memory of their dead. Thousands of these monuments have been destroyed and today are fast disappearing in our country cemeteries. We have dug monuments out of the ground that had been completely buried for years. Many monuments were assembled by us from broken and chipped fragments scattered over the cemetery grounds. In copying monuments a definite rule was rigidly followed. Every monument to a person who died before the year 1900 and every monument to a person born before the year 1850 regardless of the date of death, has been copied. If the cemetery were small or isolated every monument was copied.

To present a comprehensive study of the cemeteries, their names, location and the people buried in them, all histories and articles concerning Highland County were examined. Every newspaper printed in Hillsboro, Highland County, from 1850 to 1954 and some newspapers printed in Greenfield, Highland County, were read. Deeds to the cemeteries, when found, were read and are cited with their exact language and with the names of the grantors and grantees. The reader will note that usually only the first recorded deed to a cemetery is cited. Many of these cemeteries have been enlarged over the years by subsequent conveyances. A number of cemeteries were never conveyed but exempted and reserved in conveyances of whole farms. A few cemetery deeds to township trustees have never been recorded. All this information is found in our "Remarks" under each cemetery.

These sources give valuable evidence as to the names and denominations of the churches which stood by these cemeteries years ago. They gave us material for brief biographical sketches of persons living to the age of 100 years and over and interesting people buried in the county.

Notice will be taken that throughout this book residents of the vicinity of the cemeteries are quoted. Much information gathered from individuals has proven surprisingly correct when checked with other available evidence. However individuals using this book must reserve their opinion as to the accuracy of this information.

A few Bible records are included in this book. The Dick Family Bible records are highly important for the reason that the Dick Cemetery, Marshall Township, is completely destroyed. The Scammahorn Family Record, found under Washburn Cemetery, Brushcreek Township, is important for the reason that its contents cover some of the pioneer families of the county.

If an individual is reasonably certain the ancestor lived and/or died in Highland County but the name cannot be found in this book, the compilers suggest a visit to the following cemeteries lying in other counties. Hundreds of persons who died in Highland County were buried in these cemeteries which usually lie a short distance from the Highland County line. They are:

- Lees Creek Cemetery, Clinton County.
- West Chapel Cemetery, Clinton County.
- New Vienna Cemetery, New Vienna, Clinton County.
- Flat Run Cemetery, Adams County.
- Locust Grove Cemetery, Adams County.
- Sardinia Cemetery, Sardinia, Brown County.
- Vance Cemetery, Brown County.
- Mt. Orab Cemetery, Mt. Orab, Brown County.
- Cynthiana Cemetery, Cynthiana, Pike County.

Faulk (also known as West) Cemetery, Pike County.
Walnut Creek Cemetery, Fayette County.
Bainbridge Cemetery, Bainbridge, Ross County.

Highland County, a part of the Northwest Territory and the Virginia Military District, was established in 1805 from Ross, Adams and Clermont Counties. It was the twenty-first county organized in the State of Ohio. "A History of the Early Settlement of Highland County, Ohio" by Daniel Scott, page 94 states: "The county thus established was called Highland County because of its situation on the high land between the Scioto and Miami Rivers, and embraced in its legal boundaries all the county of Highland as it now appears on the map and about one-half of the present county of Fayette, and two-thirds of the present county of Clinton, -its northern boundary being the present northern boundary of Fayette as it now stands; the southern boundary of Franklin county being identical with the northern boundary of Fayette." In 1810 Highland County was made considerably smaller when land was taken to form Clinton and Fayette Counties and by more land given to Clinton County in 1813.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

1. The small "ss" used throughout this book means that the person's name opposite the "ss" and all the other names set in two or more spaces to and including the first name set out two spaces, or to another "ss", are on the same stone.
For example:

John Jones.
Lydia, wife.	ss
Susan, dau.
Wm., son.	ss
Samuel Evans.	Susan, wife. ss
Jonah Barnes.
Mary, wife.	Henry, son.
Susan, dau.	Anne, dau. ss

Thus John & Lydia Jones are on a same stone. Susan & Wm. are on a same stone. Samuel & Susan Evans are on a same stone. Jonah, Mary, Susan, Henry and Anne are on a same stone.

2. Where the name is two spaces out followed by other names set in two or more spaces without the "ss" but with the relationship to the first name set forth after the names, the names are on separate stones.
For example: Omit the "ss" from the above names.

3. If one or more names follow the "ss" and are set in two spaces from the beginning name the names are found on separate stones.
For example:

John Jones.
Lydia, wife. ss
Susan, dau. of John & Lydia Ann.
Wm., son of same.

4. Where the first name is two spaces out followed by other names set in two spaces, without any relationship given, the compilers assumed a relationship if the stones were similar, the graves lie side by side, the graves appear to be on the same lot, or other physical evidence leading to believe a relationship exists.
5. Many times a wife or husband, sons or daughters died years before the surviving spouse, other sons or daughters. When the latter persons died the ground around the former persons' graves were filled with graves of people who had died in the interim. Thus a wife's grave may be found several yards from the husband's or children's graves. The stone reading "Mary, wife of John Smith" or "Charles, son of John & Mary Smith". The compilers have taken the license of assuming from the stones a relationship and placing them together - the first name two spaces out and the remaining names two spaces in.
6. Where the stone or stones state that one or more children were the son or daughter of parents the phrase "son of same." or "dau. of same.", or the word "dau." or "son.", was used to avoid endless repetition of the name or initials of the parents. Where a variation of the spelling or initials of the parents' name was found this phrase was not used. The exact wording was used.

7. Where stones state "John K. Jones" or "Mary C. Smith", and other stones (or the same stone) state "Julia A., wife of John K. Jones" or "Joseph H., husband of Mary C. Smith", the word "wife" or "husband" is used to avoid repetition. Where a variation was found in the spelling or initials of the name of the husband or wife the exact wording is used.
8. On many stones the letters "C & G", "O & Q", "D & H", "M & W" and a few others are difficult to read accurately. It is suggested that the index be checked both ways alphabetically on the surname.
9. Many times numbers on the stones are very difficult to decipher, such as 4 & 11, 8 & 3, 0 & 9, 3 & 5 and a few others. The compilers have used chalk, scraping and sand paper to bring out these numbers as clear as possible.
10. Where the age of a deceased person is set forth "Age 17-8-2" the person was 17 years 8 months and 2 days of age at death.
11. When the age is given as "Age 79th yr." the monument reads "In the 79th year of his or her age".
12. (On ss with John Jones, et al.) after one or more names means that John Jones and others are on the same stone with that person or those persons.
13. Deed Books in the Recorder's Office, Highland County Court House, Hillsboro, Ohio are cited three different ways.
 - A. "Original Deed Book" are the original deed books alphabetically numbered. Many of these books are lost.
 - B. "Old Deed Book" is the transcribed record made before 1900 of the original deed books. They run from Vol.1 to Vol.13.
 - C. "Deed Book" are the original deed books beginning with Vol.1 and running up to the present volume today. The first deed in Vol. 1 is dated April 11, 1832. These books begin after "Old Deed Book".
14. The words stone, marker, and monument are used interchangeably throughout this book and have identical meanings.
15. In the remarks throughout this book where it is stated who owned the farm on which a cemetery was situated in 1871, 1887, 1916, the name of the person was taken out of the Highland County Atlas of those years.
16. Newspapers cited in this book are to be found in The Ohio State Archaeological and Historical Museum, Columbus, Ohio, the Auditor's Office, Highland County Court House, and The Hillsboro Publishing Company, Hillsboro, Ohio.
17. The compilers are of the opinion that a flag or metal service marker on a grave does not accurately signify military service.

REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIERS

Below is a copy of the bronze plaque on the south wall of the Highland County Court House. The compilers of this book understand that the names of the soldiers listed as having been buried in Highland County were established by asking descendants of the soldier's family. The compilers found several Revolutionary soldiers' graves not included in this list.

CEMETERIES OF HIGHLAND COUNTY

Many of the cemeteries in Highland County have been called two or more names. Cemeteries were named for churches, villages, persons, creeks, lodges, schools and owners of the farm on which there were situated. Old newspapers, deed records and histories give names of cemeteries that bear different names today. To aid those in search of their family, when only the name of the cemetery is known where the descendant is said to have been buried, all the different names past and present are alphabetically listed.

Name: OLD DUTCH.

Location: BRUSHCREEK TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Here is probably the first cemetery in the township. There is conflict of opinion among historians as to the exact date when the Lutheran Church was built by this cemetery. Daniel Scott in his book "A History of the Early Settlement of Highland County, Ohio" states on page 96: "The first church in the township of Brushcreek, in Highland County, was erected by the followers of Martin Luther in the year 1805. This church was located about three miles northeast of Sinking Springs. It was built of hewed logs and is yet standing."

In Vol. XXIII of the Ohio Archaeological and Historical Publications, pages 162-218, is printed "Rev. Paul Henkel's Journal. His Missionary Journey to the State of Ohio in 1806." This journal is extremely important to genealogists because it contains a list of names of Germans living in Highland County at that time. On page 202 under Henkel's journal entry marked "Monday, the 15th" of September, 1806, is the following, in part: "From there (he is referring to Chillicothe) to Brushcreek is 34 miles. There, there is a regular German congregation, but they have as yet built no church, nor organized a school." If Scott is right and Henkel is mistaken this hewed log meeting house would be the first in the township and the second church building, the Fairfield Friends Meeting House in Fairfield Quaker Cemetery, Fairfield Township, being the first, in the County of Highland.

Sifting through the available evidence the compilers of this book are inclined to believe the meeting house was built around the year 1810. The Highland Weekly News, dated Jan. 27, 1870 gives a description of this "Old Dutch Meeting House". Its dimensions were 22 x 30 feet, made of hewn oak logs, chinked and daubed, and with a clapboard roof. It had 5 windows, 12 lights, 8 x 10 inch glass. A small box pulpit, 5 feet from the floor, afforded the speaker a view of those in the gallery. Today there is no indication as to where this old church stood.

On May 12, 1817, in Old Deed Book 3, page 486, Highland County Deed Records, by indenture, Simon Sheumaker, Sen., conveyed to Samuel Sheumaker and Jacob Miller, trustees of the United German and Presbyterian and Lutheran Church of Brushcreek Township the land on which this cemetery is situated and where the old meeting house stood. The indenture reads, in part, "the said described lot containing two and one half acres and to be applied by the aforesaid trustees and their successors in office to and for the said German and Presbyterian and Lutheran organization to erect a meeting house of worship for the use of said society and for the use of a burying yard the whole to be kept in repair at the expense of said society and enjoyed by them in succession forever."

Residents of the vicinity say that John Wilcoxin, first settler in the present County of Highland, is buried here and a stone without inscription marks his grave.

There is a very interesting monument in this cemetery which reads:

"1813 MARI BARBA A LAREUS O LAROS"

That this is the grave of Barbara Larose, nee Giffit or Gift, wife of John Jacob Larose, Reformed preacher, is little doubted. On pages 214-215 in the "Editorial Notes" after Rev. Paul Henkel's Journal cited above is the following, in part, concerning John Jacob Larose: "In the absence of a Reformed Ecclesiastical Judicatory, he was examined and licensed to preach by ministers of the Presbyterian Church."...."In 1812 he removed to Highland County, Ohio, and served a charge composed of Brush Creek, New Market, and Rocky Fork, for three years. While here his wife died on Whitsunday, 1813, and was buried in the graveyard at Brushcreek."

The present generation call this cemetery "Latter Day Saints Cemetery". A Latter Day Saints Church, now abandoned, stands beside the gravel road in front of the lane leading into this cemetery.

Name: SUITER-WILLIAMS

Location: BRUSHCREEK TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This is probably the third oldest cemetery in the township. Here are the graves of Jacob Hiestand and Mary, his wife, the founders of Middletown, now Sinking Spring, on Nov. 27, 1815.

On August 10, 1811 in Old Deed Book 1 page 35, Highland County Deed Records, by indenture, James Williams and Mary Ann, his wife, conveyed one half acre to Martin Countryman, Absolom Roads, Aaron Bryson, Samuel Shoemaker, Henry Countryman, Robert Davidson, David Knisely, George Suiter, Peter Gorman, Jacob Hiestand, Senr., Joshua Porter, Daniel Amen, Jacob Stultz, Peter Stultz, John Stultz, Frederick K. Brougher, Michael Snively, Senr., Martin Shoemaker. The purpose of this deed is not stated.

On February 20, 1833 in Deed Book 1 page 408, by indenture, "between William Suiter and James Williams of the first part - Witnesseth that the said party of the first part doth grant for the purpose of a burying ground to the trustees chosen for that purpose and their successors in office a certain piece of ground known by the name of Suiters and Williams Burying Ground bounded as follows six rods one way and five rods the other way situated on the line between William Suiters and James Williams."

Altho there is no positive evidence that the persons names set forth in the indenture of 1811 are the "trustees chosen" in the indenture of 1833 the compilers of this book believe, from all the available evidences, that they were the "trustees chosen" and that this cemetery as originally planned was to have been one half of an acre.

In The News Herald, dated September 25, 1890, there is a long article concerning the history of the Jacob Hiestand family. Genealogists should refer to this article for data on this family as well as the Garman, Long and Amen branches of the Hiestand family.

Today this cemetery is called the Suiter Cemetery. Many monuments, buried deep in the ground, were dug up to obtain inscriptions. Many field stones for monuments. All stones copied.

Name: GOVERNOR BYRD MEMORIAL CEMETERY.

Location: VILLAGE OF SINKING SPRING, BRUSHCREEK TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Here is buried Charles Willing Byrd. A bronze tablet in front of this cemetery and in front of his grave reads: "Governor Charles Willing Byrd was the son of Colonel William Byrd of Virginia. In 1799 President John Adams appointed him Secretary of the Northwest Territory and in 1802 he became acting Governor of the Territory. He was a delegate to the convention that framed the first Constitution for Ohio and was later appointed United States District Judge by President Jefferson. Governor Byrd lived in Adams County from 1807 until 1822 when he moved to Sinking Spring. This tablet was erected by The Governor Byrd Memorial Committee and the Ohio Archaeological and Historical Society October 19, 1941."

In The News Herald, dated Thursday, Oct. 23, 1941, is an article concerning the dedication of the bronze tablet above and a history of Governor Byrd titled "First Governor of Ohio Honored". Before it was given its present name this cemetery was known as Old Sinking Spring Cemetery.

Name: DUNKARD RIDGE.

Location: BRUSHCREEK TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: The members of the Dunkard Church in Highland County during the 19th Century consisted of four strong organizations: the Brushcreek Church (Dunkard Ridge Church) and Strait Creek Church organizations in Brushcreek Township, the Dunkard Church in Paint Township and the Dunkard Church in Fairfield Township. Two smaller organizations were in Hamer and Clay Townships.

The first Dunkard Church in the county was in Paint Township when on November 28, 1842 in Deed Book 12 page 227, Highland County Deed Records, Moses Tomlinson, Jonathan B. Cawgill and Henry Hiatt as Directors of School District No.6, Paint Township, conveyed one acre on the Anderson State Road on which lot stood a school house to Amaziah Hiatt, Jonathan Parker and Thomas Montgomery. On November 19, 1844 in Deed Book 12 page 228 Thomas Montgomery and Hannah, his wife, Amaziah Hiatt and Elizabeth, his wife, Samuel Parker and Mary, his wife, and Joseph Parker conveyed this one acre to Adam Kinzer, David Ockerman and Isaac Morris Deacons of the German Baptist Church. The Dunkards converted the abandoned school house into a church.

The German Baptists in Brushcreek Township were undoubtedly the first to form a Dunkard organization in the county but they built their church a few years later than the Dunkards in Paint Township. Like all the early religious faiths in Highland County the members held their meetings for years in each others houses before they felt strong enough in numbers and financial worth to build a house of worship.

On May 27, 1848 in Deed Book 18 page 302, Jacob Hamman, by indenture, conveyed to the German Baptist Church in Brushcreek Township "for the purpose of building a house of worship" three fourths of an acre and thirty poles. This deed states that "Hofmans School House" stood next to this land. On January 19, 1861 in Deed Book 29 page 404 William Williams and Elizabeth, his wife, conveyed 15 rods of land to the church and on January 19, 1861 in Deed Book 29 page 405 Ambrose Huffman and Sarah A., his wife, Cornelius Huffman and Jane, his wife, and Susanna Huffman conveyed 68 rods to the church. The church is now owned by The Church of Christ in Christian Union.

The Strait Creek Church in Brushcreek Township and The Dunkard Church in Fairfield Township were built a few years later. Refer to remarks under the cemeteries connected with these two churches. The members of the Strait Creek Church are the only active Dunkard organization now in the county.

This cemetery is one of the best kept cemeteries in Highland County and there is a beautiful view from the ridge of the surrounding country side.

ZETTEE

Name: CURP.

Location: BRUSHCREEK TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This cemetery, much larger years ago than it is today, is almost obliterated. On July 24, 1866 in Deed Book 35 page 307, Highland County Deed Records, James Butters and Levina, his wife, conveyed 72 poles of land to "John W. Wolfe and Robert S. McCoppin, trustees of the grave yard (known as the Curp Graveyard)". On May 12, 1877, in Deed Book 52 page 267, John N. Butters and Caleb Butters, Administrators of the Estate of James Butters, Decd., conveyed to J.R. Head 172 $\frac{1}{4}$ acres of land "Except one acre conveyed by Frederick Curp to the Trustees of the Methodist Meeting House named Mt. Carmel and another lot containing one half acres on the east side of the farm conveyed by James Butters for a grave yard." The Mt. Carmel Meeting House stood facing the road from Carmel to Marshall.

In The News Herald, dated Thursday July 10, 1890, is the death notice of Mrs. Lavina Wisecup. It states she died Saturday, July 5 and was interred in the Curp Graveyard on Sunday morning after the funeral services held in the Dunkard Church.

Many monuments were dug out of the ground to obtain inscriptions. The graves of the Sams family are enclosed by a cement wall. All stones copied.

Name: WASHBURN.

Location: BRUSHCREEK TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: The compilers of this book think it advisable at this time to include here the contents of a very old book they have in their possession that belonged to the Scammahorn family. Where this book originally came from is not known. We wish to point out that Mary Ann Scammahorn, wife of George W. Scammahorn, was undoubtedly the daughter of Wm. and Hannah Robinson. From the deed records in the Highland County Court House we find that George W. Scammahorn bought land in the county as early as 1840. We hope that someone will be benefited by these names and dates in tracing their genealogy. The contents of this book read:

Deaths

Henry Scammahorn died Feb. 5, 1905.

Margaret Scammahorn, Henry's wife, died Jan. 19, 1918.

(Margaret Scammahorn was the daughter of Adam and Mary A. Keplinger. She married Henry Scammahorn Oct. 27, 1868. Eleven children were born of this marriage.)

What relationship between the Scammahorn family given here and Isaac and Martha Scammahorn whose names are in Deed Vol. 28, pages 192 and 193, Highland County Deed Records, is not known. In this deed Martha Scammahorn, widow of Isaac, conveyed by quit claim deed to George W. Scammahorn 29 acres of land in Paint Township, Highland County, Ohio, which Isaac Scammahorn had bought June the 9th, 1840. This deed is dated Oct. 5, 1859, and was acknowledged in Clermont County, Ohio. Also there is on page 193 of Deed Vol. 28 a statement by her concerning the division of real and personal property among her heirs.

The description to this cemetery is found in a partition suit brought in 1870 by Sara Ellen Butters next friend of John Butters against John Washburn, Charles Cluff and William Countryman and others to partition the James Washburn farm on which this cemetery is situated. Genealogical material can be found in this petition for partition. The court ordered the real estate surveyed before being sold and this survey plat can be found in this suit in File No. 5, Clerk of Courts Office, Hillsboro, Ohio. The cemetery was described as containing 11/100 acres and a school house lot as containing 88/100 acres.

Because William Countryman owned the farm for many years this cemetery is also known as the Countryman Cemetery. Many field stones for monuments. All stones copied.

The first part of the paper discusses the importance of the study and the objectives of the research. It also provides a brief overview of the methodology used in the study. The second part of the paper presents the results of the study and discusses the implications of the findings. The third part of the paper concludes the study and provides some final thoughts on the research.

The study was conducted using a qualitative research approach. The data was collected through interviews with participants who were selected through purposive sampling. The interviews were conducted in a semi-structured format, allowing the researcher to explore the participants' experiences and perspectives in depth. The data was then analyzed using thematic analysis to identify the main themes and patterns in the data.

The findings of the study indicate that there are several key factors that influence the outcomes of the study. These factors include the quality of the data, the reliability of the participants, and the effectiveness of the research methods. The study also found that there are some limitations to the research, which may affect the generalizability of the findings.

In conclusion, the study has provided valuable insights into the research process and the importance of the study. The findings suggest that there are several key factors that influence the outcomes of the study, and that there are some limitations to the research. The study also provides some final thoughts on the research and the importance of the study.

Name: OLIVE BRANCH.

Location: BRUSHCREEK TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: A Universalist Church, built in 1866, stands beside this cemetery.
 On April 11,1850 in Deed Book 17 page 93, Highland County Deed Records, James Lawson and Mary, his wife, conveyed 64 rods of land, more or less, to Olive Branch Society of Universalists "for the purpose of a meeting house and burying ground." On April 11, 1850, in the same deed book at page 94, Robert Davidson and Elizabeth, his wife, conveyed 64 rods of land, more or less, to the same grantee for the same purpose.

Name: CEDAR CHAPEL

Location: BRUSHCREEK TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: On January 31, 1866 in Deed Book 41, page 529, Highland County Deed Records, Sanford R. Suiter and Catharine, his wife, conveyed one acre to Sanford Turley, Sen., James William and other members of the Methodist Episcopal Church "upon which to build a church for the use of the members of said denomination for church purposes, and also, to be used as a burying ground free for to all persons, irrespective of religious creeds, who may choose to bury the dead there". The old church burned and was rebuilt. Arguments among the members led to the disbandment of the church and members of the Church of Christ in Christian Union hold services here.

Graves school house stood across the road from this cemetery and church.

THEORY OF THE
ELECTROLYTIC DEPOSITION OF METALS

BY
J. H. ROBERTS

DEPARTMENT OF CHEMISTRY
UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

This report is a contribution to the understanding of the electrochemical processes which occur at the interface between a metal and an electrolyte. It is based on the work of the author and his colleagues in the Department of Chemistry, University of Chicago, during the past several years. The work has been supported by the National Science Foundation and the Office of Naval Research.

The theory of the electrochemical processes which occur at the interface between a metal and an electrolyte is a subject of great importance in the study of corrosion and in the design of electrochemical cells. The theory is based on the work of the author and his colleagues in the Department of Chemistry, University of Chicago, during the past several years. The work has been supported by the National Science Foundation and the Office of Naval Research.

APPENDIX

Table 1. Summary of the data collected during the field study. The table shows the number of observations for each combination of the two factors, 'Time of day' and 'Location'. The data were collected over a period of 10 days, from 10:00 to 18:00 hours, at two locations, 'Urban' and 'Rural'.

Time of day	Location	Observations
10:00-12:00	Urban	15
10:00-12:00	Rural	10
12:00-14:00	Urban	20
12:00-14:00	Rural	15
14:00-16:00	Urban	25
14:00-16:00	Rural	20
16:00-18:00	Urban	30
16:00-18:00	Rural	25

Name: WOOD.

Location: BRUSHCREEK TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: The wire fence that enclosed this cemetery is down and broken. Most of the stones are down and like so many of these country cemeteries live stock is permitted to walk over the graves. This cemetery could have been known as the Bell Cemetery. Joseph Bell owned the farm on which this cemetery is situated in 1887 and Pete Porter owned the farm in 1952. Many field stones for monuments. All stones copied.

TURNER	Inf. dau. of J.M. & Mary A. b. & d. May 11,1857.

Name: HEAD.

Location: BRUSHCREEK TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This cemetery is enclosed by a cement wall built by a Mr. Head a banker from Bainbridge, Ohio. The cement wall is approximately five feet high and embedded in one side of this wall is a marble slab with the names of the members of the Head family buried here. Inside the wall are four pieces of monuments lying on the ground with the same names, except Harriett, with more exact dates of age and death. The William Head buried here is undoubtedly the brother of Bigger Head who is buried in the Methodist Cemetery, Marshall Township. All stones copied.

HEAD

The names and dates on the slab are:

William. 1774 - 1841.

Mary E. 1784 - 1838.

Harriett. 1810 - 1812.

James. 1818 - 1828.

Josephus. 1820 - 1824. ss

The names on the stones inside the wall are:

William. d. Mar. 8, 1841. Age 67yrs.

Mary, wife. ????, 1838. Age 51yrs.

Josephus, son. d. Mar. 31, 1824. Age 3-10-29.

James, son. d. Feb. 5, 1828. Age 10-10-14.

Name: EUBANKS.

Location: BRUSHCREEK TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This cemetery is on a small hill south of the dwelling house. This farm was owned in 1878 by Anthony Eubanks. Pieces of monuments scatter the ground and only one stone could be found with its parts broken and lost. Note the old fashioned spelling of Antony on the stone. All stones copied.

EUBANKS

Jane, wife of Antony. d. Feb. 19, (lost). Age 23-3-?.

Name: WEST.

Location: BRUSHCREEK TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Years ago a West family owned the farm on which this cemetery is situated. Members of the West family are buried here. Residents of the vicinity state that many monuments were here but later destroyed. This cemetery is entirely obliterated.

Name: IMMIGRANT:

Location: BRUSHCREEK TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This is the second oldest cemetery in the township and is situated by the side of Zanes Trace in front of Butler's Springs, now a youth camp. Residents of the vicinity state many pioneers immigrating along this Trace were buried here. No monuments or further information could be found concerning this cemetery.

Name: MULL.

Location: BRUSHCREEK TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This cemetery is situated on the east side of the Sinking Spring - Cynthiana road several yards from "Slate Gap". A. Mull owned the land in 1887. Very little is known about this cemetery. Residents of the vicinity say members of the Mull family, a set of twins of the Burke family, and a colored child named Nichols are buried here. All monuments have been destroyed.

Name: UNKNOWN. No.1.

Location: BRUSHCREEK TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This cemetery is less than a mile south of the Curp Cemetery and on the same road. Residents of the vicinity say that over 25 years ago this cemetery was plowed over and the monuments were pulled up and thrown against a barn on the property. They could not be found. The names of the people buried here are unknown.

Name: UNKNOWN. No.2.

Location: BRUSHCREEK TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Maude Butler Matthews, before her death in 1952, stated that on the left side of the State Roadside Park on the Sinking Spring - Cynthiana road, on a bank beside the park fence, is the grave of her third great-grandmother. A child of this grand-mother is buried beside her.

Name: UNKNOWN. No.3.

Location: BRUSHCREEK TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: There are a few graves marked by field stones back of the barn on the farm owned by S.E. Stultz in 1887. No one knows who is buried here.

Name: UNKNOWN. No.4.

Location: BRUSHCREEK TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: There are a few graves marked by field stones on the farm owned in 1887 by Cath. Setty. No one remembers who is buried here.

Name: UNKNOWN. No.5.

Location: BRUSHCREEK TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This cemetery is located approximately one-fourth of a mile from the Eubanks Cemetery going toward Sinking Spring. It is to the left on a small rise in the field directly across the road from the farm house. Many fragements of monuments were found. All stones copied.

(O?)RMSTON (Hannah?). d. Aug. (Date broken and worn.)
REED Joseph, son of L.S. & Anna. d. July 17, 1878. Age 9mos.

Name: UNKNOWN No.6. No.7.

Location: BRUSHCREEK TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Unknown No.6. Residents of the vicinity state that Collier Washburn and his wife are buried here. Their graves and the graves of others are on a hill side directly behind a small white house situated on the Sinking Spring - Cynthiana road approximately 2.8 miles from the Village of Sinking Spring. Two monuments were found but were illegible. There are a few field stones for monuments. Flag on grave once there. Residents of the vicinity state they think the name of this cemetery was Washburn.

Unknown No.7. Very little is known about this cemetery which was situated on a farm owned in 1871 by H.F. Foreacre and by J.A. McCoppin in 1887 and 1916. It was a rather large cemetery lying in the middle of a field. Years ago the monuments were pulled up and, being made of sandstone, were used by the people of the vicinity as whet-stones. The cemetery was then plowed over and crops grown. No resident of the community can tell who was buried here.

Name: BROWN.

Location: CLAY TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Histories of Highland County say that the first person to be buried in Clay Township was buried in this cemetery. Her name was Hannah Florence. She died in 1811 but no monument to her memory could be found. This cemetery is probably the first in the township.

On May __, 1850 in Deed Book 17, page 225, Highland County Deed Records, Ezekiel Hirons and Katherine Hirons conveyed to the Trustees of Clay Township "for the use and purpose of a public burying ground and depository for the dead....it being part of the farm on which the said Ezekiel Irons now lives....containing eighty four (84) square poles of land together with a right of way (across the lands now owned by said Ezekiel Irons from the county road west of said burying ground leading from New Hope in Brown County to Buford in Highland County) to and from said burying ground for funeral processions and for other purposes connected with the interment and commemoration of the dead and for no other purposes whatever".

A few years after this deed Hezekiel Hirons sold this farm to James Brown who together with his heirs owned it for many years. Like so many cemeteries this one was named for the owner of the farm on which it was situated although years ago it might have been called Hirons Cemetery or some other name.

The name "Hirons" and "Irons" are spelled these two different ways throughout the deed but the deed was signed "Hirons".

A few field stones for monuments. All stones copied.

Name: HOLLOWTOWN.

Location: CLAY TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This cemetery is situated near the small village of Hollowtown. Historians state that the first person buried here was Elizabeth Black. Bartley Smith gave the tract on which this cemetery is situated from a portion of his farm that he owned before 1871. On May 9, 1894 in Deed Book 100, page 198, Highland County Deed Records, Elva B. Custer and William, her husband, conveyed 30 rods of land to the trustees of Clay Township as an addition to Hollowtown Cemetery "to be attached to said lot as additional burying ground."
This cemetery was also known as Smith Cemetery. All stones copied.

Name: FLORENCE.

Location: CLAY TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This little cemetery was established when Cynthia B. Florence died. She requested her parents to bury her in the flower bed a few feet north of the Florence log home built around the year 1806. Since the grave would be too near the house her parents promised they would create a cemetery south of the house where they would all be buried. Their old home, still used as a dwelling house, and this cemetery are situated on the farm owned in 1953 by Herman and Mary D. Cornet.

In The News Herald, dated Tuesday, March 8, 1900, is the obituary of Nancy Florence. It states that Nancy Shrofe, second daughter of John and Nancy Shrofe, was born one mile south of Whiteoak, Brown County, Ohio, on March 25, 1815. Her father was a Methodist preacher. On April 5th, 1832 Nancy Shrofe married John W. Florence, who was the first white child born in Clay Township. They were the parents of twelve children. Refer to Brown Cemetery, this township, for graves of two of their children.

This cemetery is kept in perfect condition by Mr. Cornet who had the greatest respect for John Florence, son of John W. and Nancy, who is buried here. No monument marks his grave. He died around the year 1940 at the age of 80yrs or more. All stones copied.

Name: UNKNOWN. No.1. No.2. No.3. No.4..

Location: CLAY TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Unknown No.1: There are two infants' graves on the farm owned before 1887 by W.J.E.S. Mathews. Residents of the vicinity state these two infants belonged to the Mathews family. No monuments.

Unknown No.2. There were several graves on the farm owned in 1871 by J.W. Russ and in 1887 by J.C. Hiron. The graves have been plowed over for years and no monuments could be found. Residents of the vicinity state some of the bodies buried here were re-interred elsewhere.

Unknown No.3. Residents of the vicinity state that there are two or more people buried in the bed of the road connecting the Buford and Hillsboro Pike with the Straighout and Buford Pike. This connecting road is found if one leaves Hollowtown for Buford on the Buford and Hillsboro Pike and turns on the first road to the left. Who is buried here is unknown.

Unknown No.4. There is a small cemetery on the farm owned in 1871 by H. & A. Page. Years ago a metal marker was here to a soldier by the name of Johnson or Johnston. A marble marker was found with the initials J.,B.

Name: MILLER'S CHAPEL.

Location: CONCORD TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: On October 6, 1858 in Deed Book 28 page 300, Deed Records of Highland County, William Miller and Mary, his wife, conveyed the "following described lot of land (as a meeting house lot)" to Frances McClure, Harrison Toll and Miller Stewart "as trustees of the congregation of the Christian Church (as organized about the beginning of the 19th Century by Abner Jones of New England, David Purviance of Kentucky, Francis William (son or Senr.?) and Burwell Barrett of N.C., and others)" The (son or Senr.?) is inserted in brackets by the compilers of this book for want of clarity in the deed.

On September 30, 1876 T.M. McCormick and Sara J., his wife, conveyed one-eighth acre to the trustees of the Christian Church at Miller's Chapel "(as an addition to meeting house lot)". The church that stood on the site of this cemetery was called Miller's Chapel. A school house once stood at the fork of the road and the chapel stood beside the school house.

Name: METHODIST.

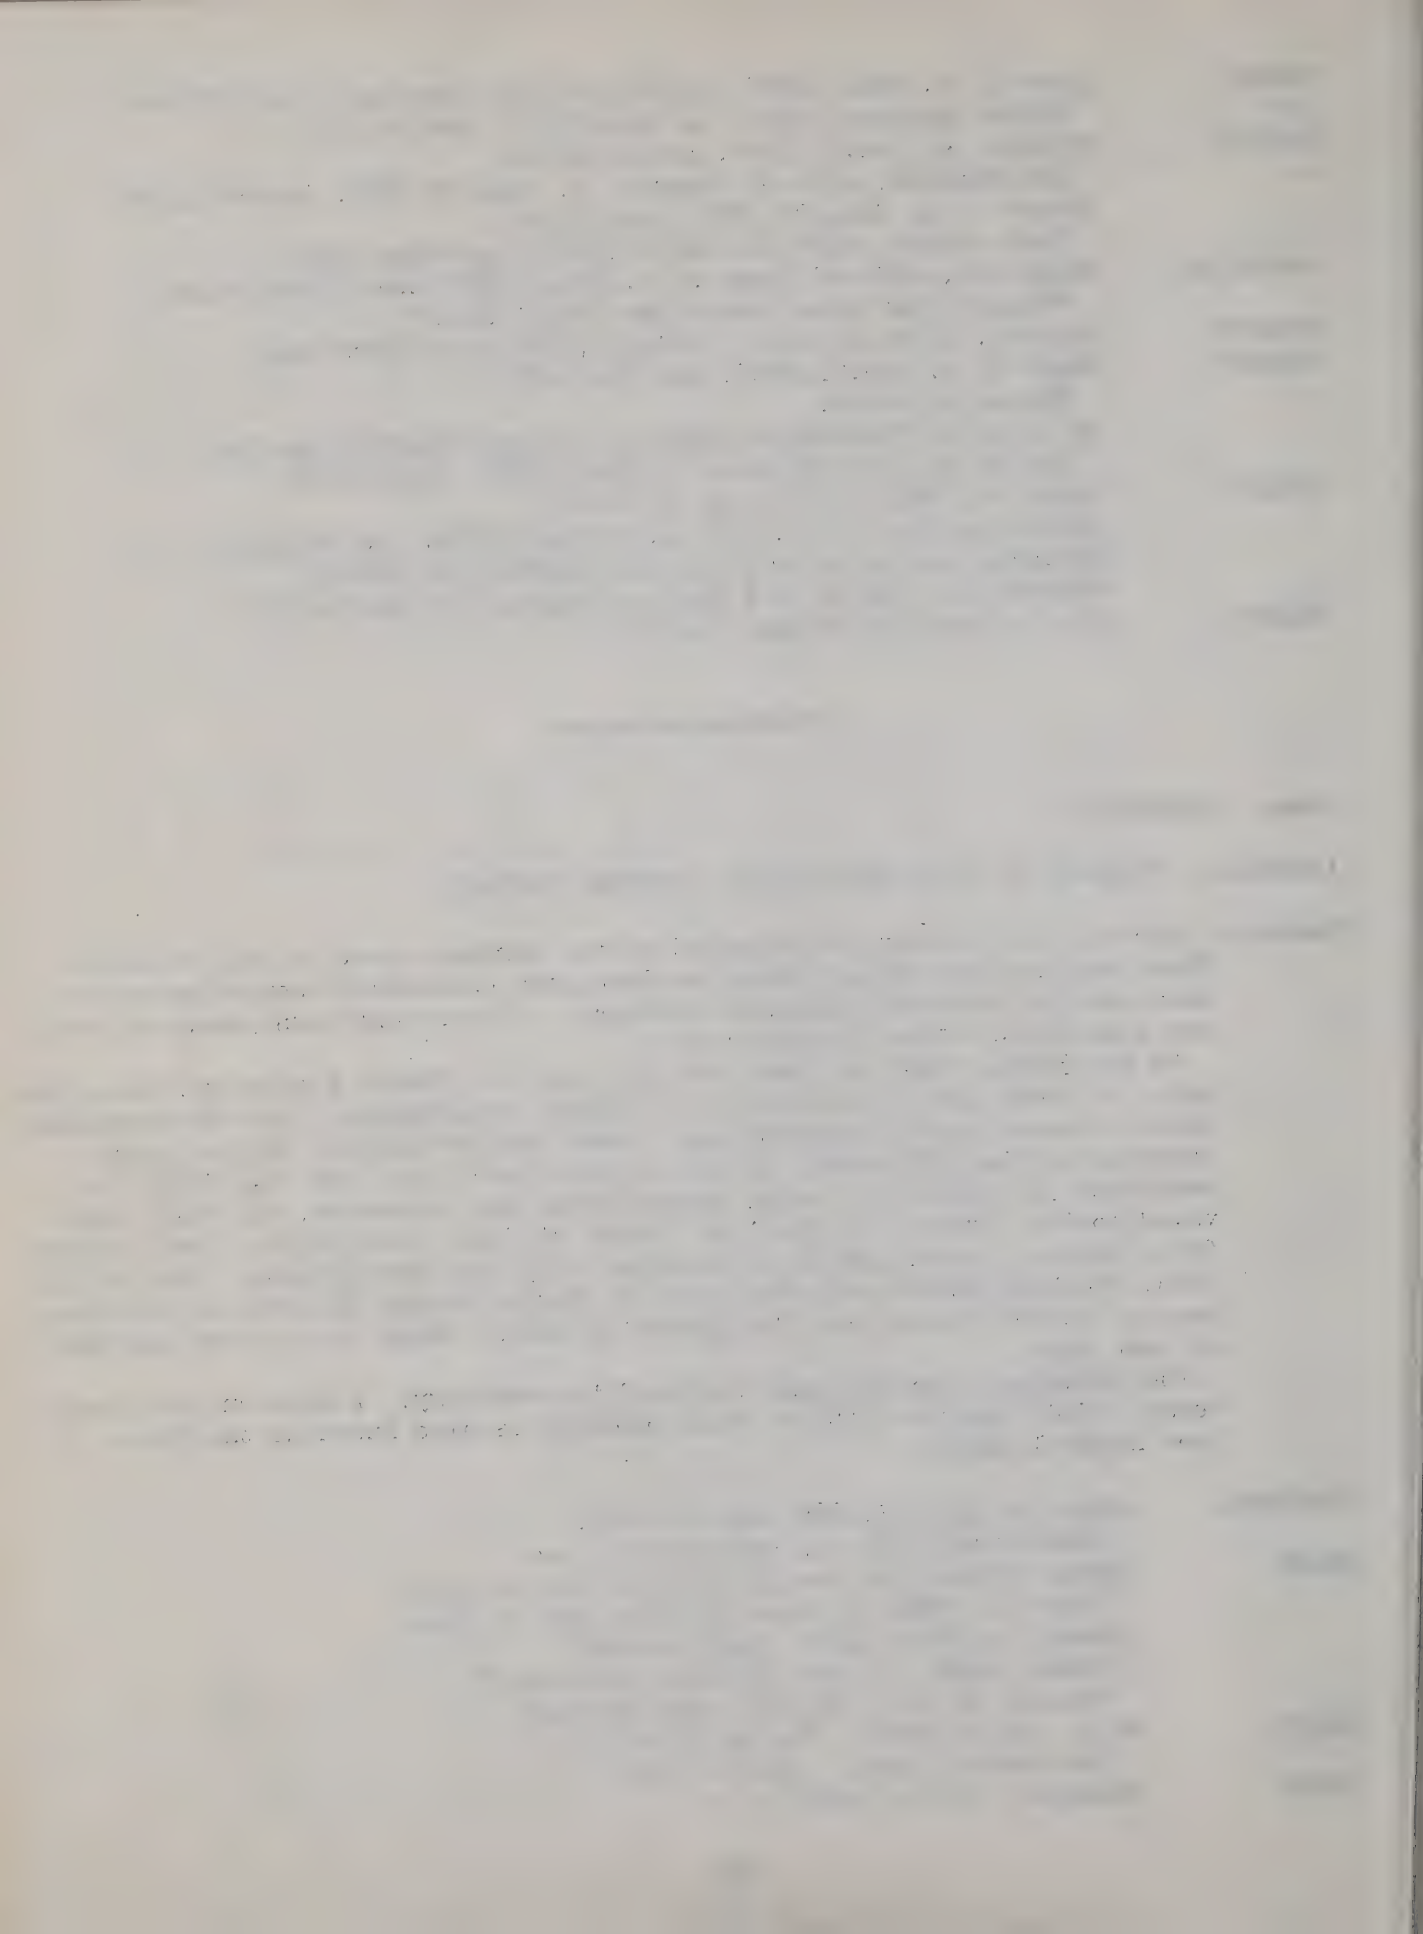

Location: VILLAGE OF SUGAR TREE RIDGE. CONCORD TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: The old Igo Cemetery is situated in the northern part of this cemetery. There was a school house where the iron gate entrance is now which separated the Igo from the Methodist Cemetery. It was torn down years ago and now graves lie where it once stood.

On May 30th., 1842, in Deed Book 10, page 81, Thomas Huston and Jane, his wife, by indenture, conveyed to I.F. McCan, John Denning, Hugh Hetherington, Anthony Roads, Sam'l. Hetherington, James and Christopher Hetherington, trustees of the M.E Church, a part of this land. On. Nov. 21, 1851, in Deed Book 18, page 632, Samuel Hetherington and Catherine, his wife, conveyed to the Trustees of the M.E. Church of Sugar Tree Ridge a lot "...given for a burying ground and to be occupied solely for that purpose." On Mar.3, 1923, the M.E. Church and the Church of Christ deeded $1\frac{3}{4}$ acres to the Trustees of Concord Township. The Church of Christ owned part of the cemetery at that time.

The Methodist Church stands south of the cemetery. A sign on the church reads: "M.E. Church - 1859." This cemetery is also known as the Sugar Tree Ridge Cemetery.

Name: WALKER. No.1.

Location: CONCORD TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: J.W. Walker owned the farm on which this cemetery is situated in 1871. These two graves are back off of the gravel road among some trees. Relations of the Walkers say that the reason for these graves being among trees is that Mr. Walker asked to be buried there so he could keep out anyone from cutting his timber. All stones copied.

WALKER

John W. d. Aug.1,1875. Age 71-3-2.

Tobitha, wife. d. Dec.22,1876. Age 63-2-23.

Name. WALKER. No.2.

Location: CONCORD TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: On July 12,1808 in Deed Book 11, page 337, Highland County Deed records, by indenture, James Carothers and John Patton of Lexington, Va., by their attorney in fact Henry Massie of Ross County, Ohio, conveyed to Charles Walker and Elijah Walker of Highland County, Ohio, 835 acres of land.

On Feb. 16, 1839 in Deed Book 30, page 305, by indenture, the heirs of Elijah Walker, Decd., conveyed 50 acres to George Walker. This 50 acres, on which this cemetery is situated, was a part of the 835 acres. In the 1839 deed is a statement that after the death of Elijah and Charles Walker a suit was brought in the Common Pleas Court of Highland County and an order obtained to divide and set-off a part of the land to the heirs of Elijah and Charles Walker, Decd., and the 50 acres was set-off as part of the dower of Mary Walker, widow of Elijah Walker, Decd., during her natural life and at her death to be divided among the heirs of Elijah and Mary Walker. Sixteen persons sign this conveyance. Their sur-names are Walker, McCoy, Campbell, Massie, Hetherington, Manker. Genealogists should refer to this conveyance of 1839. All stones copied.

Name: NICHOLS.

Location: CONCORD TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This cemetery is reputed to be the first cemetery in the township. On March 1, 1852 in Deed Book 19, page 161, Highland County Deed Records, David Nichols and Mary, his wife, conveyed this cemetery of 60 poles to the trustees of Concord Township. The deed reads, in part: "on the farm of said David Nichols for the use of a burrying ground for all Protestants."

This cemetery is also known as the Noble Cemetery and the Petithory Cemetery for the reason that Dr. A. Noble and A.A. Petithory owned the farm on which this cemetery is located for a number of years after David Nichols. Many field stones for monuments. All stones copied.

Name: FENNER.

Location: CONCORD TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This cemetery of approximately twelve graves is on the farm owned by M. Fenner in 1871 and I. Fenner in 1887. All monuments are field stones. Residents of the vicinity say that members of the Fenner family are buried here.

Name: STROUP.

Location: DODSON TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This is probably the first cemetery in the township. Historians state that the first death and burial in this township was that of a stranger who was found one winter day near the residence of Anthony Stroup frozen to death. He was buried in what has since become this cemetery but no monument marking his grave can be found. His death occurred soon after the Stroups settled in the township in 1806.

Here is buried Michael Stroup. Williams Bros. "History of Ross and Highland County" on page 489 state "In 1807 Michael Stroup brought to New Market and put in operation the first carding machine used in Highland County." However, see remarks under High Top Cemetery, Penn Township. For an interesting account of his marriage to Polly (Mary Ann) Walker, see Daniel Scott's "A History of the Early Settlement of Highland County, Ohio", pages 81 and 82.

On July 8, 1856 in Deed Book 24, page 281, Highland County Deed Records, Charles Stroup and Sarah E., his wife, conveyed to S.S. Liggett, A.E. Chaney and Wm. P. Webster, Trustees of Dodson Township "the following described tract or parcel of land, (for a public cemetery or burying ground or grave yard.)" containing 1 acre.

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the transparency and accountability of the organization. The text also mentions the need for regular audits to ensure that all financial data is correctly recorded and reported.

Financial Reporting and Transparency

This section outlines the various methods used to collect and analyze financial data. It includes a detailed description of the accounting system in place, which uses double-entry bookkeeping to ensure the accuracy of all financial statements. The text also discusses the role of the finance department in providing timely and accurate reports to the management and the board of directors.

The document further details the process of budgeting and forecasting. It explains how the finance team works closely with other departments to develop a comprehensive budget for the upcoming year. This process involves identifying all potential revenue sources and expenses, and then projecting future financial performance based on these estimates.

Internal Controls and Risk Management

This part of the document focuses on the internal controls and risk management framework. It describes the various policies and procedures in place to prevent fraud, errors, and misstatements. The text also discusses the identification and assessment of potential risks to the organization's financial health, and the implementation of strategies to mitigate these risks.

The document concludes by emphasizing the importance of ongoing monitoring and evaluation of the internal controls and risk management system. It states that the organization is committed to continuous improvement and will regularly review and update its policies and procedures to ensure they remain effective and relevant.

In summary, this document provides a comprehensive overview of the organization's financial reporting and internal controls. It highlights the commitment to transparency, accuracy, and risk management, and outlines the various processes and procedures in place to achieve these goals.

The following table provides a summary of the key findings and recommendations from the audit:

Area	Findings	Recommendations
Financial Reporting	Minor discrepancies in the recording of certain transactions.	Implement a more robust review process for all financial entries.
Internal Controls	Some controls are outdated and need to be updated.	Conduct a regular review of internal controls to ensure they remain effective.
Risk Management	Identified several potential risks to the organization's financial health.	Develop and implement strategies to mitigate these risks.

The audit team has provided a detailed report on the findings and recommendations. It is the responsibility of the management to ensure that all recommendations are implemented in a timely and effective manner. The finance department will be responsible for monitoring the progress of these implementation efforts and providing regular updates to the audit team.

Name: MORROW.

Location: VILLAGE OF LYNCHBURG, DODSON TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Historians state this cemetery was founded in 1817 and Ida Hendrickson was the first person buried here. Her monument could not be found.

Almerin Morrow bought the farm on which this cemetery is situated from Collman Botts in 1833. On May 15, 1866 in Deed Book 40, page 299, Highland County Deed Records, James L. Morrow and Frances M., his wife, of the State of Indiana, the said James L. Morrow being Executor and Legatee of John T. Morrow, Decd., conveyed eight and one half acres to James W. Bobbitt "Excepting the graveyard as at present enclosed". James W. Bobbitt owned this land for years and this cemetery is often referred to as Bobbitt Cemetery.

In Plat Book 1, page 280, in Feb. 1877, is a description of the boundary line extending the Corporation of the Village of Lynchburg, which reads, in part: "the graveyard known as the Morrow Graveyard" is included in the extension. In this cemetery are four similar monuments in a row without a sur-name. They read: Rosa, Charlie, Lorena, Martha. All stones copied.

Name: F. & A.M.

Location: VILLAGE OF LYNCHBURG, DODSON TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This cemetery, before the Masons bought the land and made it into one large cemetery, was several small cemeteries situated very close to each other. On May 26, 1851 in Deed Book 18, page 168, Highland County Deed Records, by indenture, Jesse S. Hundley and Elizabeth, his wife, conveyed to Hiram Connell six and ninety one hundredth poles "for a family burying ground or grave yard and for no other purpose or purposes." On Feb. 24, 1859 in Deed Book 37, page 255 Jesse S. Hundley and Elizabeth, his wife, conveyed to Jacob Pitzer, Jacob L. Cloud, Lewis S. Pitzer, John W. Noble trustees of the Methodist Protestant Chapel at Pleasant Hill, Lynchburg Circuit, in the Ohio District "for the use and purpose of a public cemetery or burying ground" 120 poles "all of which is hereby conveyed to the said trustees for the use and purposes above set forth - (except so much as has been deeded by the said Jesse S. Hundley and wife to Hiram Connell for a family burying ground which except part lies near the S.W. corner of said grave yard or burying ground." On Aug. 9, 1884 in Deed Book 64, page 399, H.A. Pitzer and C.W. Vanpelt trustees Methodist Protestant Church at Pleasant Hill in Clinton County, Ohio, Lynchburg Circuit in the Ohio District conveyed to E.S. Pulse, Hugh Murphy and (Alesalm?) Tedrick trustees of Dodson Township "for the use and purpose of a public cemetery" 120 poles with the Hundley exception in the 1859 deed. A call in this deed reads: "S.W. corner Rachel Calaway and N.E. corner to J.A. Murrell". Directly north to the above conveyances stood a Baptist Church and cemetery. On July 17, 1860 in Deed Book 29, page 65 Rachel Calaway (who was a leader in this church) conveyed 4 acres to Christian Minsler (Minzler). In the description of this tract is the following: "corner to lot deeded to Trustees of the Regular Baptist Church on the 2nd day of August, 1845 by said Rachel Calaway"... "Except the right of way from the County road to the church lot for wagons." In a deed dated Dec. 23, 1865 in Deed Book 34, page 315 from John G. Hundley and Margaret A., his wife, Norman W. Cummings and Elizabeth H., his wife, to Jno. Peale is found in the description a call reading: "to a stake S.W. corner to Baptist Grave Yard".

In the Hillsboro Gazette dated Nov. 9, 1894 is a news item reading: "Masons sold their recent addition to the cemetery and bought over 4 acres of land back of the Murrell Graveyard north of town of Joe Smith. The Township Trustees have transferred the Murrell Grave Yard to the order and it will be part of the New Cemetery." Thus is found on Oct. 29, 1894 in Deed Book 85 page 169 Joseph Smith and Elizabeth, his wife, conveyed to the Lynchburg Lodge No. 178 F. & A. Masons of Lynchburg, O., 4-93/160 acres. A call reading "N.W. corner Murrell Graveyard". Years ago J.A. Murrell owned the tract of land on which the old Murrell graveyard is situated. In Plat Book 1 page 280, in Feb., 1877, is a description of the boundary line extending the Corporation of the Village of Lynchburg, which reads, in part "to the graveyard known as the Murrell Graveyard" is included in the extension.

One monument with the husband's sur-name obliterated reads "Margaret A., wife of ????., d. Apr. 9, 1865. Age 63-2-6". There are three monuments down by the main road without a sur-name. These monuments are alike and are in a row. They read "Uriah Walter. Oct. 30, 1866 - Dec. 4, 1888", "Humphrey Sylvester. Apr. 12, 1863 - Jan. 17, 1886", "Martha Ellen. Apr. 16, 1859 - Oct. 22, 1862".

THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES

The history of the United States is a story of a people who have grown from a small group of settlers on the eastern coast to a vast nation that spans the continent. The story begins with the first European settlers, who came to the New World in search of a better life. They found a land of opportunity, but also a land of hardship. The settlers had to learn to survive in a new environment, and they had to learn to get along with the Native Americans who already lived there. Over time, the settlers grew in number, and they began to build a society of their own. They created a government that was based on the principles of liberty and justice for all. They fought for their rights, and they won. They became a nation, and they have remained a nation ever since.

Name: I. O. O. F.

Location: VILLAGE OF LYNCHBURG. DODSON TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This cemetery was situated just north of the B. & O. R.R. tracts and south of Short Street in the eastern part of the Village of Lynchburg. It was vacated before 1872 and the persons buried here were probably reinterred in the Masonic Cemetery, Lynchburg, or some other cemeteries in the vicinity. The date this cemetery was created cannot be definitely established.

On March 20, 1872 in Deed Book 45, page 289, Highland County Deed Records, Lynchburg Lodge No.151 of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Lynchburg, Highland County, Ohio, conveyed to John B. Hays this graveyard of one and one half acres and twenty four poles. In Plat Book 1 page 230, in Feb., 1877, is a description of the boundary line extending the Corporation of the Village of Lynchburg, which reads, in part "to the N.E. corner of I.O.O.F. Cemetery - now vacated."

Name: MASONIC.

Location: VILLAGE OF LYNCHBURG, DODSON TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This cemetery lies on the north side of High Street in the Village of Lynchburg. It is not as old as the F. & A.M. Cemetery. On May 10, 1854 in Deed Book 29, page 415, Highland County Deed Records, John A. Murrill and Rebecca, his wife, conveyed to the Lynchburg Lodge No. 178 of Free and Accepted Masons one acre of ground. On Feb. 6, 1862 in Deed Book 32, page 695 the same grantors conveyed to the same grantees certain lots and one acre. Burials were made in this cemetery before the conveyances to the Masons. Although this may have been called the Murrell Cemetery before the Masons acquired it the original Murrell Cemetery is where the F. & A.M. Cemetery is now located. Refer to the F. & A.M. Cemetery.

There is a large monument in this cemetery dedicated to the soldiers who fought and died in the Civil War. The following names are on this monument:

"In Memory Of Our Fallen Comrades Who Died In Defense Of Their Country In The War Of The Rebellion. 1861 To 1865. Erected May 30 A.D. 1871.

Name: TROUTWINE.

Location: DODSON TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: On March 7, 1847 in Deed Book 18, page 204, Highland County Deed Records, Michael Garroult of Clinton County conveyed to William Montgomery, Samuel Garoult, John K. Thompson, Franklin B. Judkins, Archibald Garoult, Geor. Troutman and S.S. Liggett of the Counties of Highland, Clinton and Brown, trustees in trust for the use of the Methodist Episcopal Church, one acre. Said deed reads, in part: "expressly for a burying ground or grave yard for the use of Public and also for a meeting house to be built thereon for the use of the Methodist Episcopal church." On March 7, 1873 in Deed Book 46, page 253 this one acre was again conveyed and the deed reads, in Part: "That we Archibald Garroott and S. S. Liggett two of the remaining (one of the original member six being removed and other three being dead) of the following public burying ground" to the trustees of Dodson Township "to the said trustees and their successors in office to be used and held as a public burying for the use and benefit of the public at large." "Situate in the Township of Dodson and County of Highland and State of Ohio being the same plot of land conveyed to Archibald Garroott, S. S. Liggett, Samuel Garrot, William Montgomery, F. B. Judkins and _____ conveyed by Michael Garroott to the aforesaid trustees, above mentioned containing one acre more or less."

The Methodists built a church and worshiped here for years. The church congregation finally disbanded and a Methodist Church was built at Lynchburg and one at Dodsonville. The Lutherans took over the old church and worshiped here for years. The church disappeared several years ago. Many German people are buried here.

This cemetery extends approximately 0.60 acres into Clinton County. Other conveyances, one being the Troutwine, have increased the size of this cemetery.

Name: FAIRFIELD QUAKER.

Location: FAIRFIELD TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Here is the grave of Daniel Burgess who lived to the age of 101 years, 3 months and 12 days. The Highland Weekly News, dated June 27, 1872, states that he was born in Berks Co., Penn., March 8, 1771, and that he voted for George Washington for his second term as President, and voted at every succeeding presidential election up to and including General Grant.

Here is the grave of Sarah Beals who was born in 1724. To her is given the distinction of being the oldest person, as to date of birth, to be buried in Highland County from monument inscriptions. Her husband, Thomas Beals, preached the first Friends sermon in the Northwest Territory. He is buried in Ross County, Ohio.

Here was built the first church in Highland County and the first Friends Meeting House in the county. It was constructed of logs by the site of this cemetery in the years 1803-1804. A few years later this was replaced by another log meeting house, and years later the present brick meeting house was built on the spot where these two log structures once stood.

Historians state that the Fairfield Monthly Meeting was opened July 18, 1807, although a meeting for worship had been established here about two or three years before this date, and that Bathsheba Lupton and other Quakers of the vicinity founded this meeting house. Bathsheba Lupton died in 1847 at the age of 87 years. If she is buried here no monument to her memory could be found. Historians further state that a Mrs. Ballard, who died in 1804, was the first person buried here. Her monument could not be found.

It is interesting to note that on May 19, 1863 in Deed Book 31, page 112, Highland County Deed Records, James Huff and Sidney, his wife, conveyed to A.C. Leverton "one mile South of Leesburg on the Hillsboro and Washington State Road a family baring ground being 20 feet by 40 feet enclosed in a brick wall the south east corner being at the Northern line of the Meeting House ground owned by the Society of Friends."

Genealogists should refer to Hardins Creek Cemetery, this township, for newspaper citations.

Years ago this cemetery was known as Old Fairfield Cemetery. All stones copied.

Name: HIGHLAND.

Location: VILLAGE OF HIGHLAND. FAIRFIELD TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: The first M.E. Church was built in 1837 on the site of this cemetery. In 1860 it was destroyed by a storm and the present church was built in front of the cemetery facing the main highway that runs through the village. This cemetery was known as the Lexington Cemetery years ago. The Village of Highland was formerly the Village of New Lexington.

Genealogists should consult the June 9, 1887 issue of the News Herald for an article on the "Conard-Edwards Reunion". This article includes the allied families of McClure, Chalfant, Hallowell and Lewis.

Genealogists should refer to Hardins Creek Cemetery, this township, for important newspaper citation.

Name: HARDINS CREEK.

Location. BRIDGES. FAIRFIELD TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: On June 29, 1867 in Deed Book 38, page 596, Highland County Deed Records, Joel T. Wright and Anna M., his wife, conveyed 4 acres and 34 poles to Moses Milner. Said deed reads, in part: "And it is hereby agreed between the parties that the premises hereby conveyed....is to be set apart by the said Moses Milner for a burial ground to be disposed of by the said Moses Milner to any person who may will to purchase in lot or lots". On March 8, 1882 in Deed Book 60, page 102 John Milner, Jr. and Michael J. Milner conveyed 3 acres and 20 poles to the Hardins Creek Cemetery Association. Years ago this cemetery was known as the Milner Cemetery, and today is often referred to as Bridges Cemetery.

Attention of genealogists is directed to two newspaper articles in The Highland Weekly News. One in the Aug. 10, 1874 issue and another in the June 17, 1875 issue describe the "Pioneer's Reunion" held near Leesburg. These articles are very important because they give the names of approximately 150 pioneers, their ages, the date of their emigration to Ohio, from what state they emigrated, and their addresses at that time.

Many Quakers are buried in this cemetery.

SIMMONS

HAILEY

HALEY

Name: PLEASANT HILL.

Location: FAIRFIELD TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Here is the grave of Sarah Cooper Rains who lived to the age of 100 years, 3 months, and 21 days. Her death notice in the Hillsboro Weekly Gazette of Jan. 1, 1892 states that she was born near Knoxville, Tenn., removed to Kentucky when a young girl and came to Ohio in 1809 settling near Rainsboro. She was married on Xmas Day, 1818, to John Rains, soldier in the War of 1812, who is buried by her side. They were the parents of twelve children. The Hillsboro Weekly Gazette of Sept. 18, 1891 has an article about her titled "A Century Old." This article states that she was born Sept. 8, 1791, the daughter of Jacob and Nancy Cooper, and that she married John Rains Xmas Day, 1813.

Here is the grave of Isaac Pavey who was the first clergyman licensed by the Common Pleas Court of Highland County to solemnize marriages. He was licensed at the October Term, 1808. Rev. Pavey was a Methodist minister and gave this land on which the first Methodist Church was built in the Township in 1823, on the site of this cemetery. This old log church is now gone, being used for the last time in 1867 for a revival. The Methodists had previously, in 1852, changed their place of worship to Leesburg. There is a history of this church in The Hillsboro Gazette of Sept. 24, 1897. A Mrs. Wilthong was the first person buried in this cemetery, but her monument could not be found.

Genealogists should refer to Hardins Creek Cemetery, this township, for newspaper citations.

In this cemetery is a public mausoleum. This cemetery is also known as Fairfield Township Cemetery.

Name: HODSON.

Location: FAIRFIELD TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Here, many years ago, stood the Lees Creek Friends Meeting House. On July 29, 1812 in Old Deed Book 6, page 400, Highland County Deed Records, by indenture, John Dillon of the one part conveyed to Solomon Hodgson, Evan Evans, James Rees and John Thornburgh "in behalf of the seventy of the people called Quakers of the other part....for the use of a meeting of worship" three acres, more or less. On September 9, 1830 in Old Deed Book 10, page 497, by indenture, Solomon Hodgson, Evan Evans, James Reese and John Thornburgh, all of the County of Highland, conveyed two acres, 2 quarters of an acre, and thirty four poles to James Smith of the County of Fayette and John Green and Hezekiah Hodson of the County of Clinton and Zenas Carey of the County of Highland "trustees appointed by Lees Creek Monthly Meeting of the Society of Friends for the joint property of said Society". All stones copied.

Name: DUNKARD.

Location: FAIRFIELD TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Here is the grave of Catharine Hixson who lived to the age of 102 years, 9 days. Her monument erroneously reads that she lived to the age of 102 years, 9 months. The Highland Weekly News, dated February 25, 1885, states that she was born in Loudon Co., Va., February 5, 1783. She married David Hixson about the year 1808 and they came to Ross County, Ohio in 1811. They lived there for about one year, then settled in Fairfield Township, Highland Co. They were the parents of nine children. The paper further states that she lived to be 102 years, 9 days, and was buried Sunday, February 15, 1885.

On June 1, 1855 in Deed Book 23, page 539, Highland County Deed Records, John Stretch leased to the German Baptist Church 156 poles of land "so long as the same shall be used as a place of public worship... But if no meeting house should be erected upon said premises within a reasonable time or if one should be erected and afterwards abandoned the said lot of land to revert to the said John Stretch or the person holding the title for the farm that the lot is taken from, and the Society holding a claim is to have the privilege of moving their improvement off provided however that the erection of a new meeting house instead of the old one is not to be an abandonment of said premises."

The Dunkard Church, built in 1849, stands in front of this cemetery. All stones copied.

Name: WORTHINGTON. No.1.

Location. FAIRFIELD TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: The following three cemeteries, Worthington No.1, No.2 and No.3, are on the farms of the Worthington brothers who were early settlers of Fairfield Township. They were the sons of Robert Worthington, brother of Governor Thomas Worthington. These brothers bought adjoining farms and lived and died where they originally settled. Their names were: Ephraim Worthington who is buried in cemetery No.2; John R. Worthington who is buried in cemetery No.3; and Joseph C. Worthington who is buried in Pleasant Hill Cemetery, this township. Refer to Worthington Cemetery No.2 and No.3 for further remarks.

This cemetery, Worthington No.1, is located on a farm owned years ago by Joseph C. Worthington. Margaret Myers owned the farm in 1952. The cemetery is enclosed by a stone wall with an iron gate. Residents of the vicinity say that most of or all of the persons buried here were removed elsewhere, probably to Pleasant Hill Cemetery. No monuments, except two, could be found. One was on the outside of the cemetery wall and the other was lying on the top of the wall. The names of the persons on these two monuments, given below, are to be found on monuments in Pleasant Hill Cemetery where these persons are now probably buried.

WORTHINGTON William D., son of Joseph & Harriet. d. June 4, 1854. Age 17-5-1.
Sirrilda Ida, dau. of J. & K. d. Nov. 1, 1866. Age 5yrs 18ds.
(Monument in Pleasant Hill Cemetery states: "Age 5yrs 16ds.")

Name: WORTHINGTON. No.2.

Location: FAIRFIELD TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This cemetery is located on a farm owned years ago by Ephraim Worthington. John S. Irwin owned the farm in 1952. It is located on top of a rather steep hill and was much larger than at present. Many of the bodies have been removed to other cemeteries. Residents of the community say that Mrs. James Street and daughter Mamie were buried here. Mr. James Street had their bodies removed to Pleasant Hill Cemetery near Leesburg because he did not wish to be buried here. Residents further say that Matt Worthington and Betty Crabtree were the last two persons buried here but no monument marks their graves. Further, that a Worthington who fought in the Revolutionary War is buried here and a monument marked his grave. No monument could be found. Refer for further remarks to Worthington Cemetery No.1 and No.3. All stones copied.

Remarks: This cemetery is situated on a farm owned years ago by John R. Worthington. In The News Herald, dated August 18, 1887, is the obituary of Isabelle Loyd. It states that she was the daughter of John and Nancy Worthington and was born near Chillicothe, Ohio, Oct. 12, 1819. She married James Loyd April 27, 1841 and died July 28, 1887 aged 67 years 9 months and 16 days. She was buried in Worthington Cemetery.

Many stones are broken and the cemetery is abandoned. Refer to Worthington Cemetery No.1 and No.2 for further remarks. All stones copied.

Name: DOLLARHIDE.

Location: FAIRFIELD TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This cemetery lies about five feet from the gravel road running south from Centerfield. Five large stone slabs, three feet by six feet, cover these five graves. On top of these slabs are grooves where the base of the monuments were inserted and cemented upright. Three of these monuments are missing and the other two were found broken and chipped on the ground near by. Who are buried under three of these slabs cannot be ascertained. Nor can the names on the monuments given below be placed correctly on anyone of the five stone slabs. These children are undoubtedly the children of Thomas & Rachel Dollarhide who owned this land years ago.

Name: TYLER.

Location: FAIRFIELD TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Residents of the vicinity state that Daniel Tyler, Revolutionary Soldier, who was born Feb. 18, 1758 and died Mar. 10, 1843, is buried here. His monument could not be found. John Tyler, Revolutionary Soldier, may be buried here but no evidence can establish this assumption. Newspapers in the 1870's and 1880's state that this cemetery was decorated on Memorial (Decoration) Day.

On January 23, 1850 in the Common Pleas Court of Highland County, Mary McCann, Plaintiff vs. William Taylor, et al., Defendants, brought a suit to partition 55 acres, 1 quarter, 19 poles of land on which this cemetery is situated and previously owned by Daniel Tyler at his death. The property was sold on Feb.15,1853 and in Deed Book 19, page 490.

Highland County Deed Records, the Sheriff of Highland County executed a deed to the purchasers Mary McCann and Nancy Tyler. This deed gives the names of the heirs. Genealogists should refer to the petition in partition and this deed for further information. The surnames of the defendants as set forth in the deed are: Taylor, Brown, Tyler, Yager, Lewellen, Murphy, Goodman, Parker, Priest, Childers, Franklin and Cran-der. On Nov. 7, 1856 in Deed Book 28, page 259, Nancy Tyler and Elizabeth McCann conveyed to Thomas Dollarhide this land with the exception: "The lot of ground now enclosed as a Family Burying ground and situate in the above described premises is to be excepted in the above conveyance."

This cemetery is abandoned and very few monuments could be found. This cemetery is sometimes called the Duncan Cemetery. All stones copied.

McCANN Mary C., wife of J. d. June 26, 1852. Age 21-8-23.
Jacob M., son of J. & (H?) E.
SOLLARS Nancy Ann, wife of Samuel. d. Oct. 13, 1860. Age 39-10-8.
Children of S. & N.A.
(A monument to Nancy Ann Knox Sollars is to be found in Pleasant Hill Cemetery, this Township, and is next to the monument of Samuel Sollars, her husband. Whether her remains were reinterred in Pleasant Hill cannot be established.)

Name: SANDERS.

Location: FAIRFIELD TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This cemetery is situated on a farm owned for years by the Huff families. L.E. Huff and Robert Huff and Maude, his wife, once owned this land. The cemetery is almost obliterated and only one monument could be found. Mr. L.E. Huff states that he is certain that members of the Banks family are buried here. The Banks family owned land in this vicinity before 1871 but no monuments to them could be found.

SANDERS Rachel Ann, wife of John M. d. Nov. 3, 1848. Age 28-6-17.

Name: UNKNOWN.

Location: FAIRFIELD TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: There are a few graves on the farm owned by Freda Ruth Baldwin Hatton in 1952. She inherited this farm from her grandmother, Louisa Baldwin, who owned it in 1916. B. F. Barrett owned the land in 1887. No one can remember the names of the persons buried here. No monuments could be found.

Name: CHAPMAN.

Location: HAMER TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Here is buried Sarah Chapman, nee Colvin, who was the first white child born in what is now the Township of Hamer.

The sign at the entrance of this cemetery reads: "Chapman 1829 - 1933 Cemetery". This cemetery, situated on top of Caleb's Hill is also known as Caleb Hill Cemetery. There is a beautiful view to the west and south of the surrounding countryside.

On June 22, 1868 in Deed Book 39, page 168, Highland County Deed Records, Caleb Chapman and Sarah, his wife, conveyed to William Strange, Henry Roush and Solomon Holden, trustees of Hamer Township "for and in consideration of the natural love and respect that we owe our deceased friends and relations ... all of the following described real estate situated in Hamer Township, Highland County, Ohio, have in fact been set apart by the owners and dedicated as a grave yard and burial ground for the public and used as such by the public in all time to come", being 21/40 of an acre. This cemetery still used for burials.

Location: HAMER TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: On Jan. 12, 1885 Edward Burnett, Maggie L. Burnett and Lucinda Strange, widow of Wm. Strange deeded this cemetery to the trustees of the township. Later conveyances enlarged this cemetery. Absolem Strange owned this land before 1852.

This cemetery is known as Swamp College Cemetery because an old log school house, later a brick school, called Swamp College stood near it years ago. It is also known as South Liberty Cemetery because South Liberty Christian Church is a few hundred yards down the road.

Name: REDKEY.

Location: HAMER TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This cemetery is situated on a farm owned by Abraham Aber over 100 years ago. Old newspaper obituaries refer to this cemetery as the Aber, Smokey Row, Straitout, East Danville and Redkey.

In 1878 in Deed Book 54, page 145, Highland County Deed Records, the Sheriff of Highland County sold the farm on which this cemetery is located to John L. West containing 107 acres and 66 poles "Save and except about 1-66/100 acres of land heretofore dedicated and reserved for cemetery grounds and a road to and from said grounds." All stones copied.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and activities. It emphasizes the need for transparency and accountability in financial reporting.

2. The second part of the document outlines the various methods and techniques used to collect and analyze data. It includes a detailed description of the experimental procedures and the statistical analysis performed.

3. The third part of the document presents the results of the study. It includes a series of tables and graphs that illustrate the findings of the research. The data shows a clear trend of increasing activity over time.

4. The fourth part of the document discusses the implications of the findings. It suggests that the results have significant implications for the field of study and may lead to further research in this area.

5. The fifth part of the document concludes the study. It summarizes the main findings and provides a final statement on the importance of the research.

Name: MILLER.

Location: HAMER TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Here is buried Elcy Miller who lived to be 104 years old. To her is given the distinction of being the second oldest person to be buried in Highland County from monument inscriptions.

This cemetery, except for the monuments lying broken and chipped on the ground, is obliterated. All stones copied.

The monument to Adam C. Miller was worn and broken and his death date could not be read. Examination of the papers in the Estate of Adam C. Miller, Decd., Estate No.4211, Probate Court, Highland County, Ohio, show that he was a resident of Hamer Township when he died on July 11, 1879. His widow, Hannah Miller, waived her right to be appointed Name: Smart.

Location: JACKSON TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This cemetery, now abandoned, lies adjacent to the Town of Belfast. In the Highland Weekly News dated January 8, 1880, under the news item "Belfast" is an article concerning the death on Dec. 29, 1879 of Mrs. Polly Hill, widow of Jacob Hill. This article states that Mrs. Hill was the last of the members who organized the present society of the M.E. Church in Belfast in June 1835, and that there was an earlier organization of the same church, near Belfast, on the old Mrs. Smart farm, about the year 1815, composed of about five persons, viz: Spencer Wilson (father of Hon. John T. Wilson) and his wife, Samuel Clark and wife, and Mariah Haigh. It was suspended for a short time, and reorganized in 1835. The Highland Weekly News dated May 27, 1880, under the heading "Churches of Jackson Township," states: "The M.E. class organized in 1815 at Samuel Clarks (on the old Mrs. Smart farm). They held meetings at Clarks and widow Wilsons' until 1830 (Wilson died in June, 1816). In 1836 Mt. Pleasant Chapel was built about one mile north of Belfast on the pike." Refer to Wisecup Cemetery, this township.

In the News Herald dated June 6, 1889, under the news item "Belfast" is the death notice of Aunt Mary Smart who died Saturday night and was buried in the Haigh Cemetery. This cemetery was at one time called the Haigh Cemetery. All stones copied.

Name: STORER.

Location: JACKSON TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Here was the first Regular Baptist Church in the township. The church was built by Charles Storer in 1832 or 1833, on his farm, by the site of this cemetery. The church and cemetery were between two little streams called Rock Lick and Suck Lick. Regular meetings were held here until a division was caused among the members of the church over the question of the abolition of slavery. In the years 1837 and 1838 many of the members withdrew but still held this church as a place for worship. The other members who did not agree with them over the slavery question organized a Baptist Church of their own called The East Fork of Brushcreek Baptist Church. Refer to Baptist Cemetery for further remarks. The Regular Baptist Church never regained its strength and disappeared in 1867 leaving only this cemetery as a reminder of where the Baptists first flourished in the township. All stones copied.

Remarks: The members of the Regular Baptist Church, after the split over the question of slavery in 1830's with other members of the same church, organized a new Baptist Church called The East Fork of Brushcreek Baptist Church. Refer to Storer Cemetery, this township, for further remarks.

On October 13, 1852 in Deed Book 19, page 335, Highland County Deed Records, William Newkirk and Rebecca, his wife, conveyed one half acre to "James Dalrymple and Thomas Storer trustees of the Old Regular Baptist Church known by the name of The East Fork of Brushcreek of Highland County." A church was built here in front of the cemetery in 1853 but has long disappeared. Across the road west from this cemetery and church stood a school house and a Christian Church.

The News Herald dated Apr. 29, 1887 referred to this church as Mt. Zion. All stones copied.

Location: JACKSON TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This is the "Dutch" Kelley Cemetery. There is some controversy as to whether this cemetery is situated in Highland County or Adams County. The compilers of this book believe this cemetery at one time was in Highland County but since a survey of the Highland-Adams County line there might be a doubt as to this location today.

On June 15, 1870 in Deed Book 42, page 529, Highland County Deed Records, James Kelley and Mary, his wife, conveyed this cemetery of 59 poles of land, more or less, situated in Highland County to the Public at Large, "to have and to hold the same to the only use of the Public at Large". On June 13, 1912 in Deed Book 115, page 73, the heirs of James & Mary Kelley, by affidavit of transfer determined their inheritance according to law. The second tract in this affidavit calls for 75 acres of land in Jackson Township, Highland County, Ohio, "save and except the cemetery ground of 1 acre and the right of way to and from the same." Genealogists should consult this affidavit and the deed immediately following on page 74.

An interesting article on James Kelley and his family is found in The Hillsboro Dispatch of Saturday, February 9, 1901. In this article it states that James Kelley, who was born in 1809 in Fayette County, Ohio, married Mary Wilson of Oldtown, Ross County, Ohio in 1835 and to this union was born seven boys and seven girls. That Stephen, their son who was in the Civil War, was buried in this cemetery beside his youngest brother Bert and two youngest sisters. In The Hillsboro Dispatch of Saturday, April 6, 1901 there is an interesting article about James Kelley entitled "An Old Legend."

This cemetery is a mile or more off the main gravel road and situated southeast of the old Kelley home. The dirt road back to this cemetery is abandoned. The cemetery is very well kept. All stones copied.

 Charlotte, wife. d. Apr.11,1883. Age 81yrs 2mos.

Name: PALMER.

Location: JACKSON TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This little cemetery was discovered in 1952 when a brush fire burned through a thicket where it is situated. Frank Creech, who died in the spring or summer of 1953, is buried here. Other Creechs are buried here but their graves are unmarked. Only one monument could be found. A few field stones for monuments.

PALMER

John W., son of John & Rebecca. d. May 7, 1843. Age 1yr 12ds.

Name: UNKNOWN. No.1. No.2. No.3. No.4. No.5.

Location: JACKSON TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Unknown No.1. There are two graves on the farm owned in 1951 by Roscoe T. Vanzant. This farm was formerly owned by John Newkirk and his father before him. No monuments could be found.

Unknown No.2. There are several graves on the farm owned in 1951 by James White. Mr. White states that he has been told members of the Baskin family are buried here. No monuments could be found.

Unknown No.3. There are graves on the farm owned in 1951 by Harry Williamson. Mr. Williamson states that he has been told that members of the Stethem family are buried here. No monuments could be found.

Unknown No.4. There are a few graves on the farm owned in 1916 by George Davidson and owned in 1951 by a Smittle. No monuments could be found.

Unknown No.5. There are a few graves on the farm owned in 1951 by R.C. Lewis. Mr. Lewis says his father, who would have been 94 years old in 1952, told him that the graves were of the Ashenfelter family and had been there for many years. No monuments could be found.

Name: METHODIST.

Location: VILLAGE OF HILLSBORO, LIBERTY TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This was the first cemetery in Hillsboro. Historians state that it was dedicated by the founders of Hillsboro to the public when the Town was laid out. On May 4, 1896 the Village of Hillsboro deeded this cemetery to the Board of Education of Hillsboro. This deed is found in Deed Book 83, page 428, Highland County Deed Records. The deed reads, in part: "That whereas the Board of Education of Hillsboro Special School District is desirous of obtaining the title to the burial grounds on East Street adjoining its New School House site for the purpose of enlarging and beautifying its grounds, which burial ground is known as the Old M.E. Church graveyard, and whereas the burial of the dead in the future and the continuance of said burial ground would be detrimental to the health of the inhabitants and the general prosperity of said village and that the remains interred in such cemetery, should be removed,..... Whereas the Methodist Episcopal Church of Hillsboro Station by its Quarterly Conference duly held March 5, 1896 by resolution disclaims the ownership of said graveyard and that the same is under the care of said church and consents so far as it is concerned to the removal of the bodies from said graveyard"....do hereby convey to The Board of Education of Hillsboro Special School District of Hillsboro, Ohio "Being all that portion of In-Lots no. 139 and 140 occupied and heretofore used as a public burial ground, the same being 123 feet off the north end of said in lots excepting therefrom the lot on which the Wesleyan Church now stands fronting 50 feet on East Street and 99 feet on North Street.... on condition said grantee shall provide in the Hillsboro Cemetery suitable lots and carefully remove all bodies in said graveyard and re-inter the same, each in a separate grave in the new lots so provided and place over the grave of each the monument that marked the original grave of such body."

Historians state that the first person buried in this cemetery was Andrew Edgar who died July, 1808 from the effects of a bite from a rattlesnake. The second person to be buried here was Pearson Starr who died Sept., 1809. Refer to Hillsboro Cemetery for monument to Pearson Starr.

Name: WOODROW.

Location: VILLAGE OF HILLSBORO, LIBERTY TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This was the third cemetery in Hillsboro. Very little is known about this cemetery other than the fact that it was in existence sixty-five years ago. No one knows who is buried here. Members of the Woodrow family were undoubtedly buried here and it is presumed that their remains and the remains of others here were reinterred in the Hillsboro Cemetery years ago.

On May 13, 1846 in Deed Book 13, page 11, Highland County Deed Records, Juliet Woodrow, Maria E. Woodrow, Joseph J. Woodrow, Hiram Campbell and Sarah E. Campbell, his wife, conveyed to Joshua Woodrow, Jr., Jos. J. Woodrow and David Miller, as trustees of the graveyard, "5 rods square of land situate in the northwest corner of Out Lot No.21 in the Town of Hillsborough, County and State aforesaid, said lot or parcel of land hereby conveyed to be used as a burying ground and for no other purposes whatever."

The northwest corner of Out Lot No.21 is at the corner of North West Street and Catherine Street.

Name: ODD FELLOWS.

Location: VILLAGE OF HILLSBORO, LIBERTY TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This was the fourth cemetery in Hillsboro. It was located on the west side of South High Street on In Lots Nos. 274 and 275. The cemetery was created in 1848 for the burial of the persons belonging to the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and their families.

On Apr. 30, 1879 in Deed Book 54, page 375, Highland County Deed Records, Josiah Stevenson, John Reekly and Wm. H. Glenn as trustees of Lafayette Lodge, Independent Order Odd Fellows No.25, conveyed to George Brooksbanks in Lots Nos. 274 and 275 of Jacob Muntz' Addition being the same property conveyed to the Independent Order Odd Fellows October 24, 1848 "and by them used many years for a grave yard."

This cemetery was vacated and the bodies here were removed to the Hillsboro Cemetery. Lafayette Lodge No.25 had purchased on July 22, 1862 from the Hillsboro Cemetery Association 4 acres 1 rood and 15 poles for a cemetery.

Name: PRESBYTERIAN.

Location: VILLAGE OF HILLSBORO, LIBERTY TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: The first Presbyterian Church built in Highland County was called "Clear Creek Church", later named "Nazareth", and was constructed of hewn logs on the lands of Richard Evans on Clear Creek in the years 1809-1810. It was sixteen by thirty four feet and situated in a sugar grove just north of the junction of the Chillicothe and New Petersburg pikes.

On May 29, 1811 in Old Deed Book 1, page 34, Highland County Deed Records, Richard Evans, by indenture, conveyed three acres to the Congregation of Nazareth.

Around the year 1815 the Nazareth congregation decided to move to Hillsboro, using the Court House as a place to hold services until a church was completed.

On September 4, 1816 in Old Deed Book 3, page 436, by indenture, "John L. Ramsey, Ezekiel Kelly and Thomas Rabourn trustees of Nazareth Congregation (now Hillsboro)" reconveyed to Richard Evans the three acres previously purchased from him in 1811.

Previously, on January 15, 1816 in Old Deed Book 2, page 200, by indenture, George Shinn and Elizabeth Shinn had conveyed to William Keys "for the use of the Congregation of the Presbyterian Church of the County" Out Lot No.43 in the Town of Hillsboro. On June 20, 1818 in Old Deed Book 5, page 518, by indenture, William Keys conveyed Out Lot No.43 to John M. Nelson, John White and Dan Evins, trustees of the First Presbyterian Church in the Town of Hillsboro. A church was built on this lot in 1818 or 1819 and occupied until 1830. It was a brick building one story high and faced south. Years later another story was added to this building. In 1839 the Oakland Female Seminary was founded and used this building until the seminary became co-educational and was called the Highland Institute, after 1857. In 1890 the building was leased for the use as a part of the primary grades and for a high school, and later the Childrens' Home occupied this site until it went out of existence. In 1953 the Union Central Life Insurance Company of Cincinnati completed a new building for its use on the site where the old church stood.

In 1830 the congregation decided to move closer into town and purchased on August 15, 1831, in Deed Book 4, page 11, by indenture, Lot No.7 from Hugh Swearingen. This conveyance was made to Andrew Barry, Jno. M. Nelson and John Herron, trustees of the Presbyterian Church in Hillsboro.

1. The first part of the report deals with the general situation of the country and the progress of the work during the year. It is divided into two main sections: the first section deals with the general situation of the country and the progress of the work during the year, and the second section deals with the specific results of the work.

2. The second part of the report deals with the specific results of the work. 4. The fourth part of the report deals with the results of the work in the field of industry. It is divided into two main sections: the first section deals with the results of the work in the field of manufacturing, and the second section deals with the results of the work in the field of mining.

5. The fifth part of the report deals with the results of the work in the field of commerce. It is divided into two main sections: the first section deals with the results of the work in the field of trade, and the second section deals with the results of the work in the field of finance.

6. The sixth part of the report deals with the results of the work in the field of education. It is divided into two main sections: the first section deals with the results of the work in the field of primary education, and the second section deals with the results of the work in the field of secondary education.

7. The seventh part of the report deals with the results of the work in the field of health. It is divided into two main sections: the first section deals with the results of the work in the field of public health, and the second section deals with the results of the work in the field of medicine.

A church was erected on this lot and in 1846 another church was built here replacing the older structure. This newer church became famous as "The Crusade Church", having been used on the morning of December 24, 1873 as a meeting place by the women of the town to organize the famous Woman's Temperance Crusade in Hillsboro. It was razed in 1895 and on the same site the corner stone of the present church was laid on October 28 of the same year. The church was completed in 1899 and on May 14 of that year the dedicatory services were held. The church celebrated its sesquicentennial in June, 1954.

Shortly after 1818 the Presbyterians laid out a cemetery on all of that part of Out Lot No. 43 lying across Chillicothe Avenue and north of the church built in 1818-1819. It was called the Presbyterian Cemetery.

On November 28, 1908, the cemetery having become an eyesore to the community through neglect and ill-use of the grounds, The First Presbyterian Church brought a suit in the Common Pleas Court of Highland County for an order to sell the real estate, alleging said cemetery contained two acres, two rods, and fourteen perches of land.

The caption of this suit reads: "First Presbyterian Church of Hillsborough, Ohio, Plaintiff vs The Unknown heirs of the following deceased persons, to-wit: William & Elizabeth Brown; Daniel Inskeep; Rachel Inskeep; Samuel A. Hott; Isaac Bennet; Wigley Doggett; Thomas Hogsett; S.F. & A.M. January; S.A. & Susan Lyle; Samuel Lyle; J.B. & M.A. Gamble; Josiah & Mary S. Hogsett; S. McMullen; Samuel & Elizabeth Bell; Josephus P. Bell; Foreman E. Bell; Minerva Bell; Martha Bell; John W. & Mary E. Bell; Daniel E. & S.J. Macy; S.F. & Almeda Compton; F.K. & Mary J. Church; John Patterson; Moses Patterson; Dan Patterson; Isabell Patterson; Thos. Patterson; D.A. Stewart; Henry & Alice Davis; Dr. Jasper Hand; Geo. Baxter; Samuel Gibson; Hugh Wear; John Roads; Anne E. Heppard; Nancy Lawson; J.T. Linn; Catharine Linn; Samuel Linn; Chas. Mattell; Ellen Jane Jolly; Mary C. Jolly; Wm. C. Scott & Wm. V. Scott; Elizabeth C. Scott; Margaret Jolly; Mary Jolly; David Jolly; John M. Wagner; J.M. & Ann S. Brown; Robt. A. Keer; Sarah Keer; Phebe A. Barker; Mary & Wm. Barker; Jacob Miller; Wm. H. Miller; Elizabeth Willett; Hattie L. Willett; Dennis D. McKinney; Thos. Wills; Elizabeth Willis; Lavenia Ervin; Jared Ervin; Nannie E. Pennington; Sarah Blount; Elizabeth Blount; Sarah E. Thayer; Fnewel Thayer; Mary A. Daniels; Hannah Muntz; Alginda King; Susan King; Josiah Boardman; Wm. Vanover; Thos. Vanover; Nancy E. Lawhead; and other unknown dead, Defendants."

In its petition the church alleges: "Plaintiff further says that said real estate was formerly used as a Cemetery, but no interments have been made therein for a great many years.... That during the past few years the bodies of a large number of the unknown dead, have been removed by friends and relatives of the deceased; that at no time was burial permits or privileges issued by plaintiff for a valuable consideration, and if any such privileges are held by any person or persons, no money consideration therefore ever passed to plaintiff."

The petition then sets forth the persons interred in this cemetery. Since many of the names of the persons interred here are given in the caption of the petition we set forth only the names not found in the caption unless there is a difference in the name itself, to-wit: "Plaintiff says that the bodies of the following named persons, whose heirs are unknown to plaintiff, are interred in said cemetery aforesaid, to-wit: Lindley Murray Brown, Son and Minnie Brown, Daughter of Wm. and Elizabeth Brown; Rev. Daniel Inskeep (In the caption the "Rev." is omitted); Mary Ann Hott wife of Samuel H. Hott; Sarah A., wife of Isaac Bennett; Lena L., Daughter and Jodie January, Son of S.F. & A.M. January; Samuel A. Lyle; (In the caption the name is written S.A. Lyle); Infant daughter of J.B. & M.A. Gamble; Elizabeth M., wife of Samuel Lyle; Peoria M. Lyle and John C. Lyle; Samuel McMullen (In the caption the name is written S. McMullen); Elizabeth E. Bell; Mary E., daughter of Daniel E. & Sarah J. Macy; Adah W., daughter, Almeda Wife of and S.F. Compton; Alice V., daughter of F.K. & Mary J. Church; Alice Davis, wife (Of Henry Davis); Samuel Baxter; Mrs. John Roads, wife (Of John Roads); Infant son of J.M. & Ann S. Brown; Lavenia J. Ervin (In the caption the J. is omitted); Susan G. King (In the caption the G. is omitted); Nancy E. Lawhead; and others unknown to Plaintiff."

The Court ordered the bodies removed and "re-interred in some other Cemetery" together with the monuments, head stones and markers.

The Commissioners' report to the Court dated March 30, 1909 reads, in part: "That he caused public notice to be given by publication in each of the three County Papers published in Hillsboro, Ohio to the friends and relatives who desired to remove the bodies of persons interred in the old cemetery, within the time fixed by the order of the Court, and that after which time all bodies remaining would be disinterred and reinterred in the Hillsboro Cemetery, together with monuments, head-stones, etc.,....I beg to report that Friends and Relative acting under said notice have removed the bodies of some 31 or more people whom a full and complete record will be found with the Clerk of said Hillsboro Cemetery Association; that said Commissioner has caused to be disinterred and reinterred in said Hillsboro Cemetery the bodies of some 75 people, a full and complete record of which is on file with said Hillsboro Cemetery Association, and that a number of unknown were likewise removed and reinterred, together with all Monuments, headstones and markers that said association would permit to be erected upon a Lot purchased by the First Presbyterian Church containing some 1050 square feet, more or less; that all bodies have been removed from the premises of the old cemetery and that those reinterred by plaintiff have been reinterred in said Hillsboro Cemetery with the lot under perpetual care."

On April 7, 1909 in Deed Book 108, page 422, the old cemetery was conveyed to J.D.W. Spargur for the consideration of $1,200.00.

An interesting account of the removal of one of the bodies in this cemetery is told in The Hillsboro Dispatch, dated Friday, March 19, 1909. The article reads as follows:

"BODIES EXHUMED. Bodies almost to the number of one hundred, have been exhumed during the past week in the old Presbyterian Cemetery. One remarkable case of preservation has been reported. The body of Lida T., wife of Charles Pavey, was buried September 27, 1857, aged 17 years, in a metallic casket. When exhumed the body and clothing were found to be in almost a perfect state of preservation and this, fifty-two years after burial. Many of the bodies have been taken in charge by relatives and friends, and moved to the Hillsboro Cemetery."

In the Hillsboro Gazette of Friday, April 2, 1909. there is a two and one half column article by H.A. Pavey entitled "Some Interesting History Recalled By The Disinterment Of The Body Of Mrs. Chas. Pavey." The article is too long to copy here. In this article it is stated that Lida T. Pavey was the eldest daughter of Silas Irons. She was born in 1838 and was married to Charles W. Pavey December 17, 1856. She died September 23, 1857, age 19 years. Parts of the article written by H.A.

Pavey are as follows:

"Ten years ago I made an effort to find Mrs. Pavey's grave, and that of a younger brother buried by her side, but in vain. Mr. Pownell found the broken stone that had marked her grave twenty-five feet away. All the boxing around the casket had rotted away and the casket itself was heavily coated with rust. The casket was one of the earliest of its kind brought to this vicinity, as the railroad had been built only five years before. When the lid was removed I looked, after the lapse of half a century, upon the face that I had last looked upon when I was a child of five years, and she, with her youthful husband, were guests at my father's home....Beneath the coffin lid the pure, sweet face of the girl for whom time so long ago ended forever, looked out upon the world of the twentieth century with unseeing eyes. The eyes that beheld her looked upon a youthful, girlish face which, but for the unmistakable hue of death, might have been the face of one sleeping. The ebon hair was smoothed away from the fair brow, the long dark lashes that lay upon the rounded girlish cheek (more girlish even than in life) were every one in place; the full lips, slightly parted, retained something yet of their living red. The green silk dress waist, cut low, revealed the full, fair rounded throat and snowy bosom, over which lay the white silk or linen lace collar without a spot or stain to tell that it had lain for more than half a century in the grave.

"There is an indefinable expression upon her face - a troubled look, a surprised look of tender longing and infinite regret, as if in the last fleeting moments of consciousness she had suddenly grasped the fact that death, with its seal of eternal stillness, was at hand."

In the forepart of his article, Mr. Pavey write: "Nine months later their married life was terminated by the death of the young wife after a brief illness (This accounts for the fact that the body is not wasted.)"

Refer to Hillsboro Cemetery for further data on the persons mentioned here.

Name: HILLSBORO.

Location: VILLAGE OF HILLSBORO, LIBERTY TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Here is the grave of Allen Trimble, ninth Governor of Ohio. While Speaker of the Senate he became Acting-Governor in 1822 upon the resignation of Governor Ethan Allen Brown. He was elected Governor in 1826, the first Federalist State Governor, and was re-elected in 1828. He also served as United States Senator. In Vol. VI on page 108 of the Ohio Archaeological and Historical Publications he is called the founder of the Ohio public school system when he, while Acting-Governor, appointed a commission which formulated the school system of Ohio.

Here is the grave of Caspar Collins, famous Indian fighter, who lost his life fighting Indians near Platte Bridge Fort, Wyoming. Casper, Wyoming is named in his memory.

Here is buried Jared Ervin who lived to the age of 104 years, 8 months, and 29 days. To him is given the distinction of being the oldest person to be buried in Highland County from monument inscriptions. He came to Highland County from Virginia around the year 1814.

Here is buried Margaret Sayler who lived to the age of 100 years, 2 months and 8 days. She was born in Pickaway Co., Ohio, seven miles from Kingston, on Oct. 2, 1825, the daughter of Micah and Elizabeth Moninett Sayler, and married Jacob Sayler in 1847. She was an original member of the Woman's Temperance Crusade of 1873 in Hillsboro; a member of the Methodist denomination for 91 years and a member of the Hillsboro M.E. Church for 80 years. In The News Herald dated Thursday, Oct. 1, 1925 is an article about her entitled "Will Celebrate 100th Birthday". In The News Herald, dated Thursday, Dec. 17, 1925 is an article entitled "Crusader Died At The Age of 100". This article states she was the first and only resident of Hillsboro who lived 100 years. Her picture appears in the paper.

Here is buried Eliza Jane Thompson, "Mother Thompson", the elected president and leader of the famous Woman's Temperance Crusade of 1873 in Hillsboro. She was the only daughter of Allen Trimble.

Here is the grave of Jane Trimble, mother of Allen Trimble. The first sermon preached by a Methodist minister in the County was preached by Rev. James Quinn at her home in the fall of 1805. The first brass clock in the County was brought by her from Kentucky the same year.

This cemetery was created when, on May 30, 1862 in Deed Book 30, page 349, Highland County Deed Records, the Hillsboro Cemetery Association of the Town of Hillsborough purchased from Allen Trimble and Rachel, his wife, 31 acres, 1 quarter, and 25 poles of land for a cemetery. On July 22, 1862 in Deed Book 30, page 351 the Association sold to the Lafayette Lodge No. 25 of The Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Hillsboro 4 acres, 1 rood and 15 poles "to hold and use the above described premises for burial purposes exclusively". On Aug. 21, 1883 in Deed Book 62, page 404 the Lafayette Lodge re-conveyed back to the Association the above land and one additional acre. In this deed the names of the persons who had previously purchased lots from the Lodge are given. Genealogists should refer to this list of names.

This cemetery was originally called Greenwood Cemetery.

Refer to remarks under Methodist, Presbyterian, Odd Fellows, and Woodrow Cemeteries for additional information.

The first part of the paper is devoted to a general discussion of the problem. It is shown that the problem is of great importance in the theory of the structure of the atom. The second part is devoted to a detailed analysis of the results of the experiments of the author and his co-workers. It is shown that the results are in good agreement with the theoretical predictions of the author.

The third part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the results of the experiments of other authors. It is shown that the results of these experiments are in good agreement with the results of the author's experiments. The fourth part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the results of the experiments of the author and his co-workers. It is shown that the results are in good agreement with the theoretical predictions of the author.

The fifth part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the results of the experiments of the author and his co-workers. It is shown that the results are in good agreement with the theoretical predictions of the author. The sixth part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the results of the experiments of the author and his co-workers. It is shown that the results are in good agreement with the theoretical predictions of the author.

The seventh part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the results of the experiments of the author and his co-workers. It is shown that the results are in good agreement with the theoretical predictions of the author. The eighth part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the results of the experiments of the author and his co-workers. It is shown that the results are in good agreement with the theoretical predictions of the author.

The ninth part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the results of the experiments of the author and his co-workers. Name: CATHOLIC.

Location: VILLAGE OF HILLSBORO, LIBERTY TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Historians state that Father Cornelius Daly of Fayetteville, Ohio, visited Hillsboro around the year 1845 and found ten to fifteen Catholic families in the vicinity. The old John Fallon home, on the corner of West Main and South West Streets, before it became a hotel, was where these Catholics first gathered for the masses. Father Daly was instrumental in building the first Catholic Church, St. Mary's, in 1852. Records list Mary Boeglin, who later married Peter Vandem Eynden, was the first person baptised in the new church and the first marriage was that of Joseph Smith and Catherine Barry.

Peter Hughes presented a tract of land to the Catholics to be used as a cemetery on condition that the congregation purchase a bell for the Catholic Church. This condition was complied with and the present Catholic Cemetery on North High Street was consecrated and established.

It is interesting to note that The News Herald, dated December 1, 1887, contains the death notice of Mrs. Johanna Kilmartin, supposed to be about 110 years of age who died at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. James Haley, at Flat Run, near Hallowtown "last Sunday morning at 1 o'clock and was buried in the Catholic Cemetery at this place Monday at 12 noon." Born in Ireland, "she could well remember the troublous times of that country in 1789 being a young lady at that time." Her monument could not be found.

Name: MITCHELL.

Location: LIBERTY TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This cemetery is surrounded by a stone wall in perfect state of preservation.

On June 13, 1835 in Deed Book 3, page 145, Highland County Deed Records, by indenture, William Fenner and Elvira, his wife, Adam Fenner and Susannah, his wife, and Edward Chaney and Sarah, his wife, conveyed 12 $\frac{1}{4}$ acres of land, on which this cemetery is situated, to John H. Mitchell. In this indenture Mary Ann Fenner, widow of James Fenner, retained her right of dower in the land for life. James Fenner had bought this farm from Joel Wright on Mar. 7, 1807. On Nov. 14, 1873 in Deed Book 47, page 114, John H. Mitchell and Eleanor, his wife, "in consideration of five dollars and for the natural love and respect we have for our children to them paid by James W. Mitchell and the balance of our children in common of the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, do hereby Grant, Bargain, Sell and Convey to the said James W. Mitchell and the balance of our children in common" conveyed about 15 poles of land, more or less, "To have and to hold the above described land for a family cemetery or burying ground and for no other purpose whatever."

In The Hillsboro Gazette dated Mar. 20, 1879 is an article entitled "Four Score Birthday Ovation to John Mitchell. Interesting Reminiscences. A Resident of Hillsborough since 1816".

The death notice of Ellen Mitchell, printed in The News Herald, Thursday, Oct. 17, 1895, states that she was the daughter of James and Mary Fenner. That she came to Ohio with her parents when two years of age and was married to John H. Mitchell August 30, 1821. They were the parents of eleven children. All stones copied.

Name: KELLEY.

Location: LIBERTY TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This cemetery has been in the Kelley name for over 100 years. Ezekiel Kelley, the pioneer from Maryland, bought this farm a few years after 1800. His son Aaron Kelley lived and died here. M.G. & Esie Kelley owned the farm in 1916 and Florence D. Kelley, daughter-in-law, owned the farm in 1951.

On June 28, 1841 in Deed Book 9, page 83, Highland County Deed Records, Ezekiel Kelley and Catharine, his wife, conveyed to James Kelly, William Long and Andrew Hott the following described real estate "for a burying ground and for no other purpose ... a part of a tract of land upon which the said Kelly and wife now lives." On July 27, 1882 in Deed Book 59, page 423, Aaron Kelly conveyed to James Kelly, William Long and Andrew Hott "for a burial ground 20 feet off of the west side of the grave yard on my farm in Little Rocky Fork in Liberty Township in Highland County, Ohio, the graveyard being described in deed date 1841 of Ezekiel Kelly to same parties ... containing 20 ft off the west end thereof."

This cemetery is enclosed by a cement wall and broad cement steps as a stile give easy access into the cemetery. All stones copied.

Name: FENNER. No.1.

Location: LIBERTY TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This cemetery was founded by John A. Fenner who owned the land on which it is situated. Residents of the vicinity say that over 100 years ago a man came from Virginia and John A. Fenner hired him to work on his farm. The name of this man was known at one time but has long been forgotten. When he died John A. Fenner buried him under an oak tree and a field stone now marks his grave. His was the first burial in this cemetery.

Years ago this cemetery was often referred to as the Pike Chapel Cemetery. The Pike Chapel Methodist Episcopal Church was situated north of this cemetery on the same road and near Hoaglands Crossing. The church disappeared years ago. A few field stones for monuments. All stones copied.

Name: HANSBROUGH.

Location: LIBERTY TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This cemetery, in a clump of trees, is well off the gravel road. It has been abandoned and all monuments are down and broken. The stone of Fanny Peyton was assembled from twelve pieces scattered over the cemetery. Residents of the vicinity say that white and colored people are buried here. They further state that the Peyton and Hansbrough families are colored. As to the white persons buried here no names could be ascertained. This is considered a colored cemetery.

In The News Herald, dated September 22, 1887, is an article entitled "Memoir of Philip Hansboro". This article states that Philip Hansbrough was born in Virginia in 1805. His father, William Hansbrough, was a prosperous farmer and slaveholder of Culpepper County, Va., who married a colored woman. To this union were born four children, namely - Philip Hansbrough, Mary Garnett, Catharine Bryant and Eliza Campbell. The last names of the girls are undoubtedly their names after marriage. The article states that sometime before his death William came to Ohio and purchased three hundred acres of land and gave it to his son, Philip.

A colored school and a colored Baptist Church were situated next to this cemetery. The church has disappeared and the school was sold and removed a few years ago. The Hansbrough settlement prospered for a few years, then deteriorated.

On September 25, 1858 in Deed Book 27, page 54, Highland County Deed Records, Philip Hansbrough conveyed to the Trustees of the Clear Creek Baptist Church eighty poles of land. The deed reads, in part: "...includes the burial ground or grave yard which he hereby reserves for a burial ground for the use and occupation of his own family and which his mother is buried in and for which family use and sole occupation he has hereby reserved the same to be improved as he may desire and for no other use." Name: INSKEEP.

Location: LIBERTY TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This cemetery was situated across the road from the old Holladay dwelling house on the Danville Pike. About 1850, when the Hillsboro & Cincinnati Railroad, later known as the Marietta & Cincinnati Railroad and today known as the B. & O. Railroad was being constructed, the cemetery was dug up to obtain gravel to use in building the railroad bed.

Members of the Inskeep and Holladay families were buried here. Their bodies were removed and buried in the Holladay - Inskeep Cemetery.

Name: HOLLADAY-INSKEEP.

Location: LIBERTY TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This cemetery is situated on a farm owned by the Estate of Jubell Holladay in 1887 and by Clark Holladay in 1952. This cemetery is abandoned. Only one stone was standing and many were broken. All stones copied. See Inskeep Cemetery.

Name: FITZPATRICK.

Location: LIBERTY TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Here are the graves of James Fitzpatrick and Mary Fitzpatrick, his wife. He was a soldier of the Revolution. At the home of the Fitzpatrick family in the autumn of 1805 was held the first regular Methodist meeting in Highland County. For a very interesting account of this family, their immigration from Virginia to Ohio and their home life in Highland County, read Daniel Scott's "A History of the Early Settlement of Highland County, Ohio" pages 124 to 127 inclusive. Their graves lie on a hill west of the old home. Scott at page 126 writes "But in the course of time, his life drew to a peaceful and happy close. He and his worthy wife, Mary, died near the same time and were the first buried in the family grave yard on the highest point of the hill west of his home on his own farm." Today only field stones mark the graves. The cemetery is almost obliterated and no monuments could be found. The date of the death of these two pioneers could not be established. Residents of the vicinity say a daughter of Bennett Creed, brother-in-law of James Fitzpatrick, is buried here. The names of other persons buried here cannot be ascertained.

Name: FISHER.

Location: LIBERTY TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This grave is on the farm owned in 1887 by F.M. Miller. Residents of the community state that there were two more monuments further down the hill from where the Fisher monument lies. They could not be found. A few field stones are scattered over the ground.

FISHER	Jacob. d. Apr.1,1852. Age 73-2-15.
--------	------------------------------------

Name: COUNTY HOME.

Location: LIBERTY TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This cemetery is on the Highland County Home farm. The News Herald dated Thursday, January 7, 1943 states that Edward Britton. is buried here. The Hillsboro Dispatch, dated Tuesday, January 18, 1916, states that Wm. Taylor, aged 99 years, died Saturday at the Infirmary and was buried here.

HARRIS William A. 1823 - 1897.

Name: HERRON.

Location: LIBERTY TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This cemetery is situated on the farm owned in 1887 by James Herron. This cemetery is entirely obliterated and the ground has been plowed over for years. Residents of the vicinity state that a former owner of this farm destroyed all the monuments with a sledge hammer. They also state that members of the Herron family are buried here. No monuments could be found and no one knows the names of the other persons buried here.

Name: OLD BURYING GROUND.

Location: VILLAGE OF GREENFIELD, MADISON TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: The ground on which this cemetery is situated, containing one out-lot of four acres on the west bank of Paint Creek, was given by Duncan McArthur when Greenfield was founded. In 1821 a stone meeting house stood to the north of the cemetery. The present Presbyterian Church, now abandoned, was built on the site of this stone meeting house in the year 1854. The sign on the church reads: "Presbyterian Church. Built 1821. Rebuilt A.D. 1854." This church was known as the "First Presbyterian Church." A log school house was built in this cemetery in 1815 but was abandoned in 1837.

Historians say that the first person buried here was a little child of John Coffey. The monument could not be found. The second person and the first adult person buried here was Wm. Bell who died Nov. 18, 1801. Years ago his remains were reinterred in the Greenfield Cemetery. Refer to remarks under Greenfield Cemetery. Rev. Samuel Crothers, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church for over thirty four years, is buried here. Catholics were buried here before the present Catholic Cemetery in Greenfield was created.

No other cemetery in the county is so adversely affected by the weather as this cemetery. The lettering on many of the monuments is entirely obliterated and on others extremely difficult to decipher. A few years from now many of these monuments will be impossible to read. All stones copied.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and activities. It emphasizes the need for transparency and accountability in financial reporting.

2. The second part of the document outlines the various methods and techniques used to collect and analyze data. It includes a detailed description of the experimental procedures and the statistical analysis performed.

3. The third part of the document presents the results of the study. It includes a series of tables and graphs that illustrate the findings of the research. The data shows a clear trend towards increased efficiency and productivity.

4. The fourth part of the document discusses the implications of the findings. It highlights the potential for future research and the practical applications of the results. The study suggests that the methods used can be applied to a wide range of other projects.

5. The fifth part of the document provides a conclusion and a summary of the key points. It reiterates the importance of the study and the need for further research. The study concludes that the methods used are effective and reliable.

6. The sixth part of the document includes a list of references and a bibliography. It cites the various sources used in the study, including books, articles, and other documents. The references provide a comprehensive overview of the research in this field.

7. The seventh part of the document includes a list of appendices and a bibliography. It provides additional information and data that support the findings of the study. The appendices include detailed tables and graphs that are not included in the main text.

8. The eighth part of the document includes a list of appendices and a bibliography. It provides additional information and data that support the findings of the study. The appendices include detailed tables and graphs that are not included in the main text.

9. The ninth part of the document includes a list of appendices and a bibliography. It provides additional information and data that support the findings of the study. The appendices include detailed tables and graphs that are not included in the main text.

1. The first part of the report is a general statement of the purpose and scope of the study.
It is followed by a brief review of the literature on the subject.

2. The second part of the report is a detailed description of the methods used in the study.
This includes a description of the subjects, the experimental design, and the procedures used to collect and analyze the data.

3. The third part of the report is a discussion of the results of the study. This includes a summary of the findings and a comparison of the results with those of previous studies.

4. The fourth part of the report is a conclusion and a list of references. The conclusion summarizes the main findings of the study and suggests areas for further research. The references list the sources of information used in the study.

5. The fifth part of the report is a list of appendices. These include a list of the instruments used in the study, a list of the raw data, and a list of the calculations.

6. The sixth part of the report is a list of Age 24-3-26.

Name: GREENFIELD.

Location: VILLAGE OF GREENFIELD, MADISON TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Here is buried William Bell, Revolutionary Soldier, and the first adult person to be buried in the Old Burying Ground on Front and Jefferson Streets, in 1801. His remains were removed by his descendants and reinterred here. To him is given the distinction of being the first person to be buried in Highland County from monument inscriptions.

Here is buried John H. Lafferty who lived to the age of 103 years, 5 months and 9 days. In The Press Gazette, dated Friday, Dec. 22, 1939, is an article about him which states that he was a veteran of the Civil War and served in exciting battles with the Indians in the West. "He was with Lieut. Casper Collins, when Lieut. Collins was massacred by the Indians at Caspar, Wyoming, in the 60's. Lafferty was the only soldier who escaped the massacre....He fought at Gettysburg and marched with Sherman from Atlanta to the sea."

Here is buried George C. Braxton who claimed to be 115 years old. In the Greenfield Daily News dated Tuesday, June 23, 1942, there is an article entitled "George C. Braxton, Born a Slave in Old Virginia, Dies at Estimated Age of 115." The article continues, "George C. Braxton, colored, formerly of Greenfield, died in Columbus, Monday, at the estimated age of 115 years. When Braxton was questioned by a census enumerator in Columbus in 1940, he could offer no certified proof that he was 113 years of age, but based his claim on memory of a notched stick. Born a slave on a Virginia plantation, he recalled that from year to year his birthdays were carved on a 'birthday stick' carried by his master. He remembered that when he came home from Civil War (in a year he could not remember) his master told him there were 42 notches on the stick....He said he was the first negro married in Ohio." He was the father of seventeen children. Since Mr. Braxton's age is so indefinite the compilers of this book believe that the oldest person to be buried in Highland County from monument inscriptions is Jared Ervin, buried in Hillsboro Cemetery, Hillsboro.

Here is buried Margaret Rider who lived to be 101 years, 5 months, 21 days. The News Herald dated November 25, 1943, states in her death notice that it is believed that she was the last survivor of the famous Woman's Temperance Crusade of 1873 in Hillsboro. Born in Pennsylvania she lived in Greenfield most of her life. In the News Herald dated May 20, 1943 is a picture of Mrs. Rider and an article on the celebration of her 101st. birthday anniversary, May 24. She was of Irish ancestry and a member of the M. E. Church for 86 years.

This cemetery was created when the Old Burial Ground became inadequate for burial purposes due to the rapid expansion and growth of Greenfield. On September 7, 1868 in Deed Book 41, page 98, Highland County Deed Records, John and Sarah Anderson conveyed to Incorporated Village of Greenfield "for the purpose of a cemetery forever" Out Lot No. 13 and 2 acres, 109 poles of land. On October 21, 1869 in Deed Book 47, page 162, Isaac B. Claypool and Mary E. Claypool, his wife, conveyed to the Village 4 acres, and on November 24, 1870 in Deed Book 47, page 161, John Smith, Robinson Smith and Isabella O. Smith, his wife, conveyed to the Village Out Lot No. 12 and 3 acres, 15 poles.

Historians say that Mark Dwyer was the first person buried here. A Memorial Chapel was built by the main entrance in 1896. There is a fine monument in this cemetery "Erected by James H. Freshour of Co. I., 81st Reg. O.V.V.I. To the Memory of the Union Soldiers of Greenfield and Vicinity of the War of The Rebellion, 1861 - 1865." In the Greenfield Daily Times dated Thursday, Jan. 27, 1949 is an interesting article concerning the dedication of this Soldiers' Monument, Wednesday, Oct. 23, 1907.

This cemetery is the only cemetery in Highland County that has a private Mausoleum. It was built by the Wright family. There is also a public Mausoleum, built in 1917.

Name: ROCKY SPRING.

Location: MADISON TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Here was built one of the first Presbyterian Churches in Highland County. This church building was perhaps second only to the Presbyterian Church of Clear Creek in Liberty Township. Refer to Presbyterian Cemetery, Village of Hillsboro.

When the Rocky Spring Church was organized it was named by John Wilson in memory of Rocky Spring in Pennsylvania. Historians say that probably the first gospel sermon ever preached in Madison Township was delivered here. The church was partially destroyed by a storm on Mar. 18, 1876, and today no evidence of where it stood can be found.

Rev. Nicholas Pittinger, who is buried here, was the first settled preacher of the church. The first burial was a son of Thomas Rogers. His monument could not be found. Soldiers of the Revolutionary War and War of 1812 are buried here. This cemetery is rapidly deteriorating and many of the monuments are cracked, chipped, broken, and buried.

It is interesting to note that in Dr. R. C. Galbraith's "History of Chillicothe Presbytery" (1889), page 114 reads: "Mr. Samuel Strain, one of the good men, who were elders in the Rocky Spring Church, was married four times and was the father of twenty-two children."

Genealogists should refer to a copy of the Rocky Spring Session Book in the Ohio State Library, Columbus, Ohio. This is a very informative and amusing book.

There are a few stones with only initials on them. They are: T.G.; M.J.; and W.J. The last two are identical stones. All stones copied.

Name: POPE.

Location: MADISON TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Henry Pope, Revolutionary soldier, is buried here. Years ago this cemetery was also known as the Santee Cemetery. In Highland County Recorder's Office, in Deed Book 140, page 184, is an interesting summary of the title to the farm on which this cemetery is situated. This deed reads, in part: "Conveyed to Henry Pope by Ann Reddick through her Attorney William Creighton by deed dated Nov. 23, 1812 in a 400 acre tract of land, which said tract of land was equally divided by deed between Wm. Pope, Rebecca Pope, Andrew Pope, Mary Pope, Abraham Pope and Margaret Pope, on the 31st day of October 1828, heirs at law of said Henry Pope, deceased. This tract was willed by William Pope, Deed., to Nancy and Juli(e) Ann Pope in Record of Wills Vol. 3, page 71 in the Probate Court of Highland County, O., and is the same premises that passed by descent from James Santee and Nancy Santee, his wife to Milton Santee and Mary E. Santee (now Holmes)."

This cemetery, abandoned for years, is enclosed by a wire fence. A few of the monuments were completely buried and were dug up to obtain inscriptions. A few field stones for monuments. All stones copied.

Remarks: This cemetery is situated on a farm owned by Allen Caldwell before 1871. Like so many cemeteries in Highland County this cemetery is named for a previous owner of the farm on which it is situated. Years ago the Buttermilk School House stood several hundred yards up the highway from this cemetery. Some of the older residents of the county refer to this cemetery as the Buttermilk Cemetery.

A fine wire fence surrounds this cemetery and was placed there about twenty years ago by Alva O. Barrett, who is buried in Hardin's Creek Cemetery, Fairfield Township, and by members of the McKinney family living in Iowa. This cemetery is now abandoned and many of the stones are down and broken.

A few field stones for monuments and a few monuments of marble without inscriptions. All stones copied.

Name: GUSTIN.

Location: MADISON TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This small cemetery is enclosed by a wire fence and is situated very close to the Highland and Fayette County line. The name of this cemetery is known to-day as the Sheep Pen Cemetery. This name is very unusual and residents of the vicinity say that the name was acquired because sheep were often placed there to graze.

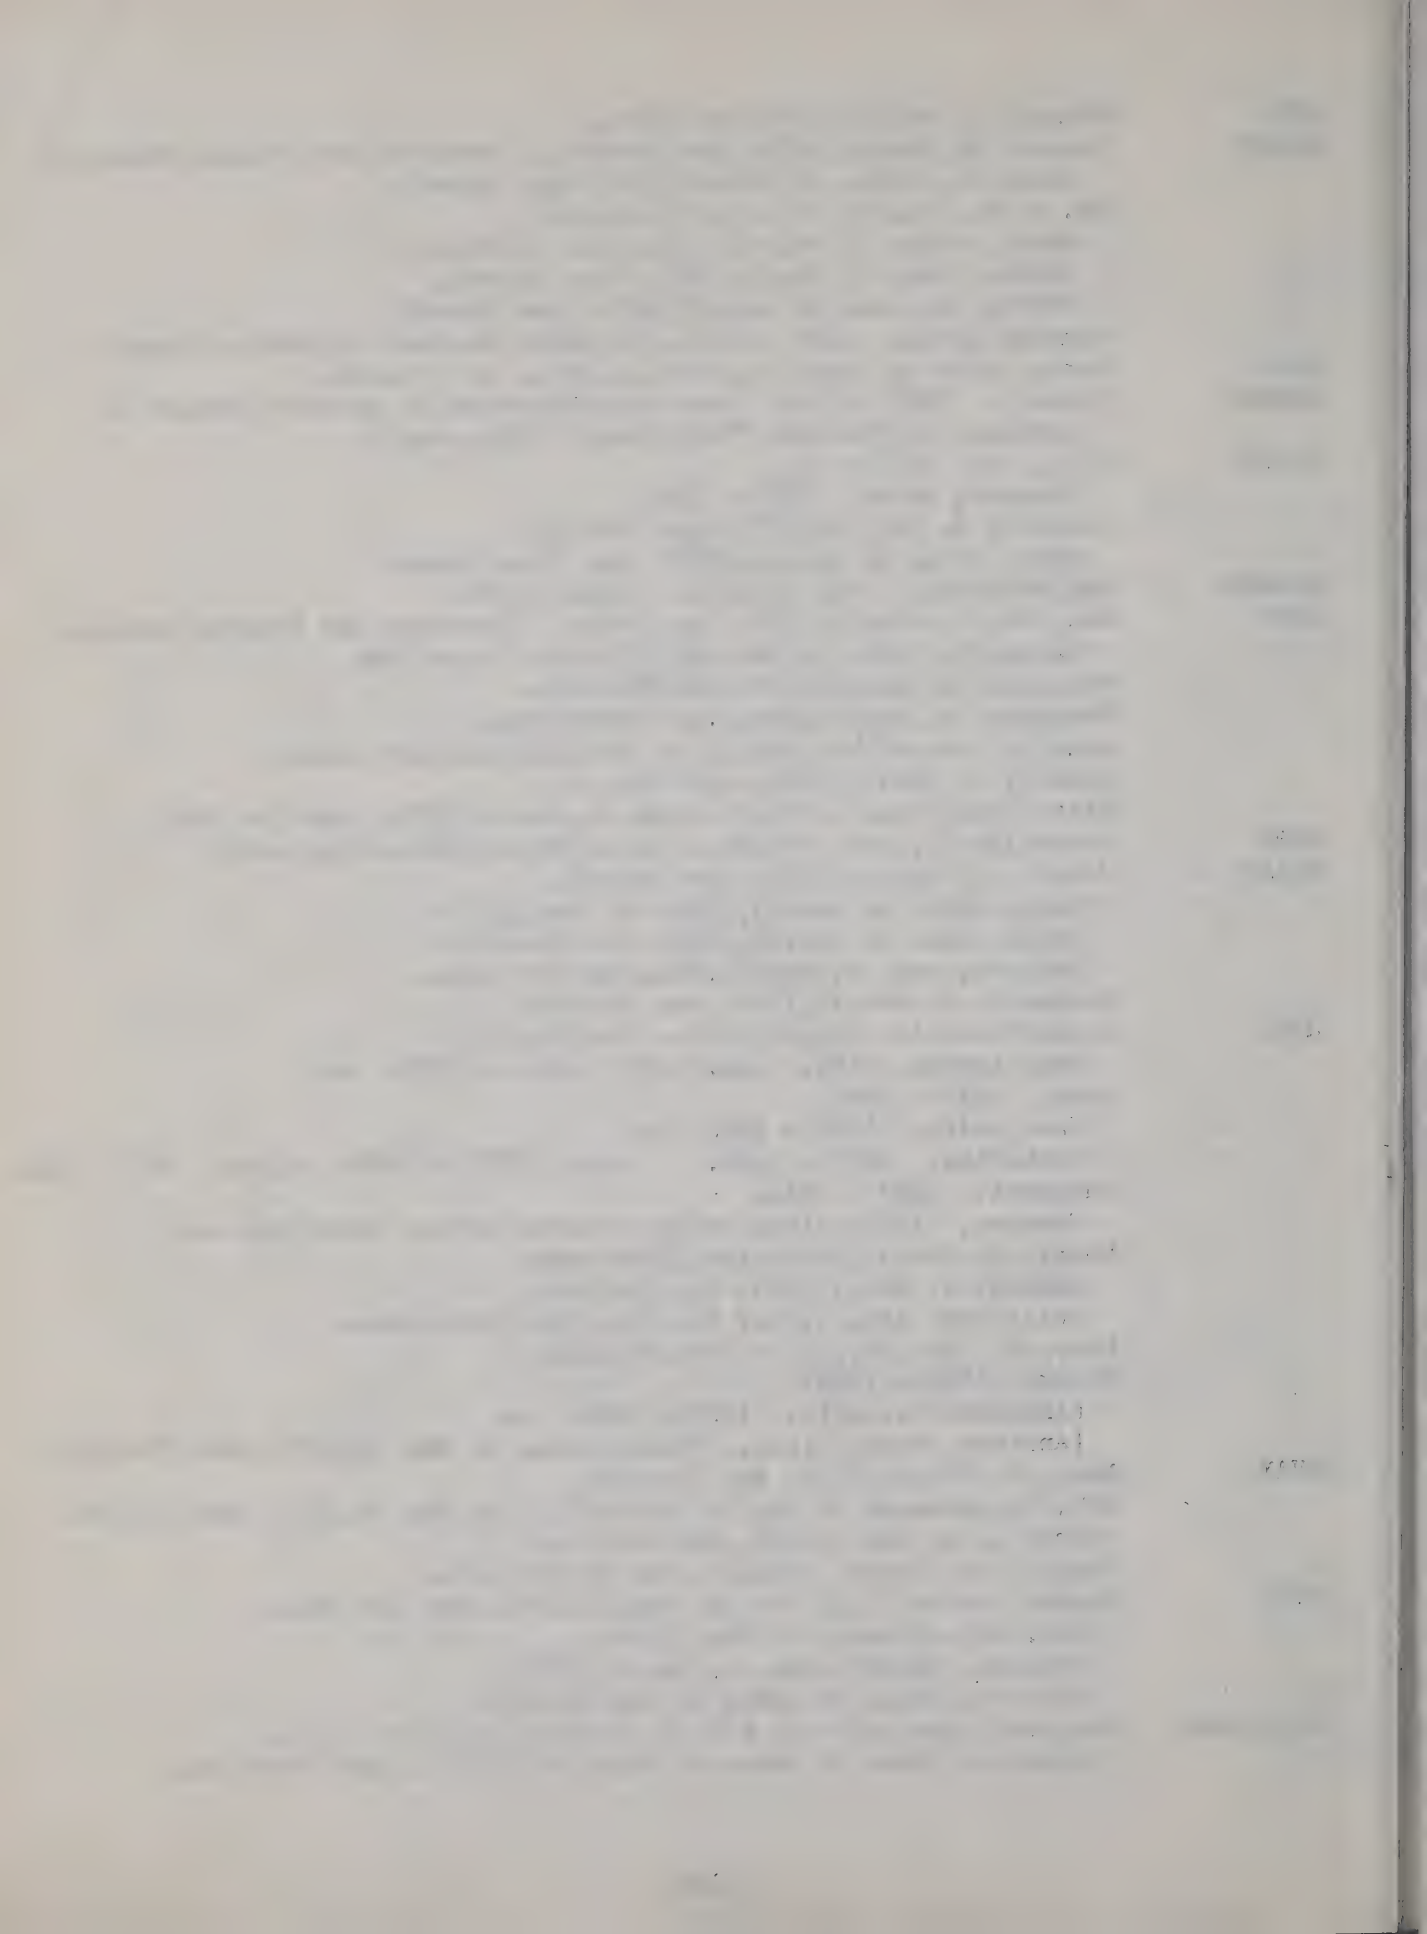

On October 24, 1828 in Old Deed Book 2, page 458, Highland County Deed Records, William Gustin and Hannah, his wife, deeded to William Collins, Henry Limes of the County of Fayette and William Pierson, Thomas G. Collins of the County of Highland, Trustees, one and one-eighth acre situated in Madison Township, Highland County, Ohio. The deed reads, in part: "That they shall erect and build or cause to be erected and built thereon a house or place of worship for the use of the members of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States of America." On December 20, 1900 in Deed Book 94, page 210, Wm. J. Barr, A.G. Cockerill, M.H. Clark, F.W. Coyner and Fred Snarrenberger, Trustees by authority of Quarterly Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church conveyed this land to the Trustees of Madison Township, Highland County, and the Trustees of Perry Township, Fayette County. The deed reads, in part: "Said premises being commonly known as the Gustin or Sheep Pen Grave Yard, and being now used exclusively for burial grounds." This deed refers to the deed from William and Hannah Gustin to the Church Trustees as originally recorded in Deed Book R, page 123. Old Deed Book 2, page 458 is the transcribed record from the original deed listed by alphabetical number.

Today this cemetery is erroneously called Limes Cemetery.

This cemetery still used for burials. All stones copied.

Name: CAROTHERS.

Location: MADISON TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Here was buried Moses Carothers, the pioneer editor and publisher of Highland County. He came to Hillsboro in the year 1817 from Martinsburg, Va., (now West Va.). On June 18, 1818, in his office on Short Street, he published the first issue of the "Hillsborough Gazette and Highland Advertiser". This was the first newspaper in the county and was printed on a press called the Ramage. The first issue was on coarse paper, eighteen by twenty-one inches, in long primer type. On May 21, 1827 he sold his paper and retired to the farm on which this cemetery was situated. He served in the Ohio Senate from 1829-1832. While in Hillsboro he married, on December 18, 1823, "Elen" Carson, whose mother's maiden name was undoubtedly Doddridge (Doddridge). When Moses Carothers died he was buried on his farm in the family cemetery southwest of the old home place. His wife was buried here in 1877.

The Hillsboro Gazette, dated May 11, 1888, states under the news item "East Monroe", that Mary Carothers, aged 64 years, died Tuesday, May 3rd, at the residence of her brother John Carothers, 2 miles east of town. Her remains were interred in the family cemetery just a short distance from the house.

Sometime after her burial the bodies interred here, approximately seven in number, were taken up and re-interred in the Walnut Creek Cemetery, Fayette County, Ohio. This cemetery lies a short distance north of Madison Township, Highland County.

The older Carothers monuments and the Carson monument in the Walnut Creek Cemetery read:

CAROTHERS Moses. d. Dec. 1, 1843. Age 51st yr.
Eleanor, wife. d. Oct. 2, 1877. Age 80th yr.

Name: TYLER.

Location: MADISON TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This cemetery is abandoned and like so many of its kind livestock are allowed to trample over the graves. All monuments are down and broken.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and the role of the accounting department in ensuring the integrity of the financial data.

2. It then goes on to describe the various methods used to collect and analyze financial information, including the use of spreadsheets and specialized software.

3. The document also outlines the procedures for reconciling accounts and identifying any discrepancies or errors that may arise during the process.

4. Finally, it provides a detailed overview of the reporting requirements for the company, including the preparation of monthly, quarterly, and annual financial statements.

5. The document concludes by emphasizing the need for ongoing communication and collaboration between the accounting department and other key stakeholders in the organization.

On July 14, 1863 in Deed Book 31, page 319, Highland County Deed Records, Wm. N. Tyler and Mary, his wife, conveyed their interest in the farm of 50 acres on which this cemetery is situated to Thomas Tyler. On Dec. 25, 1862 in the same deed volume John C. Tyler and Harriet N., his wife, conveyed their interest to Thomas Tyler. In Deed Book 35, page 83 Albert Y. Yager and Siniah G., his wife, of Jasper Co., Iowa conveyed their interest to Thomas Tyler. Refer to remarks under Tyler Cemetery, Fairfield Township for further information. All stones copied.

Name: MOORE.

Location: MARSHALL TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This is the first cemetery in Marshall Township. Peter Moor (the name Moor spelled this way in the original deed) bought the land on which this cemetery is situated July 18, 1806. Upon his death his Administrators, Joseph Moor and John Cooper, sold the land to Jesse Miller Oct. 11, 1834. On February 7, 1852 in Deed Book 24, page 527, Highland County Deed Records, Jesse Miller conveyed thirty six, more or less, square poles, to "Adam Redkey, William Elliott and Nat. M. Deleplane and their successors forever all the following tract of land (situated in Marshall Township, County and State aforesaid and known as Moore's Graveyard)" On June 8, 1875 in Deed Book 49, page 335, the Trustees, except William Elliott who was dead, deeded this cemetery to the Trustees of Marshall Township. The deed reads, in part: "Known and designated as Moore's Graveyard, having been used and occupied as a public burial ground without interruption ever since the earliest settlement of this district of county being for a period of at least fifty years."

Many monuments, buried completely in the ground, were dug up to obtain inscriptions. Many field stones for monuments. All stones copied.

Name: PRESBYTERIAN.

Location: MARSHALL TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Here is buried C.G. Dick, son of Thomas Dick, who was the first white child born in the present Township of Marshall. Refer to Dick Family Bible records under Dick Cemetery, this township.

On September 9, 1848 in Deed Book 15, page 289, Highland County Deed Records, Campbell G. Dick and Sarah, his wife, conveyed 48 poles of land to Abraham Graybill, Aquilla Smith and Sanford Williams "who were chosen to act as trustees of the Presbyterian Meeting House at the Town of Marshall.....for the use of the Presbyterian Church for a grave yard." On March 14, 1892 in Deed Book 77, page 59, Thomas H. Dick and Ella M., his wife, to enlarge this cemetery, conveyed to the trustees "Said addition being 46 feet of land on the East side (of the original cemetery) and running the full width of the present grave yard." It is interesting to note that the Dick family, together with the Templin family and others, were the first founders of the Presbyterian Church in Marshall.

On April 24, 1847 in Deed Book 14, page 192, Campbell G. Dick and Sarah, his wife, conveyed to the above trustees in the September 9, 1848 conveyance, the "following described lot or parcel of land together with the meeting house thereon" being one-fourth of an acre in the Town of Marshall. The original church was a small frame building erected in 1836 on this lot. The church was never on the cemetery lot but was situated closer to the center of the village. This cemetery is still used for burials.

For a very interesting account of the life of Thomas Dick and Jane, his first wife, and their encounter, capture and escape from the Indians, read Daniel Scott's "A History of the Early Settlement of Highland County, Ohio" pages 72 to 75 inclusive.

By the courtesy of Mr. Pearl C. Dick, great-grandson of Thomas Dick, residing just outside Marshall, Ohio, we are able to give the names of the people buried here in this cemetery. They are: Thomas Dick, Elizabeth Dick, John Dick, Macy Storer Dick, Quinton Lucas, Anna Lucas and child of a family by the name of Blazer.

Mr. Pearl C. Dick has also let us copy the family records in the original Bible of Thomas Dick, the original Bible of Campbell Graham Dick, his grandfather, and the original Bible of A. A. Pattin, his maternal grandfather. The entries in the Thomas Dick Bible, with the exception of the several entries toward the last in "Deaths", are entirely in his own handwriting.

The Thomas Dick Bible is dated 1809 and published by Johnson and Warner, printed by M. Carey. The entries read:

The first part of the report deals with the general situation of the country and the progress of the work of the Commission. It is followed by a detailed account of the work of the Commission in the various fields of its activity. The report then concludes with a summary of the work of the Commission and a statement of the Commission's views on the future of the country.

The Commission has been very busy since its formation. It has held many meetings and has received many suggestions from the people of the country. It has also been very active in the various fields of its activity. It has been working on the improvement of the education system, the development of the economy, and the improvement of the social services. It has also been working on the improvement of the legal system and the development of the infrastructure.

The Commission has been very successful in its work. It has been able to identify the main problems of the country and to propose effective solutions. It has also been able to implement many of its proposals. The Commission is confident that it will be able to continue its work successfully in the future.

The Commission is grateful to the people of the country for their support and cooperation. It is also grateful to the international community for its assistance. The Commission is confident that it will be able to continue its work successfully in the future.

 Ellen Martha Dick died July 20th 1936 aged 82 yrs 9 m 25 days."

For an article on the Dick family refer to The Hillsboro Dispatch dated Saturday, April 21, 1900. This article concerns the 100 birthday of Mary A. Lucas, daughter of Thomas Dick. Also her picture appears in The Hillsboro Dispatch of May 12, 1900 and her death notice in The Hillsboro Dispatch of Saturday, July 27, 1901.

Genealogists should refer to The News Herald dated Thursday, May 17, 1900. A long article entitled "The Century Mark" not only deals with Mary A. Lucas but gives a history of the Dick family. It should be noted that some of the dates in this article do not correspond to the Bible record.

Refer to Methodist Cemetery, Paint Township, for the grave of Mary A. Lucas, and see remarks.

Name: PISGAH.

Location: MARSHALL TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Historians of the county state the first church built here was a log meeting house and was replaced by the present structure in 1865. The M.E. Church standing in front of this cemetery has a name plate above the door reading "M.E. Church 1858".

On November 16, 1861 in Deed Book 30, page 135, Highland County Deed Records, William Frump and Julia A., his wife, conveyed three-fourths of an acre to Aaron Miller, Joseph Frump, William Frump, Daniel Cummings, Thomas Cumings, John B. Mattox, Russel Wolfe and John N. Glaze trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

The name "Hiser" was formerly "Turkeyhiser". Attention is directed to the letter "T" which is in the names given under Hiser.

Name: PLEASANT VIEW.

Location: MARSHALL TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This cemetery includes the old Bacon grave yard which was originally on the farm of William and Eleanor Bacon before 1852.

On September 29, 1854 in Deed Book 22, page 353, Highland County Deed Records, Henry Karnes and Charity, his wife, Henry Frush and Polly, his wife, conveyed 54 poles to Sampson Renoe, Henry Frush and John Siders "committee appointed for the purpose of managing and taken care of a certain grave yard hereinafter described...to have and to hold the said premises for the use of a grave yard or burying ground for the public." On August 6, 1895 in Deed Book 83, page 316, Noble Satterfield and Priscilla, his wife, conveyed to T.W. Hammond as trustee for the Christian Union Church an additional 40 poles, more or less.

This cemetery extends over into Jackson Township. The Christian Union Church stands on the south side of the cemetery. This was at one time also known as the Dudley Cemetery. All stones copied.

Name: METHODIST.

Location: VILLAGE OF MARSHALL, MARSHALL TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Here is the grave of Samuel Chestnut who lived to the age of 100 years, 8 months, and 7 days. His obituary in The News Herald, dated Thursday, Feb. 4, 1943, states that he was born near Piketon, Ohio, May 26, 1842 and died Feb. 3, 1943. He served in Co. B. 175th O.V.I. during the Civil War. Here is the grave of Bigger Head, pioneer and first Justice of the Peace for Brushcreek Township of which Marshall Township was then a part. On June 30, 1848 in Deed Book 17, page 181, Highland County Deed Records, Thomas Millburn and Sarah, his wife, conveyed one acre to Jesse Miller, N. N. Delaplane, Adam Redkey, John Redkey, Wm. M. Head, Caleb Bundy, Wm. F. Scott and John L. Hughes, trustees of the M.E. Church at Marshall. On July 19, 1849 in Deed Book 17, page 180, the same grantors deeded to the same grantees 76 poles of land. The M.E. Church, built in 1889, stands across the road from the cemetery.

 (On ss with Ruth S. Spruance.)

1. The first part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the success of any business or organization. The author argues that without accurate records, it is impossible to make informed decisions or to identify areas for improvement.

2. The second part of the paper focuses on the challenges of record-keeping in a digital age. It discusses how the rapid pace of technological change has created new opportunities for fraud and data manipulation. The author suggests that organizations must invest in robust security measures and training to protect their data from these threats.

3. The third part of the paper explores the role of record-keeping in legal and regulatory compliance. It notes that many industries are subject to strict regulations that require the maintenance of detailed records. The author argues that organizations that fail to comply with these requirements risk severe penalties and reputational damage.

4. The fourth part of the paper discusses the importance of record-keeping in financial management. It explains that accurate records are necessary for the preparation of financial statements and for the identification of trends and patterns in spending and revenue. The author suggests that organizations should use record-keeping as a tool for financial planning and budgeting.

5. The fifth part of the paper discusses the importance of record-keeping in human resources management. It notes that organizations need to maintain accurate records of employee performance, attendance, and other HR-related data. The author argues that these records are essential for making fair and effective decisions about employee compensation, promotion, and termination.

6. The sixth part of the paper discusses the importance of record-keeping in research and development. It explains that organizations need to maintain detailed records of their research activities to ensure the reproducibility and validity of their findings. The author suggests that organizations should use record-keeping as a tool for managing their research projects and for sharing their results with the scientific community.

7. The seventh part of the paper discusses the importance of record-keeping in marketing and sales. It notes that organizations need to maintain accurate records of their marketing campaigns and sales performance to identify effective strategies and to optimize their marketing efforts. The author suggests that organizations should use record-keeping as a tool for analyzing their marketing data and for making data-driven decisions.

8. The eighth part of the paper discusses the importance of record-keeping in customer service. It explains that organizations need to maintain accurate records of customer interactions to provide consistent and high-quality service. The author suggests that organizations should use record-keeping as a tool for tracking customer feedback and for identifying areas for improvement in their customer service process.

9. The ninth part of the paper discusses the importance of record-keeping in project management. It notes that organizations need to maintain accurate records of their project activities to ensure that projects are completed on time and within budget. The author suggests that organizations should use record-keeping as a tool for managing their project resources and for tracking their progress.

10. The tenth part of the paper discusses the importance of record-keeping in general management. It explains that organizations need to maintain accurate records of all their activities to ensure that they are operating efficiently and effectively. The author suggests that organizations should use record-keeping as a tool for managing their overall operations and for making strategic decisions.

 WOLFE C.R. Mar.11,1867 - Feb.14,1898. "Married to Anna L. Watts, Mar.6,1895"

Name: MT. TABERNACLE.

Location: MARSHALL TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Very little is known about this cemetery. Many years ago there was a Methodist hewed log church here known as the Tabernacle and called the "Tab".

On Sept. 10, 1845 in Deed Book 12, page 534, Highland County Deed Records, Thomas Webster and Elizabeth, his wife, deeded 100 acres to Noah Wright "with the exception of one-fourth acre for a school house and one half acre for a meeting house & berring ground." Thomas Webster had purchased this land from Wm. Murpin and Polly, his wife, on Mar. 15, 1833 and no mention in the deed was made of a cemetery.

On Feb. 8, 1867 in Deed Book 37, page 42, Maria Spargur, Anthony W. Spargur and Lucinda, his wife, Nelson W. Spargur and Catharine, his wife, Joel W. Spargur and Nancy, his wife, Albert West and Mary, his wife, Addison Gall and Sarah, his wife, John W. White and Rachel, his wife, Albert Keys and Susan M., his wife, Jane Spargur and Lucinda Spargur deeded one-half acre, being this cemetery, to the Mount "Tabinacle" Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Maria (Marya W.) Spargur, who was a Franklin, was the wife of J.W. Spargur and the other grantors were his children and their wives and husbands. This cemetery also known as Mt. Lookout. All stones copied.

Name: VANZANT.

Location: MARSHALL TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This cemetery is under a large oak tree on a farm owned by N. Van Zant before 1871. Only one monument could be found although there were several pieces of broken monuments lying about.

VANZANT Noah. d. Feb. 25, 1846. Age 33-3-7.

Name: SMITH.

Location: MARSHALL TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: There are two graves on the farm owned in 1916 by Alvin Smith. Two Smith children who died years ago are buried here. No monuments could be found.

Name: PRESBYTERIAN.

Location: VILLAGE OF NEW MARKET. NEW MARKET TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Here is buried John Emrie and Margaret, his wife, the daughter of Oliver Ross, who were the first couple to be married in Highland County. Her monument cannot be definitely established although the monument to Margaret Emrie who died Sept. 20, 1838 may be hers.

Here is buried George Barrere who was the first Senator to the Ohio Legislature from Highland County. He was also one of the first associate judges of the county.

When Henry Massie laid off New Market in Feb., 1799 the plat record shows lots Nos. 222 and 232 "are given for a church and burying ground." Lots Nos. 212 and 213 were deeded to the township trustees on July 3rd and 4th, 1873 "for the purpose of a public burying ground to be kept for that purpose." Other conveyances have enlarged this cemetery.

It is interesting to note that in The News Herald, dated Wednesday, Jan. 16, 1886, is an article giving the names of the soldiers, War of 1812, who are buried here. They are named as - Capt. G.W. Barrere, Jos. Malcom, Solomon Ludwick, Robert Hunter, Robert Nesbit, Thos. Hunter, George Robison, Wm. Robison, Jas. Morrow, John Eakins and Benjamin Eakins.

Historians state the first two persons buried here were Adam Medsker and Robert Branson in the summer and fall of 1801. Their monuments could not be found. This cemetery is still used for burials.

Name: BAPTIST.

Location: VILLAGE OF NEW MARKET. NEW MARKET TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: The New Market Baptist Church was originally known as Little Rocky Fork Baptist Church. It was organized June 9, 1838 and the first church was built in 1839. The stone marker on the present brick church standing in front of this cemetery reads: "New Market Baptist Church. Erected A.D. 1875-6. Centennial Offering"

It is interesting to note that in The News Herald, dated Wednesday, Jan. 16, 1886, is an article giving the names of the Soldiers, War of 1812, who are buried here. They are named as - Lieu. O. Harris, Jerry Archer, John Jarvis, Jacob Barnes and Thomas Groves.

Name: OLD DUTCH.

Location: NEW MARKET TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: On August 18, 1821, by indenture, in Old Deed Book B, page 89, Highland County Deed Records, George Caley and Susanna, his wife, conveyed one acre and eight poles to "Andrew Shafer, Jr. and George Wilkin, trustees of the German Evangelical Lutheran and Reformed Society in the said County of Highland....for the benefit of said church to be applied for a church yard burying ground or to erect a church and for no other use whatsoever." In the same deed book, page 88, on August 28, 1821, by indenture, Philip Wilkin, Sen. and Anna, his wife, conveyed 120 poles to the same trustees for the same purpose.

Here in the year 1817 a log church was built in front of this cemetery by the German Evangelical Lutheran and Reformed Society. Most of the old members were from the Shenandoah Valley in Virginia. In 1842 the Lutherans and German Reformed members of the congregation decided to cease their joint worship in this church. The Lutherans built a church at Danville which was more accessible to the members of their faith. The German Reformed members established a church and grave yard on the Danville Pike called Mt. Zion. Refer to Mt. Zion Cemetery for further remarks.

Members of the Wilkin family state that Philip Wilkin, Senr. and Anna, his wife, are buried here. Their monuments could not be identified. Years ago field stones were engraved with the name of the deceased but the stones in this cemetery are illegible. The western or rear end of this cemetery is in Hamer Township. All stones copied.

WOOD

YEAKLE

Name: - AMBROSE.

Location: NEW MARKET TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: On June 6, 1839 in Deed Book 7, page 286, Highland County Deed Records, William Ambrose and Susannah, his wife, conveyed a plot of land to John Chapman, Henry Trop, George Ambrose, trustees of the United Brethern Church. In 1834 - 1835 William Ambrose had built a church called Ambrose Meeting House (Chapel) on the eastern part of this plot, the western part being the cemetery.

On May 12, 1859 in Deed Book 29, page 29, William Ambrose and Rachel, his wife, deeded a plot of land across the road from this cemetery and meeting house to the trustees of the United Brethern Church. In 1861 the old meeting house was abandoned and the congregation moved into their new meeting house built on the land deeded to them in 1859. Years later the church was abandoned and is now used as a dwelling house.

The cemetery is still used for burials. All stones copied.

Name: SANDERS.

Location: NEW MARKET TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Here is buried John Gossett who, in 1801, built the first grist mill in Highland County. He bought the first iron mold-board plow ever used in the county and in 1809 he became the second representative in the Ohio legislature from this county.

Here beside this cemetery stood the first Baptist Church in the township. It was built of logs and known as the Old New Market Baptist Church. This church has disappeared many years ago.

On December 25, 1823 in Deed Book 10, page 392, Highland County Deed Records, John Sanders and Ann, his wife, conveyed two acres to Reuben Shepherd, trustee of the New Market Baptist Church 2for the purpose of a meeting house and burying ground forever." On March 26, 1875 in Deed Book 64, page 311 Dennis Sanders and Nancy, his wife, conveyed 72 poles to the Trustees of New Market Township "in consideration of the Trustees of New Market Township building a good subestantial board fence around the lot herein after described for the purpose of a burying ground for the public." Many field stones for monuments. All stones copied.

The first of these is the question of the origin of the human race. It is generally admitted that the human race is descended from a common ancestor, but the question of the exact nature of this ancestor is still a matter of debate. Some authorities believe that the human race is descended from a single pair of individuals, while others believe that it is descended from a larger number of individuals. The question of the origin of the human race is one of the most important and interesting questions in anthropology, and it is one which has attracted the attention of many of the most distinguished scientists of the present day.

The second of the questions mentioned above is the question of the development of the human race. It is generally admitted that the human race has developed from a lower stage of organization, but the question of the exact nature of this lower stage is still a matter of debate. Some authorities believe that the human race is descended from a single pair of individuals, while others believe that it is descended from a larger number of individuals. The question of the development of the human race is one of the most important and interesting questions in anthropology, and it is one which has attracted the attention of many of the most distinguished scientists of the present day.

The third of the questions mentioned above is the question of the distribution of the human race. It is generally admitted that the human race is distributed throughout the world, but the question of the exact nature of this distribution is still a matter of debate. Some authorities believe that the human race is descended from a single pair of individuals, while others believe that it is descended from a larger number of individuals. Name: GIBLER.

Location: NEW MARKET TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Relatives of the Gibler family state that the first grave in this little cemetery was a child of the Doty (Dotty) family. This child died while immigrating with its family through the White Oak Creek bottom around the year 1820. This cemetery was created by Louis Gibler, Senr., and is situated on the farm he had purchased about the year 1808. It is located on a knoll and across on another knoll is the old Gibler home, well over 100 years old. One can stand at this cemetery and looking south along White Oak Creek see the Wilkin Cemetery.

Through the kindness of Miss Anna Gibler, the daughter of John and Mary Ellen Gibler, we are able to give the names of the persons buried here from an old paper prepared by the members of the Gibler family many years ago. They are: a child of a Doty family; Philip Gibler and Isabelle, his wife; Eleanor Tedrick, their daughter; Mary Boatman-"Aunt Polly"-their daughter; John Gibler, their son, and Mary Ellen, his wife and daughter of Daniel and Julia Ann Emry (see Emry Cemetery, Concord Township, for graves of Daniel and Julia Ann Emry); Jacob Stroop and Cynthian, his wife and daughter of Philip and Isabelle; Cyrus K. Coffman and Cecilla, his wife and daughter of Philip and Isabelle; Nelson Moore who married Belle Coffman, the daughter of Cyrus K. & Cecilla; Severt Moore, son of Nelson and Belle, and Severt Moore, son of Severt; Poie Coffman, daughter of Cyrus K. and Cecilla; Julia Bell Gibler and Arthur Winfred Gibler, daughter and son of John & Mary Ellen; Philip Coffman, son of Cyrus K. and Cecilla; Richard Gibler, son of Philip and Isabelle, and Maria Sonner Gibler, his wife. Also their son Philip; two children of Samuel Gibler: John, age 5yrs., and Lewis, aged 3mos.

On Aug.4,1832 in Deed Book 1, page 70, Highland County Deed Records, by indenture, John Gibler and Anne, his wife, Matthias Gibler and Easter, his wife, Lewis Gibler and Margaret, his wife, Samuel Gibler and Jane, his wife, William Gibler and Nancy, his wife, William Davidson and Sarah, his wife, being all the heirs and legal representatives of Lewis Gibler, Senr., decd. conveyed the farm on which this cemetery is situated to Phillip Gibler. This deed states that Margaret Gibler was the widow and relict of Lewis Gibler, Senr., decd., and that there was a partition suit brought in the Common Pleas Court concerning this land. On May 4, 1882 in Deed Book 60, page 372, the heirs and legal representatives of Phillip Gibler conveyed to Isabelle Sonner 10¹/₄ acres and 125 poles of land, more or less "saving and excepting 12 poles of land near the center reserved for burial purposes by Lewis Gibler, Senr., deceased about the year 1820 and still used for a cemetery or burial place." Previously, on Apr. 25, 1881, in Deed Book 59, page 8, these heirs and legal representatives deeded to the Trustees of New Market Township "on the following conditions forever" that the said trustees "shall keep in good repair and protect said lot as a Burying ground the following described lot of land....known as the Gibler Burying ground" containing 13¹/₂ poles. Nineteen people sign the two deed cited above. Genealogists should refer to the partition suit mentioned above and these two deeds for additional information.

It is a fair assumption that Lewis Gibler, Senr. and Margaret Gibler, his wife, are buried here. This cannot be established. A few field stones for monuments. All stones copied.

Name: BARKER.

Location: NEW MARKET TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: On August 31, 1837 William Ambrose and Susannah, his wife, sold 100 acres of land to Thomas Barker. This little cemetery, situated on a hill and lying north of the Ambrose Cemetery, is on this 100 acres.

On September 1, 1838 in Deed Book 7, page 33, Highland County Deed Records, Thomas Barker and Elizabeth, his wife, conveyed to James M. Trimble this land "Containing (saving and reserving to the said Barker the privilege of a burial ground on the last named line of 4 poles in length and 2 poles in breadth, the length wise to run with the line S. 71° W. & the breadth at right angles from said lines and opposite a sugartree and whiteoak near the line) said survey as aforesaid above containing 100 acres of land more or less."

On July 26, 1841 in Deed Book 9, page 62, James M. Trimble and Mary Ann, his wife, conveyed this farm to William Jarvis with the cemetery exception. This deed reads, in part: "where said Barker buried some of his family on the hill and adjoining the line of said 100 acres of land." A few field stones mark the graves today.

Refer to Barker Cemetery, Salem Township, for the graves of Thomas and Elizabeth Barker.

Name: PENCE.

Location: NEW MARKET TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This cemetery is on the farm owned years ago by Peter Pence. Residents of the vicinity state there are four childrens' graves on this farm. Two children belonging to Peter Pence and either two more children of his or cousins of his children are buried here. The graves have been plowed over for years. One monument was found in the hog shed which reads "M. A. P."

Name: CHARLES.

Location: NEW MARKET TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: While digging up a tile ditch on his farm within the last few years Howard McKenzie found a broken monument which read "William Charles". The date on the monument was hard to decipher. It appeared to be 1885.

W. A. Charles owned this farm in 1871. For the grave of W.A. Charles refer to Mt. Zion Cemetery, this township.

Name: UNKNOWN.

Location: NEW MARKET TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This cemetery is situated on a farm owned in 1887 by Rachel Chaney. The graves lie east of the farm home on a knoll and are marked by four or five field stones. Relatives of the Chaney family state their kin are buried here but their names are forgotten.

Name: FRIENDS MEETING HOUSE.

Location: PAINT TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Here was Fall Creek Monthly Meeting. This meeting was set off from Fairfield Monthly Meeting on May 11, 1811, but the Friends in this vicinity had organized and built a church by the site of this cemetery on the Spargur Mill Road in 1807-1808. The church was of hewed logs and consisted of two rooms, each forty feet square. After the Hicksite secession of 1828 the Hicksites, who were in the majority, remained here until around the year 1835 when they built a church on the Anderson State Road by the site of what is known today as the Hicksite Cemetery. They flourished a few years there and then disbanded, going to another meeting. The Orthodox branch having withdrawn built a church further up the road and in 1876 erected a new church on the Anderson State Road. Today meetings are held in this church.

On June 17, 1819 in Old Deed Book 6, page 96, Highland County Deed Records, by indenture, Bowater Sumner and Rebecca, his wife, conveyed five and three-quarter acres to Gorman Ballard and John Vanpelt, trustees appointed by the Society of Friends of Fall Creek Particular Monthly Meeting "for the benefit and use of the Society of Friends aforesaid."

Old newspapers refer to this cemetery as Friends Meeting House, Old Quaker, Orthodox, Lower Quaker, and Lower Fall Creek. For further remarks refer to Hicksite Cemetery, this township. All stones copied.

Name: HICKSITE QUAKER.

Location: PAINT TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: On April 7, 1819 in Old Deed Book 1, page 535, Highland County Deed Records, by indenture, Nathaniel Pope conveyed 6 acres to Enoch Overman. In the description of the land in this deed is the following call: "to a whiteoak north westerly corner of a lot of four acres of land laid off and sold for the benefit of Fall Creek school house and graveyard". The conveyance to the 4 acres above cannot be found. Apparently, from the following deed, Nathaniel Pope neglected to make a conveyance of this land he owned at that time. On Sept. 29, 1830 in Old Deed Book 10, page 544, by indenture, Wm. Pope, Samuel Pope, John W. Pope and Thomas W. Sanders, legal heirs and representatives of Nathaniel Pope, decd., conveyed "to Elias Overman and Wm. Newby trustees appointed by Fall Creek Meeting of the other part, Witnesseth that for and in consideration of the sum of $12. to him the said Nathaniel Pope in hand paid the said heirs and legal representatives of said Nathaniel Pope, decd., do hereby release and quit claim" the four acres referred to above.

Residents of the vicinity say the old "Lower Fall Creek Church" or "Hicksite Quaker Church", built in 1835, was situated across the road from this cemetery and is now a part of the J.D. Ross dwelling house.

Burial Record No. 1, page 4, in the County Auditor's Office, states that Allen Taylor, a farmer and a soldier of 'the War of 1812, died at New Petersburg, Mar. 13, 1886, and was buried here. His monument could not be found.

The name "Spargur" was formerly "Wolfenberger" and "Wolfspargur". Attention is directed to the letter "W" which is in most of the names given under Spargur.

Old newspapers refer to this cemetery as Overman, Fall Creek, Hicksite, Upper Fall Creek, Upper Quaker, and Stringtown. It is still used for burials. There are a few field stones for monuments.

Refer to Friends Meeting House Cemetery, this township, for further remarks.

Name: METHODIST.

Location: VILLAGE OF BOSTON, PAINT TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Here is the grave of Mary A. Lucas who lived to the age of 101 years, 2 months, and 12 days. She was the daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth Dick and was born in Chillicothe, Ohio, May 9, 1800, and died July 21, 1901. Genealogists should refer to remarks under Dick Cemetery, Marshall Township, for Bible entries and newspaper citations.

On April 9, 1842 in Deed Book 9, page 599, Highland County Deed Records, by indenture, Abraham Pennington and Mary, his wife, conveyed one acre to Richard W. Lucas, Joseph Glascock and William Glascock, Trustees of the M.E. Church. The M.E. Church, built in 1875, stands in front of this cemetery. Once known as the Dallas Cemetery, it is known today as the Boston Cemetery.

Name: JOHNSON.

Location: PAINT TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This cemetery is approximately one-fourth mile from the gravel road. A schoolhouse, now a dwelling, is in front of the lane leading to this cemetery. The older residents of the community who went to school here relate that they used to play at this cemetery during recess and that many times they would find bones and coffin handles on the ground brought up by ground hogs and foxes from the graves below. The Johnson family owned this land where the cemetery lies many years before 1850.

On March 30,1876 in Deed Book 50, page 489, Highland County Deed Records, Ephraim Small and Rachel, his wife, conveyed to J. W. Spargur, W. C. Grim and Nicholas Blazer, trustees of Paint Township, one-half acre "including one fourth acre of land reserved for a burying ground by James L. Morris in his deed to said Ephraim Small dated October 17, A.D. 1864....to be used as a burying ground."

The land has been in the Small family for many years and Austie Small Hussey owned the land in 1952. Many of the monuments are broken and a few were dug out of the ground. All stones copied.

Name: GILBOA.

Location: PAINT TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Gilboa, a Bible name, is a mountain in the holy land, 60 miles north of Jerusalem, noted for the defeat and death of Saul and Jonathan by the Philistines.

Ella Elliott of Montgomery County, Iowa on Oct. 14, 1875, Anderson McKinney and Lucinda, his wife, and Harvey Murdock and Esther, his wife, on Dec. 9, 1875 conveyed this cemetery to the trustees of Paint Township "said premises to be used for a public burying ground and for a cemetery purposes alone." See Deed Book 50, pages 266, 267 and 511, Highland County Deed Records. This cemetery still used for burials.

One stone which defies alphabetization reads: BMEROER BJANITH 1831 MCOA 20ND BAT.

Name: HULITT.

Location: PAINT TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Here is one of the most beautiful views in this section, looking down into the Paint Creek Valley at the mouth of Rocky Fork Creek and toward the Ross County hills. This cemetery is on the farm owned for many years by Richard Hulitt and his heirs and later by John Roads and his heirs. Many of the old pioneer settlers of this part of Highland County are buried here. There are a few field stones for monuments. This cemetery is still used for burials.

Name: COOPER.

Location: PAINT TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: These graves are in a field on the farm owned in 1952 by Vernon Garrett. A few field stones are on the ground.

COOPER	Jacob. d. Mar.25,1853. Age 83-7-9.
PEARCE	John R. d. Aug.20,1860. Age 53yrs.

Name: CAMPBELLITE.

Location: PAINT TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: There were four graves behind the Campbellite Church. Residents of the neighborhood state that field stones marked these graves. The graves have been plowed over and crops grown thereon. The Campbellite Church that stood north of the school house has been gone for years.

Name: SMITH.

Location: PAINT TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: There are two graves on the farm owned by Forest Smith in 1952. Residents of the vicinity say that they are the graves of two Smith children who died many years ago. No stones for markers.

Name: HIGH TOP.

Location: PENN TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Here is the grave of Nathaniel Pope, pioneer settler of Fairfield Township, who sowed the first wheat in the county in the fall of 1800. The wheat was sown on a few acres of ground where Leesburg now stands. Here is buried Shadrach Stafford. The Highland Weekly News dated Jan. 18,1866 stated that he came from North Carolina and settled in Liberty Township in 1806. "He established the first wool carding mill in the County." However, see remarks under Stroup Cemetery, Dodson Township. Here is buried John Walter, Sr., pioneer of Fairfield Township, who was born in 1727. He is the second oldest person, as to date of birth, to be buried in Highland County from monument inscriptions. Here is the site where the Clear Creek Society of Friends had their meeting house. During the Hicksite secession of 1828 the church membership split, the Hicksite Friends withdrew and built a Meeting House near Samantha, the Orthodox Friends remaining in the old Meeting House. In The Hillsboro Gazette, Friday, Oct. 4, 1907 is an interesting article entitled "Clear Creek Quakers Hold A Centennial Meeting At Samantha On September 21. Interesting Paper About The Early Days Of The Church Read By Thos. Hiatt - First Meeting House Built Of Hewed Logs."

On July 29, 1808 in Deed Book E, page 84, Highland County Deed Records, Jesse Baldwin and Jesse George deeded 2 acres to William Williams and Elisha Kenworthy, trustees appointed by Fairfield Monthly Meeting. The deed reads, in part: "to the beginning including Friends Meeting House and grave yard called Clear Creek Meeting." John Graham deeded 1 acre, 1 quarter, and 37 poles on May 9, 1818 in Deed Book N, page 627 to the same grantees "as trustees of Clear Creek Monthly Meeting of Friends."

This cemetery was first called "Clear Creek" and later "Cemetery Hill". The plat of this cemetery in the Recorder's Office, Highland County, names it "Quaker Hill". Some colored people are buried here.

Name: METHODIST.

Location: SAMANTHA, PENN TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Here is the grave of Lavina Leaverton who lived to be over 100 years of age. Her monument reads, "Lavina Leaverton, 1810 - 1911". Her death notice in The Hillsboro Dispatch, dated Friday, March 24, 1911 states that she died Wednesday morning at the home of her niece, Mrs. John Arthur, New Vienna, Ohio. "In her death, Highland County loses its oldest resident, she having celebrated her 100th birthday, Aug. 28, at the Leaverton reunion, near Leesburg." She was born in Guilford Co., North Carolina on Aug. 28, 1810 and came to this county when a young girl with her father and mother, Solomon and Lettie Thompson Leaverton. The Hillsboro Gazette, Friday, March 24, 1911 says "John Foster Leaverton being the pioneer" of the family. Her picture appears in the issue of The Hillsboro Gazette dated Friday, Sept. 3, 1909.

A Methodist church stands at the front of this cemetery and the two signs on the church read: "Samantha Methodist Church" and "M.E. Church, 1862". On June 19, 1845 in Deed Book 12, page 663, Highland County Deed Records, Alegenon S. Ridgway and Elizabeth, his wife, by indenture, conveyed one-half acre to Alexander Buntain, John S. Crumley, Thomas Leverton, Stephen Straton, Mosses Buntain, Thomas Kelly and Samuel Reese, trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church. On April 10, 1866 in Deed Book 35, page 407 John F. Leaverton and Sally Ann, his wife, by indenture, conveyed 20 poles or one-eighth of an acre to David T. Ridgway, Samuel Rees, William Holmes, William S. Hugh and Andrew J. Brouse, trustees of the M.E. Church "Being an addition to the lot on which the M.E. Church is erected....Said church being near the Village of Samantha and known as Buntain Chapel". In 1887 in Plat Book 1, page 502, Thomas W. Denney had one-fifth of an acre of his land lying next to this cemetery platted and named "Denney Cemetery". On July 22, 1901 in Deed Book 94, page 169 Thomas W. Denney conveyed "Denney Cemetery" to the M.E. Church of Samantha.

Name: AUBURN.

Location: PENN TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Here is the grave of John N. Crawford, who lived to the age of 101 years, 3 months, and 4 days. He was soldier of the Revolutionary War.

Here is the grave of Rev. James Quinn, the noted itinerate pioneer Methodist preacher. Rev. Quinn, in 1805, preached the first Methodist sermon in Highland County. He was respected and loved by the pioneer families.

The name of the church now standing in the front of this cemetery reads "Auburn M.E. Church, 1891". Years before 1891 the church was known as "Auburn Chapel".

On January 13, 1838 in Deed Book 6, page 203, Highland County Deed Records, Moses Smith and Catharine, his wife, conveyed to Isaac Quinn, Lewis Brouse, John Holmes, Joseph Goode and Isaac Woodmansee, trustees in trust, one acre of ground. The deed reads, in part: "That they shall erect and build, or cause to be erected and built thereon a house of worship for the use of the members of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States of America."

WRITE

Name: BURNETT.

Location: PENN TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: On December 26, 1827 in Old Deed Book 7, page 26, Highland County Deed Records, Edward R. Johnson and Mary Johnson, his wife, by indenture, conveyed to Charles Harris and Smith Johnson of the County of Clinton and John Shockley of the County of Highland 142 square poles situate in Highland County. The deed reads, in part: "Trustees appointed by members of a religious society of Baptist Church of Jesus Christ constituted and known by the name of Bethel in the County of Highland."

The Baptist Church that stood here disappeared so many years ago that only a few residents of the community can recall their grandparents remarking that there was ever a church connected with this small cemetery. Residents of the vicinity say that John Conway, Revolutionary soldier, who received a 2400 acre land grant in Highland County, is buried here. His monument could not be found.

The name of "J.G. Burna" on the Edward R. Johnson monument refers to James G. Birney, who declined the nomination for President in 1839 by the Abolitionists who had organized the Liberal party. In 1843 he accepted their nomination, and in the election of 1844 received sufficient votes to upset the hopes of Henry Clay and resulted in the election of James K. Polk to the Presidency.

There are a few field stones for monuments here. All stones copied.

Name: POLK.

Location: PENN TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Joshua Polk is buried here in the field lying west of the dwelling house. This farm has been in the Polk name for over 100 years, and Robert Polk owned the land in 1952. According to this descendant, Joshua Polk originally came from North Carolina where his first wife was buried, walking to Ohio to establish a land grant. Upon his death, he was buried here in the orchard on his farm. The orchard disappeared many years ago. He requested to be buried here because he wanted "to keep the damn southern niggers from stealing his apples".

After the death of his second wife Margaret, who is buried in Auburn Cemetery, the heirs through court action obtained an order to move his monument to Auburn and place it beside the grave of his wife. The monuments at Auburn Cemetery read:

"Joshua Polk. d. Dec.7,1839. Age 78-1-7."

"Margaret. d. Feb.19,1869. Age about 89yrs."

The monument was moved, but the large foundation stone on which the monument stood, measuring approximately four feet by two feet, is still in the ground where it was originally placed. By this foundation stone lies the body of Joshua Polk.

Name: LEAVERTON.

Location: PENN TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Residents of the vicinity state that John Foster Leaverton, Revolutionary soldier, is buried here. His monument could not be found.

This cemetery, enclosed by a wire fence, is on a farm owned before 1871 by T. Leaverton. Many of the monuments were covered with several inches of sod and were dug out of the ground to obtain inscriptions. Almost all of them were broken or chipped. All stones copied.

Name: OCKERMAN.

Location: PENN TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This cemetery is situated in the northeast corner of the farm owned in 1952 by Everett Penn. David Ockerman owned this farm in the 1860's. He was a pioneer settler of Highland County. Born in North Carolina Dec. 1, 1800, he came to this county in 1812 with his father who was a Dunkard preacher. On August 29, 1822 he married Margaret Kinzer, eldest daughter of John Kinzer, and they lived on this farm for 47 years. They sold the farm in the 1860's and moved to Preble County, Ohio, where David died Oct. 14, 1872. David and Margaret Ockerman had ten children, five dying in infancy. The graves are under two catalpa trees. All stones copied.

Name: UNDERWOOD.

Location: PENN TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This cemetery is situated on the rear of a one and one-fourth acre of land owned by Jas. Underwood in 1871. On Oct. 30, 1886 in Deed Book 68, page 48, Highland County Deed Records, James Underwood had recorded the following statement, which reads in part: "This is to certify to whom it may concern that I James Underwood of the County of Highland and State of Ohio do give to my daughter Allis Routh my cemetery lot south of my home bounded and described in a deed to A. T. Underwood my son in the county records." In a previous deed Jas. Underwood had conveyed to his son A. T. Underwood his farm of fifty acres on which this cemetery was situated. All stones copied.

Name: NANCE.

Location: PENN TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This cemetery is well off the main highway in a grove of trees. C. Nance owned this farm before 1871. Residents of the vicinity say that members of a Nance family are buried here. No one can remember their names. There are a few field stones for monuments.

Name: UNKNOWN.

Location: PENN TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This cemetery is situated on a farm owned by Wm. A. Polk before 1887. Residents of the vicinity state that most of the people buried here were reinterred in Mt. Auburn Cemetery, this township. No monuments could be found. The names of the people buried here could not be ascertained.

Name: SALEM TOWNSHIP.

Location: SALEM TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This cemetery was formerly named "Barker Cemetery", and the old part is still called by that name. The old part lies behind and to the left and center of the newer part. Residents of the vicinity say that all of it was known as the Barker Cemetery until the new fence was erected. Then the name was changed to Salem Township Cemetery.

On May 17, 1877 in Deed Book 52, page 207, Highland County Deed Records, F. K. Barker and Saby, his wife, conveyed 56 poles of land to Robert Balentine, J. H. Cochran and R. M. Ruble, trustees of Salem Township. On March 15, 1879 in Deed Book 54, page 317, F. K. & Saby Barker conveyed to John H. Cochran, J. C. Sanders, and Dunkin Young, trustees of Salem Township 2 acres and 82 poles (referring to the previous conveyance of 1877) "for the purpose and uses of a public burial ground or cemetery."

The Hillsboro Dispatch of Friday, August 22, 1902 has an article entitled "Faris-Gossett" which is a history of those families and the allied families of Chaney, Duvall, Purdy, Cochran, Kent and Gibling.

Name: HARWOOD.

Location: SALEM TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: The old part of this cemetery that lies behind and to the right of the new part was formerly called the Barker Cemetery. The new part that lies next to the main road was formerly called the Pulse Cemetery. Residents of the vicinity say that this was always called the Barker and Pulse Cemeteries until the new fence was erected, when it was changed to Harwood Cemetery. This cemetery is a short distance from the settlement of Pulse (Harwood), where the Harwood Methodist Chapel is situated.

On March 6, 1854 in Deed Book 23, pages 16-17, Highland County Deed Records, James Barker and Elizabeth, his wife, conveyed the "following described graveyard lot known as the Barker graveyard" to Ruben Chaplin, Joseph Custer and John Bowen, trustees of Salem Township "containing one fourth of an acre as follows ten rod long and four rod wide including the graves or surrounding the dead now buried in the above described lot to be used for no other purpose then to bury the dead".

On April 19, 1887 in Deed Book 68, page 174, F. O. Pulse and Mary Elizabeth, his wife, conveyed to W. A. Baily, J. H. Brown and E. Ruble, trustees of Salem Township, one tract of 10 poles and another tract of 1 acre and 8 poles and "also enough more land to make an entrance one pole wide from one tract to the other where they come together". Reference is made in this deed to the prior conveyance by the Barkers. Also in this deed there is a plat of this cemetery and the old Barker Cemetery. Refer to Salem Township Cemetery for newspaper citation.

Name: BARKER.

Location: SALEM TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This cemetery is situated in a field on a farm owned by Thos. Barker in 1887. A wooden fence encloses this cemetery. It is interesting to note that in The Hillsboro Dispatch, dated December 15,1893, is the death notice of William Barker. It states that he died November 29, 1893, aged 58 years. His monument reads 1895.

Refer to Barker Cemetery, New Market Township. All stones copied.

Name: SMITH.

Location: SALEM TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This cemetery is on a farm owned by N. Smith in 1871, and Kate E. Smith in 1916. Only one stone was upright. The other stones, lying on the ground or buried, were either broken, chipped, or cracked. All stones copied. The true name of this cemetery is probably Workman.

Name: RADER.

Location: SALEM TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This little cemetery is enclosed by a wooden fence and lies a few feet to the right of the barn on a farm owned in 1952 by Mora Roades. Residents of the vicinity and relatives of the Rader family state that a Mrs. Rader is buried here, and that before she died she requested to be buried here under a cherry tree which stood across the road from her old home. Her relatives could not remember her first name or the name of her husband.

Examination of the Highland County deed records shows that George Rader bought this farm September 9, 1819, and sold it in the 1850's. His wife signed the deed Mariah Rader. That she is buried here is unquestioned, but where her husband is buried is unknown. It is assumed he is buried beside his wife. Residents further state that there are three graves here. No monuments could be found. There is one field stone partly buried in the ground.

Name: UNKNOWN. Nos. 1 & 2.

Location: SALEM TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Unknown No. 1. This cemetery is situated on the old Newton Farm owned in 1952 by Theo. Shafer. Residents of the vicinity say that the graves were destroyed by plowing and crop planting. The monuments, years ago, were piled against the fence but none could be found.

Unknown No. 2. On another tract of land adjoining the tract above and owned by Theo. Shafer is another graveyard. Only one stone could be found. It was broken, the name destroyed, but the remaining portion reads: "Sept.15,18(4?)6. Aged 20yrs." Mr. Shafer stated that he was told that Andrew Colvin was buried here and that there were formerly six or seven monuments in this cemetery. A few field stones were lying on the ground.

Name: DUNN'S CHAPEL.

Location: UNION TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Here is the grave of Sarah Fox who lived to be 101 years and 17 days. She is buried next to her husband, Joel Jackson Fox, but there is no monument to her memory. The Fox family Bible has been examined and the entries to Joel Jackson and Sarah Fox are "Joel Jackson Fox. b. Sept. 8, 1834. d. Nov. 2, 1908." "Sarah Fox, his wife. b. Sept. 12, 1839. d. September 29, 1940." This Bible was printed in 1868 by The American Bible Society, New York, N. Y. It is interesting to note that here is the grave of Joel Hart who, in 1826 on what was known as the Isaac Robb farm two miles west of Dodsonville, killed the last bear ever shot in Highland Co.

Here was the Baptist Meeting House and cemetery and the earliest religious organization in the township. Daniel Scott in "A History of the Early Settlement of Highland County, Ohio" states on page 102: (James) "Marsh improved the farm where Alexander Smith now lives, near Dunn's Chapel, and donated one acre of land to the Baptist Church for the purpose of building a meeting house on. This is the same ground on which the Dunn's Chapel now stands. The Baptists erected a hewed log meeting house on it as early as 1809." Historians state that the first Baptist preacher here was George McDaniel who is buried here.

On April 7, 1837 in Deed Book 7, page 204, Highland County Deed Records, Henry G. Richardson and Martha, his wife, conveyed one acre to Peter L. Ayres, Charles Stafford, David Dunn, George Chrisman, Imrie Dunn and Henry G. Richardson, trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church "that they shall hold the premises and the meeting house thereon for a place of worship." Historians state that the first meeting house here was built in 1834 and the present church in 1849.

Name: FETTERLING.

Location: UNION TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: On the right side of the gravel road a few yards from the north line of this cemetery where the road turns sharply to the left are three or four graves of the Fetterling family. The graves of these unknown persons are on the farm owned in 1871 by Michael Fetterling. The persons buried here requested that they be buried on their own land instead of in the cemetery. There are a few field stones where these graves are supposed to be.

The Fetterling Cemetery is situated on a farm owned by the Britton family before 1866, and is sometimes referred to as Britton Cemetery. On Feb. 20, 1866 in Deed Book 34, page 482, Highland County Deed Records, in a conveyance of 116 $\frac{1}{2}$ acres this cemetery is referred to as "excepting and reserving $\frac{1}{2}$ acre including the graveyard." There are a few field stones for monuments. All stones copied.

Remarks: The sign on the church, which stands at the side of this cemetery, reads "Mt. Olive Church of Christ - 1833". Historians say that this church was organized about 1833 and the first church was built in 1845 near the present church, which was built in 1859. On April 31, 1859 in Deed Book 28, page 205, Highland County Deed Records, Jacob Jackson and Sarah, his wife, deeded this land of two acres to Wright Kinworthy, George Foreman and Jacob Jackson as trustees for the Church of Christ at Mount Olivet.

Name: CLARK.

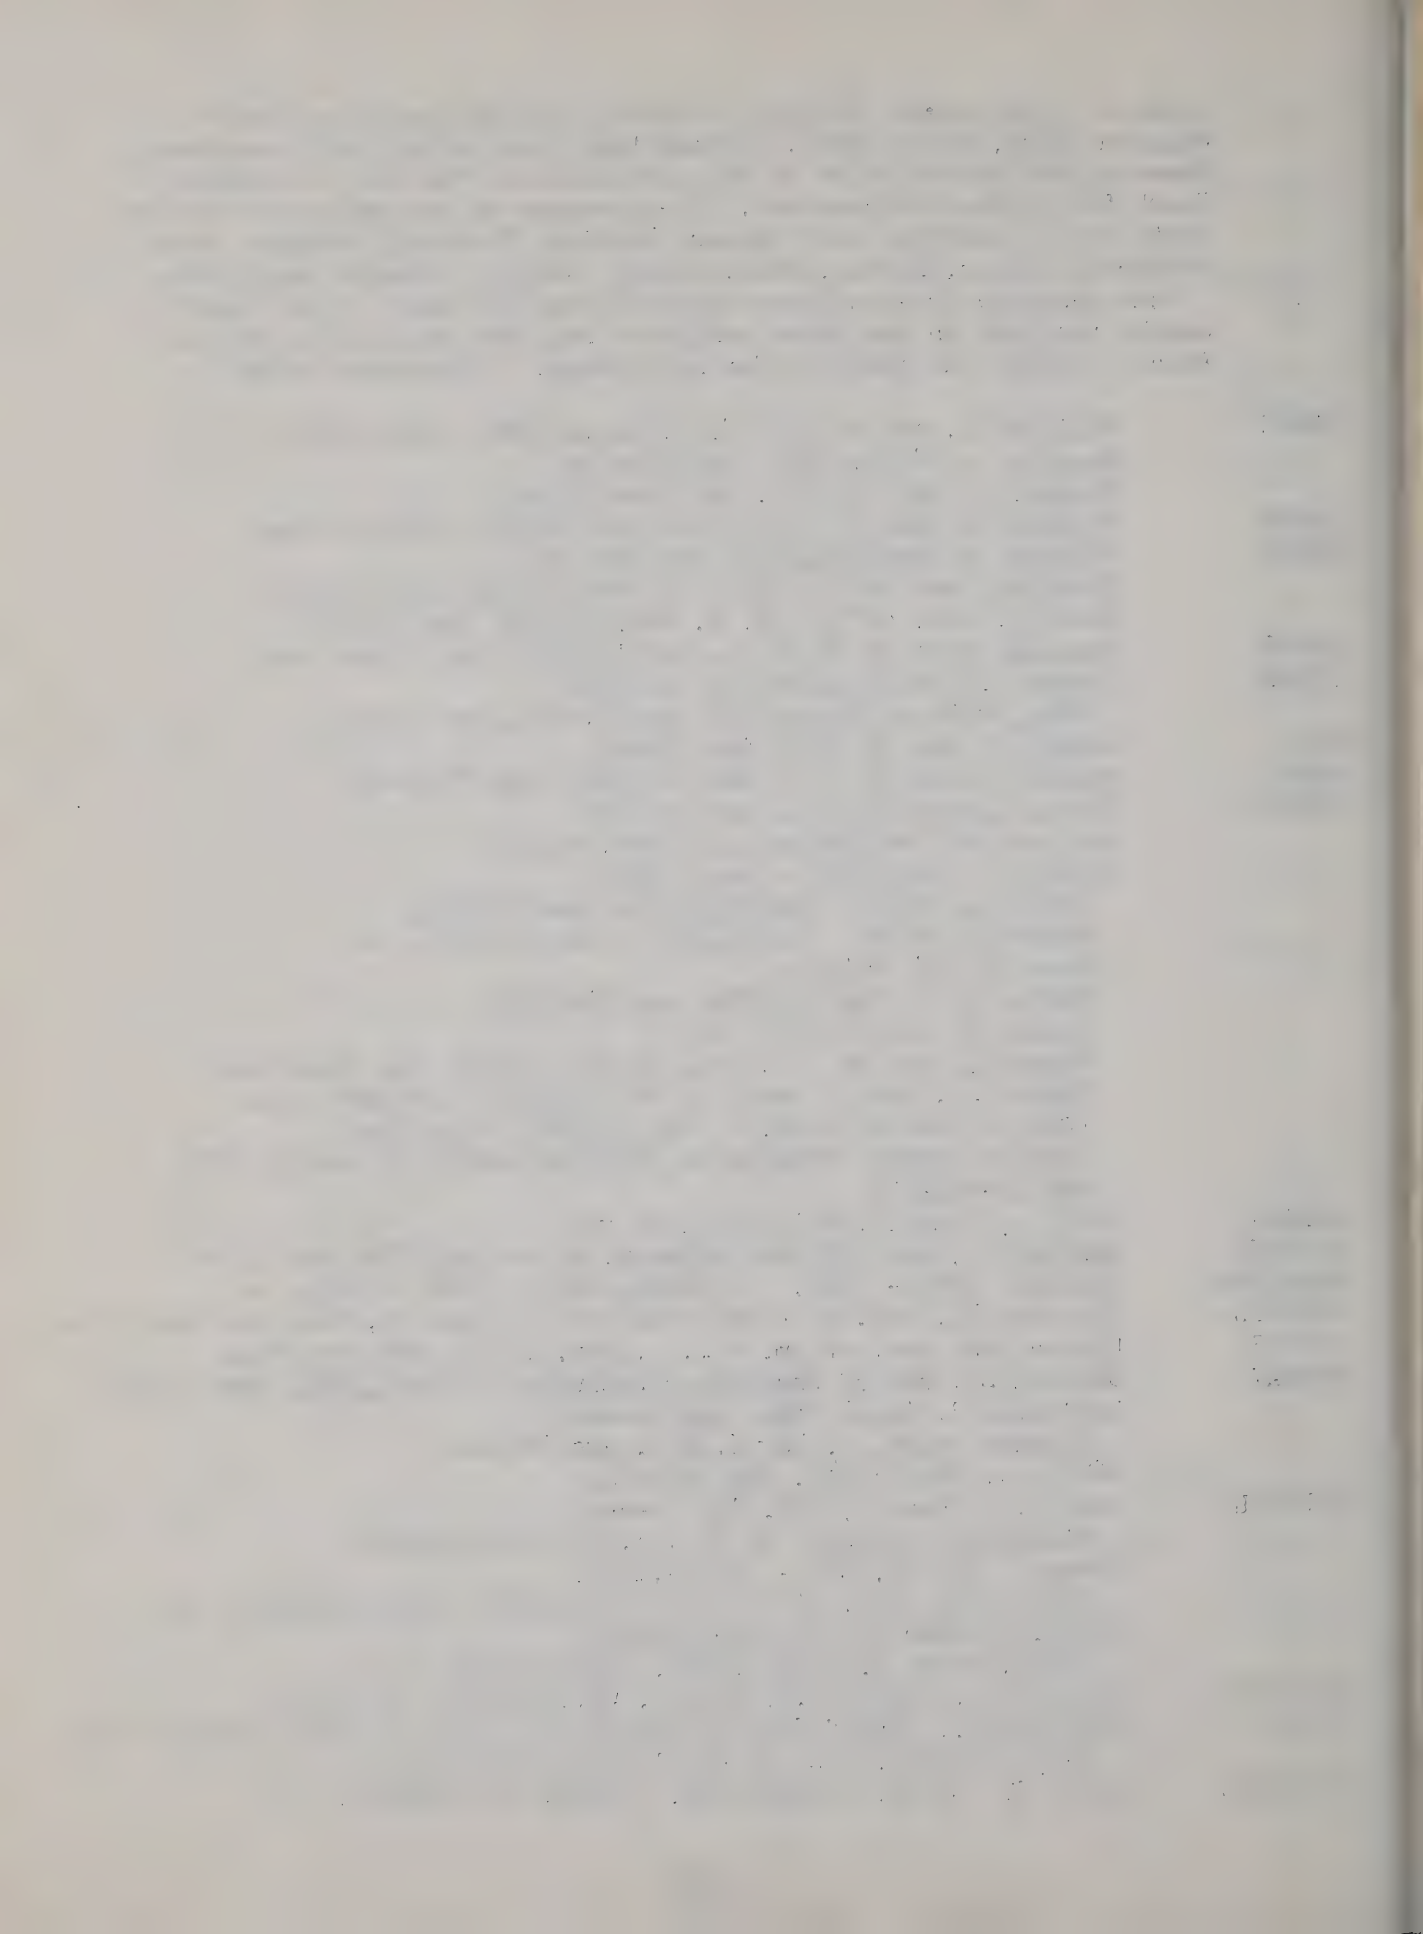

Location: UNION TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: On May 25, 1867, in the Common Pleas Court of Highland County, Case No.687, William H. Fenner, Plaintiff vs. Nancy Hopkins, et al., Defendants, brought a suit in partition to sell 60 acres of land, being "the south half of the farm of which William Clark died seized..... Excepting and reserving eighty (80) poles on the east side of the tract, ten (10) poles on the east line of the tract and eight (8) poles at right angles westerly so as to include the grave yard." William Clark, in his will, devised this land to his eight daughters. Genealogists should refer to this petition and the will of William Clark for further information. The surnames of the defendants as set forth in the petition are: Fenner, Hopkins, Shockley, Hundley, West, McKibben, Miller, Horton, Runk, Farrar, Wright, Skimmins and Hinds.

This cemetery is also known as the Burley Cemetery. John Clark bought the land in the above partition suit and sold it in 1893 to Anna M. Burley who owned it for many years. All stones copied.

Name: AYRES.

Location: UNION TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This cemetery is situated on the farm owned by Peter L. Ayres before 1852. It is situated on Horner's Hill and lies behind the old brick farm home which is rapidly falling down. The cemetery was approximately fifty feet by fifty feet with a stone wall surrounding the graves. Today the wall is gone and the cemetery almost obliterated.

In The Highland News dated April 30, 1852 is the following death notice: "Died on Wednesday evening, the 28th inst., at 7 o'clock, Mrs.
 Susannah C.L. Marlay, wife of J.K. Marlay, Esq., of this place. Funeral services at the residence in Hillsborough at 10 o'clock Friday morning.
 The interment will take place at the family burial ground of the late P.
 L. Ayres, five miles west of town. All stones copied.
 One stone with initials reads: "M.,S.E.L." Another: "Susannah's Grave"

Name: ELLIS.

Location: Union Township.

Remarks: Residents of the community state that this cemetery was created over 100 years ago when a child of the Ellis family died. At her death Turtle Creek, which flows south of the highway and north of the old Ellis home, could not be forded because of its swollen waters. Her body could not be carried across the creek to be buried in an established cemetery so she was buried on the knoll overlooking the creek. This cemetery is now abandoned. A few field stones for monuments. All stones copied.

Name: PROSPECT.

Location: WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: The Methodists of this community worshiped for years at the home of James Fitzpatrick, and later at the home of his son, Robert. (Refer to Fitzpatrick Cemetery, Liberty Township.) James Quinn and Peter Cartwright conducted the services. James Quinn helped to organize the M.E. Church at Prospect and encouraged the members to erect a meeting house there.

On April 29, 1835 in Deed Book 3, page 33, Highland County Deed Records, Jacob Weaver and Elizabeth, his wife, conveyed 1 acre to Jonas Likens, Elias Boatman, Bruden Smith, James Smith, Amos Sargent, Jacob Weaver, James Kemper, trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church. On Jan. 12, 1849, Jacob Weaver sold to Samuel Weaver 68 acres and the deed states, "Excepting one acre of land which has been conveyed away for a meeting house." On June 26, 1862 in Deed Book 31, page 258, Samuel Weaver and Doshia, his wife, conveyed 1 acre, 25 poles to Adam Miller, Samuel Weaver, Moses Calvert, Thomas Medsker, Eli Vanzant, Wm. Sergeant and James Kelley, trustees of the M.E. Church at Prospect.

This cemetery is still used for burials and the brick church, built about the year 1855 to replace the old meeting house, is still used for services.

It is interesting to note that in The Highland News of March 15, 1877 under the news item "Belfast" that "The remains of John Haigh's first wife were taken up about a week ago, where she was buried in Adams County in Oct. 1862, and removed to Prospect Cemetery in Highland, where John Haigh is buried."

Name: PARKS.

Location: WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This cemetery is a long walk from the main gravel road. A.J. Parks owned the farm on which this cemetery is situated in 1871 and an O'Cull owned the farm in 1952. There are many field stones for monuments. All stones copied.

PARKS Leban, son of John & Elizabeth. d. Sept.24,1834. Age 8-4-27.

Name: POWERS.

Location: WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: There are four children's graves on the old McCartney farm. This farm was later owned by Ida Moore. These children were the children of John & Mary Powers. John & Mary Powers are buried in Prospect Cemetery, this township. No monuments could be found here.

Name: EBENEZER.

Location: WHITE OAK TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This is the original cemetery of the French pioneers in the township, although burials were made here long before the arrival of the French Settlers. About the year 1825 an unfinished hewed log church had been erected here and services were conducted by members of the Presbyterian faith. The preacher of the congregation was the Abolitionist and Presbyterian minister, James Gilliland. He was born in North Carolina Oct. 28, 1769 and came to Ohio in 1804. He was installed in Nov., 1806. He conducted services for almost 40 years in Brown and Highland Counties and died at Red Oak, Brown County, Feb. 1, 1845. He called this log church his "Moccasin Church". Years later this church was abandoned and a school house stood on the site. Whether this church was converted into a school house or a new structure built cannot be established. However, the Baptists (French) acquired this tract of land and from this acquisition the name of the church, cemetery and school house, called "Ebenezer" originated.

On October 17, 1838 in Deed Book 7, page 137, Highland County Deed Records, Joseph Bell leased this cemetery of 1 acre and 1 pole to Wm. Kirkpatrick and George McNeely, trustees for the church, "unto the Regular Baptist Church, known by the name of Ebenezer of the county and townshipto have and to hold the same for and during the term of ninety and nine years from the twentieth of Oct. A.D. 1838, and party of the second part for itself and assigns covenants and agrees to pay to said party of the first part for the premises one dollar and to finish the school house which now stands on said lot, and that the said school house shall be for the use of the neighborhood in which it stands to be used as a school house whenever it is needed as such, except on such day as it may be needed as a house of worship by the said church."

Years later this school house was sold, and in 1952 was a part of the dwelling house of Joseph Druhota who resides several hundred yards down the road. This cemetery has been enlarged over the years and is still used for burials. All stones copied.

Name: BELL'S RUN.

Location: WHITE OAK TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: The Baptist Church (French) formerly situated here was organized by members of the first Presbyterian Church in Mowrystown call the "French Church". Mr. Grand-Girard, a member of the "French Church", introduced to the Presbytery at their meeting at South Salem, April 9-11, 1859 a Mr. Valentine Roudiez who desired to be received as a licentiate. In that same year the "French Church" presented a call for Mr. Roudiez which was accepted by him, and the Presbytery gave him a text for a trial sermon, for ordination. However, two months later, there being trouble of some kind in the "French Church" in reference to Mr. Roudiez, a meeting was held at Mowrystown December 6-7, 1859 to determine what to do with him. The question was not settled but it was later determined not to ordain or install him at the present time, and his license to preach the gospel was refused. Mr. Roudiez, infuriated, went to Detroit and was received and ordained a member of the Baptist Church. Upon his return to Mowrystown, dissatisfied members of the "French Church" and a few others organized the Baptist Church at Bell's Run. It is interesting to note that at the Presbytery held at Greenfield, Apr., 1861, it was learned that Mr. Roudiez had joined another body and his name was removed from the minutes as a licentiate.

This cemetery was originally deeded Oct. 18, 1856, Deed Book 27, page 603, Highland County Deed Records, as a one acre tract by James C. McNeely and Magdeline, his wife, to George Euverard and Peter Euverard. On January 21, 1880 in Deed Book 62, page 164 Peter Euverard conveyed this property "to Charles Chaney, Charles Euverard and Frederick Demingen, trustees of the Mowrystown Baptist Church at what is known as Bells Run in Highland County, Ohio." On April 25, 1914 in Deed Book 115, page 507 Charles & James Euverard, trustees of Mowrystown Baptist Church conveyed this one acre tract to the trustees of White Oak Township. A Baptist Church was built here in 1861 or 1862 but has long disappeared. There is one monument in French language. A school house once stood across the road from this cemetery.

On August 18, 1862 in Deed Book 30, page 576, Highland County Deed Records, James C. McNeely and Magdaline, his wife, conveyed to Sarah Laycock late Sarah McNeely, Jeremiah McNeely, Eliza Roberts late Eliza McNeely, Ruth Kay late Ruth McNeely, John McNeely, James McNeely and Joseph McNeely of the Counties of Brown, Highland and Clermont, one acre. Said deed reads, in part: "...do hereby bargain, sell and convey to the said heirs of George McNeely, Deed....being that part of James McNeely farm where the grave yard is now situated to be laid off so that each corner line will be at right angles....to be used as a family grave yard also for the public if wished....the said James C. McNeely to hold possession during his lifetime the right of way from the public road to the grave yard through said McNeely's fields or lands to be granted at all times and at any time forever to all persons or any person who may wish to bury their dead in said lot or to any person whomsoever that may have friends buried there not withstanding any crop of grain whatsoever may be in the fields between said grave yard and the public road." This cemetery is smaller than one acre and is enclosed by a wire fence. All stones copied.

Name: UNION CHAPEL.

Location: WHITE OAK TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: On March 15, 1841 in Deed Book 10, page 165, Highland County Deed Records, Jacob Coffman, John Ruble and Sarah, his wife, Moses Hicks and Mary, his wife, conveyed this property to Moses Hicks, D.M. Abraham and Henry Surber "trustees appointed by the Christian Church to build a meeting house"....the "following described land and parcel of ground for the purpose of building a meeting house thereon and to be used as church ground for the Christian Church on White Oak and Smokey Row"...and "for the use of church ground and burial ground and no other purpose whatever."
This church formerly stood in the southeast corner of the cemetery and a school house stood to the south across the road. Later the school house was abandoned and a new church built where the school house had stood. This cemetery is also known as Union Cemetery. The name on the church reads, "Union Chapel A.D. 1901." Old newspapers refer to this as Kibler Cemetery.

Name: WINKLE.

Location: WHITE OAK TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: On February 15, 1888 in Deed Book 69, page 579, Highland County Deed Records, Henry T. Fender and Lewisa Fender, his wife, conveyed 31 poles of land to George W. Winkle, Sylvester Kiers, Charles Stratton, George W. McQuitty and A.J. Osburn as Trustees of Winkle Cemetery Association. This cemetery is well off the main road in a field. The Winkle family owned the farm in 1871 on which this cemetery is located. There are a few field stones for monuments. All stones copied.

Name. ROBERTS. No.1.

Location: WHITE OAK TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: On May 3, 1884 in Deed Book 64, page 40, Highland County Deed Records, David W. Dunn and Mary M., his wife, conveyed to Isaiah Roberts, Sen., "for the use and benefit of all said Roberts relations and friends as a cemetery. The said David W. Dunn reserving and keeping for his own use and his relations and friends the privilege of the said grounds for a cemetery....one half acre more or less, and being a part of the above named Isaiah Roberts farm."

. This cemetery was originally called Dunn Cemetery. Later it was called Roberts and Dunn Cemetery, and today it is called Roberts Cemetery. A sign on the gate reads, "Donated by John Roberts". Here are buried Isaiah Roberts and his two wives, who are the progenitors of a large number of Roberts in the township and county.

Name: ROBERTS. No.2.

Location: White Oak Township.

Remarks: This cemetery is surrounded by a beautiful little wrought iron fence with a gate at the front and rear. Inside the fence the ground including the graves is completely covered by concrete.

There are four deeds to this cemetery, all dated June 5, 1882. In Deed Book 60 page 192, Highland County Deed Records, William Roberts and Amelia, his wife, conveyed "the following real estate being a burial ground" containing 3 poles to I.Q. Roberts. On page 193 is a similar deed to Aaron E. Roberts and on page 194 is a similar deed to America B. Rhoten. In Deed Book 70, page 199 William Roberts and Amelia, his wife, conveyed to James P. Roberts, Aaron E. Roberts, Ira Q. Roberts and America B. Rhoten "being a burying ground" of 12 poles of land.

Notice will be taken that the date of the death of Leah A. Roberts is not on the monument. Examination of her Death Certificate in the Highland County Board of Health shows she died August 4, 1938.

All stones copied.

Name: SURBER.

Location: WHITE OAK TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Residents of the community state that there were between thirty and forty graves here. Robert Newton owned this farm years before H. Helsley sold it to Benedick Marty sometime before 1887. Residents further state that Abe Mowry, who is buried in Mowrystown Cemetery, this township, buried his father and mother here.

This cemetery is entirely destroyed and has been plowed over for years. Only one monument was found on the side of a ravine where it had been thrown down from the cemetery above.

SURBER

Margaret, wife of Leonard. d. Apr., 1847 "In the 40 year of her age; also four children by her side"

Name: MALCOM.

Location: WHITE OAK TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: The first mention of this cemetery is to be found in Deed Book 18, page 496, Highland County Deed Records, when Sophronia Malcom, heir and devisee of Alexander Malcom, Deed., conveyed on March 5, 1851 a certain tract of land to Julia Walker "save and except 1/16 acre now occupied and reserved as a graveyard". Alexander Malcom, father of Sophronia Malcom, bought this land consisting of 150 acres on Feb. 9, 1822, Old Deed Book 8, page 344, from John Hare, Jr., Stephen Hare, William Hare and Jane, his wife, of Brown County, Ohio. Alexander Malcom's will, dated Jan. 18, 1840 and probated March 14, 1842, is on file in the Probate Court of Highland County. He devised his 150 acres

Name: BADGLEY.

Location: WHITE OAK TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This cemetery lies in a clump of trees several yards back of the grave of John Sloane, Sr. It is in the form of a small triangle. There are several field stones for monuments. All stones copied.

CRANE Angeline, dau. of J.E. & E. d. July 25,1859. Age 1-11-14.

Name: SLOANE.

Location: WHITE OAK TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Here, on the farm owned in 1952 by A.O. Gotherman, is the grave of John Sloane, Sr. The grave is located across the road from the dwelling house in a clump of trees. John Sloane, Sr., pioneer settler, came to Highland County before 1812. He requested to be buried on his farm. No other monuments or graves could be found.

SLOANE John, Sr. d. Nov.1,1835. Age 70th yr.

Name: PETITHORY.

Location: WHITE OAK TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This grave is located on a farm owned in 1952 by Lyman Kelley. There are many field stones marking graves but only one monument could be found. This cemetery was undoubtedly much larger years ago but due to neglect, plowing and crop planting many graves are obliterated.

Residents of the vicinity say William Martin was buried here but years ago his remains were reinterred in the Mowrystown Cemetery.

PETITHORY Peter. d. Feb.4,1865. Age 25-7-9. Son of Peter & Catharine.

Name: CARRIER.

Location: WHITE OAK TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This cemetery, like the Wilkin and Gibler Cemeteries, is situated by the East Fork of White Oak Creek less than a mile from the Gibler, Walker and Emry Cemeteries. It is unusual that all four cemeteries lie on adjoining land. All stones copied.

CARRIER Solomon. d. Oct.9,1840. Age 55yrs.
Elizabeth. d. Sept.5,1846. Age 60yrs.
Moses. d. Sept.11,1841. Age 14yrs.

Name: KAY.

Location: WHITE OAK TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: This grave lies quite a distance from the main road on a farm owned in 1952 by Harold Haucke. The monument was on the ground next to a fence.

KAY Isaac N., son of John & Joannah. d. Feb.5,1855. Age 12ds.

Name: SIRCOULOMB.

Location: WHITE OAK TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: On August 14, 1862 in Deed Book 30 page 382, Highland County Deed Records, Frederick (Siroulomb?, Sirculomb?, Sirconlomb?, Sirenlomb?, all these different spellings of the name appear as set forth in the deed record) and Catharine, his wife, of Brown County, Ohio, conveyed to Frederick Druhot of Highland County, Ohio, 40 acres, 1 rood, 16 poles of land "and the said Frederick Siroulomb and Catharine Sircoulomb his wife for themselves and heirs do reserve and set apart forever for burial purposes the following parcel of ground a fraction of the above described premises bounded and described as follows," containing 6 poles.

This cemetery lies behind the barn on the farm owned in 1952 by James Druhot. No monuments could be found other than a few field stones. Mr. Druhot states that members of the Sircoulomb family are buried here but their names are unknown. He also stated that he has lived on this farm for 65 years and that this cemetery was considered very old when he was a young boy.

Name: KIBLER.

Location: WHITE OAK TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Here were the graves of Isaac Kibler, George F. & Isaac Kibler, his sons, Isaac Roberts, son of James and Elizabeth Roberts, and Aunt Delena Ambrose. When Elizabeth Kibler, wife of Isaac Kibler, died she was buried in the Mowrystown Cemetery. After her death the bodies of the above persons were then re-interred in the Mowrystown Cemetery. Refer to Mowrystown Cemetery.

Name: UNKNOWN NOS. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6.

Location: WHITE OAK TOWNSHIP.

Remarks: Unknown No.1. A few graves are on the farm owned by J. Coffman before 1871. These graves are to the left of the N. & W. R.R. tracts. No monuments could be found and the names of the people buried here are unknown. A few field stones mark the graves.

Unknown No.2. This cemetery is well back from the main gravel road. Many field stones are on the ground and one foundation for a marble monument was seen. The monument could not be found. Residents of the community state that a brother and sister of Perry Ruble are buried here, and that the father and mother of John Davidson were buried here but their remains were re-interred in the Roberts Cemetery, this township. The farm on which this cemetery is situated was owned by Henry Robinson before 1887 and by Ira Shaw in 1916.

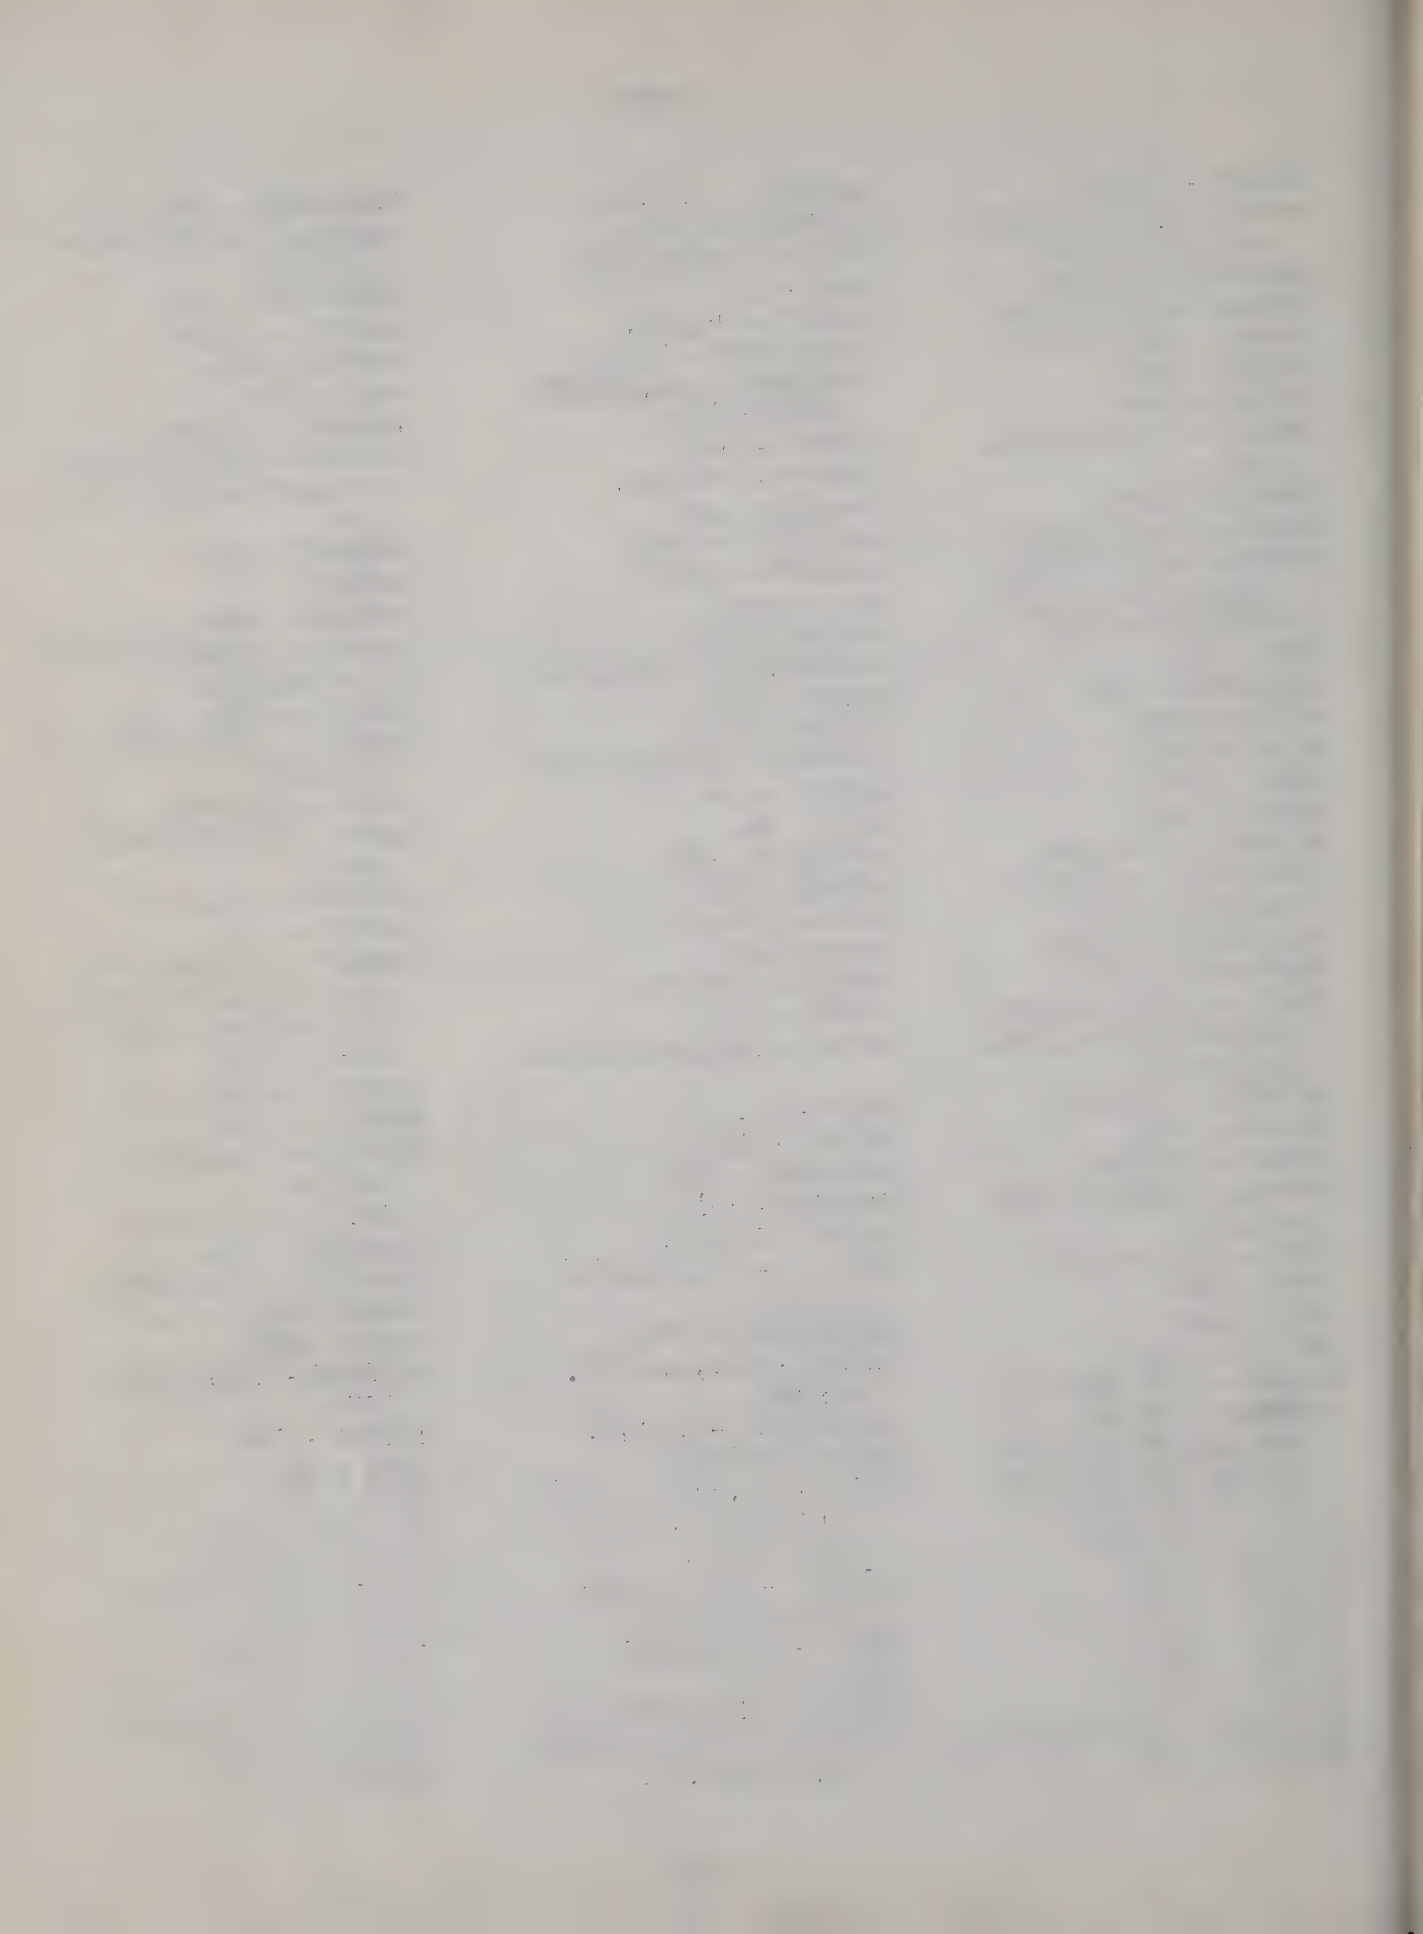

Unknown No.3. David Fender owned the farm on which this cemetery is situated before 1887. The names of the persons buried here are unknown.

Unknown No.4 and No.5. On the 113 acre farm and on the 313 acre farm owned by S. Sauner before 1887 are two cemeteries by the East Fork of White Oak Creek. Who is buried here is unknown. Residents of the vicinity state that on the site of one of these cemeteries stood a log church. The denomination is unknown.

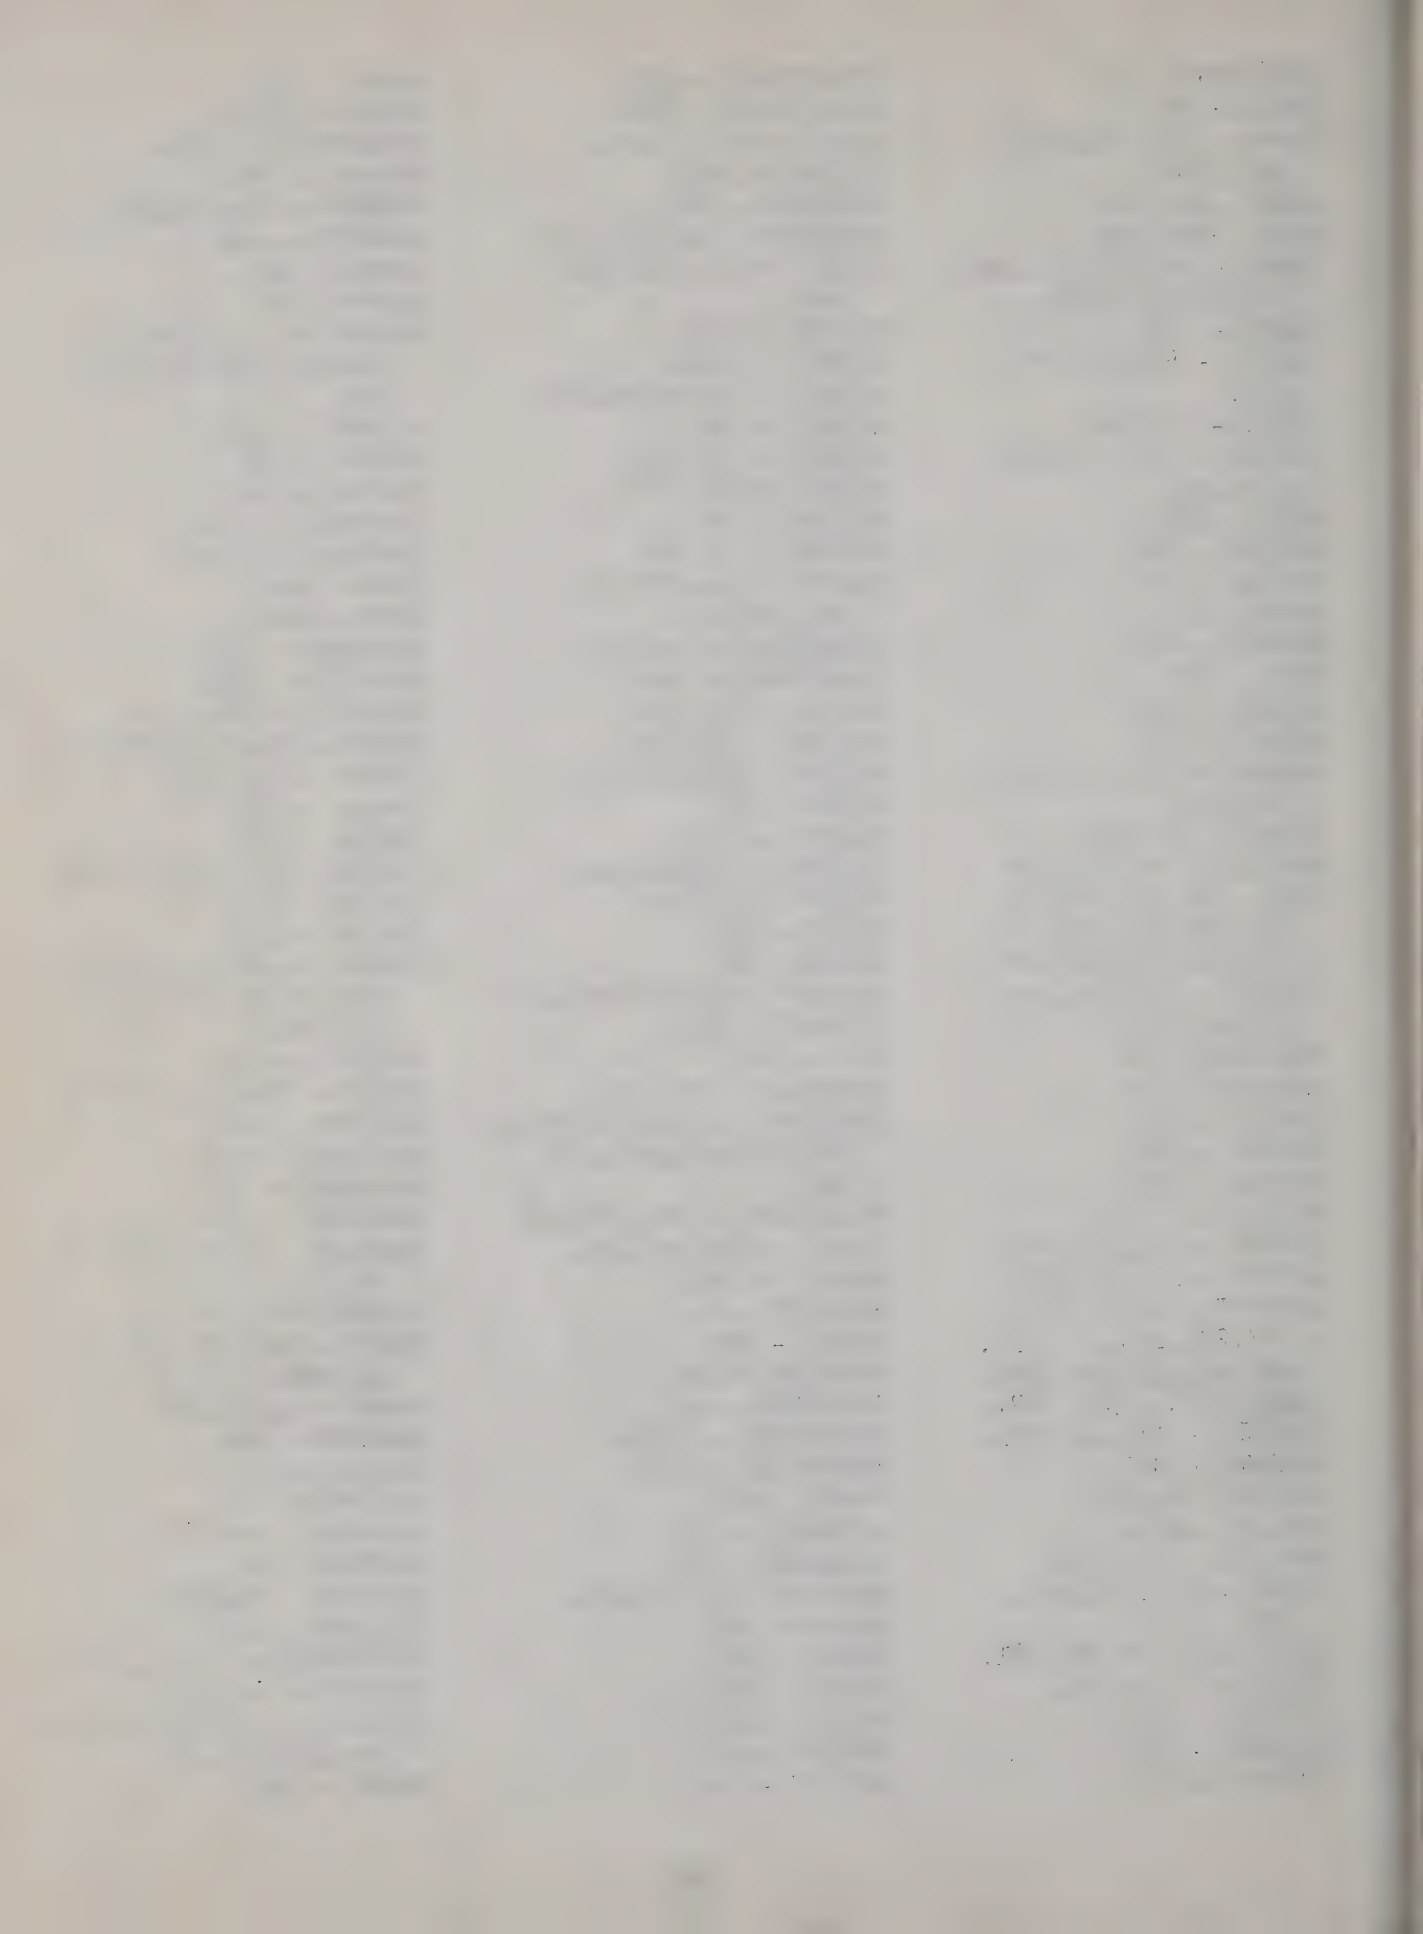

Unknown No.6. This cemetery is situated on a farm owned before 1871 by F. Kay. Residents of the vicinity state a husband and wife are buried here. There are also other graves. The names of the persons buried here are unknown. No monuments could be found.
